

Klamath Families Gather on Christmas

Many Homes Enjoy Visits From Friends and Relatives Over the Holidays

Klamath folks spent a quiet Christmas day and Christmas eve, and with the rest of the nation enjoyed the holiday with members of their families, out-of-town guests and people who dropped in during the day. Open houses were not so frequent as in other years, and it was principally a day for home folks and the children.

Gathered around the H. P. Bosworth Christmas tree were several visitors from the valley including Mrs. Bosworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Myers, and her sister's family, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Peirce and young son, Maxwell. Also there was Miss Josephine Koppas of Medford. The group returned to their homes in the valley city Christmas afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley DeVal of Portland are here for the Christmas holidays with Mrs. DeVaul's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson and family of near Olene. Mrs. Stevenson entertained with a breakfast on Christmas morning. The DeVauls, formerly of this city, will return north sometime Sunday.

At the Franklin L. Weavers for the holidays is their son, Clark, home from the University of Oregon, and Mr. Weaver's sister, Miss Florence Weaver of Los Angeles who spends Christmas here each year. She will return south after the first of the year.

Mr. Henry Haas of San Francisco, formerly of Klamath Falls, is here for the holidays with his sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl of North Third street and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houston of Pacific Terrace.

Mrs. Charles E. Hansen of Eugene is here until after New Year's with her daughter's family, Dr. and Mrs. Neil Black and son, Bruce. The Blacks, accompanied by Mrs. George Clark, left this weekend for San Francisco to spend several days. They are expected home Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. Black will visit with their father, Mr. George F. Black of the bay city.

Mrs. M. H. Dudley of Oakland is here until her daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Eley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tonseth of Florence, Oregon, are spending the holidays with their daughter's family, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams of Del Moro street.

Christmas dinner was enjoyed by members of the family at the home of Mrs. M. Giacomini of Merrill on Thursday afternoon. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Lester Orfield and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garcelon and daughter, Jane, of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. John Giacomini and son, Anthony, and Mrs. M. Giacomini.

Miss Betty Crawford returned to Portland Christmas afternoon after having spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford, and her sister and brother, Mrs. Lloyd Prock and Mr. Jack Crawford and their families.

Mrs. H. O. Allyn of Goldendale, Washington, enjoyed Christmas with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor and son, Robert, of Pine street. Mrs. Van Vactor is Mrs. Allyn's daughter.

Guests at the Wilbur A. Jones home on High street over the holidays included their son, Wilbur W. Jones of Pittsburg, California, and his fiancée, Miss Evelyn Haworth, also of Pittsburg. The two left Saturday for the south where they are affiliated with the Columbia Steel company, young James as industrial engineer, and Miss Haworth in the office.

Mrs. George J. Walton and daughter, Katherine, left Wednesday by motor for Stockton, California, to spend Christmas with Mrs. Walton's daughter, Mrs. J. Russell Bodley and family. En route home the Waltons will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Smet of San Francisco. They are expected here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Radcliffe, (Bernice Steelhammer), married recently in Portland at St. Michael and All Angels, spent Christmas with Mr. Radcliffe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe. They will return to Corvallis to make their home and where the young people will continue their studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Calhoun of Los Angeles are here for the holidays with Mrs. Calhoun's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King of Alameda street.

Mrs. Ralph Waggoner was among those who left for the holidays. She is visiting in Vallejo, and Berkeley, California, with her sister and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bathiany spent Christmas here with Mr. Bathiany's mother, Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, and his sister, Mrs. Jack Crawford.

Mrs. J. Truman Runyan and

Betrothal Made Known

Marie Collier to Wed Ross Ragland Is Holiday News

At a family Christmas gathering at the Andrew Collier country home, "Anabaglish," the betrothal of their eldest daughter, Marie Genevieve, to Mr. Ross Ragland, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Ragland of Modoc Point was made known.

The engagement was told to twenty guests and members of the Collier families as they gathered around a festive table Christmas day. The table was centered with red roses and holiday greens.

Miss Collier is a graduate of the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She is now affiliated with the Carnegie library staff here. Mr. Ragland is now attending Stanford university.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Covers at dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier and two daughters, Eleanor and Dorothy, Miss Dorothy Collier of Eugene, Mrs. George T. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Porter and two children, Karen and LeRoy, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Heiken and two sons, Max and Danny, Mrs. Helen Hendricks of Lake Chelan, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier and their three daughters, Marie, Carolyn and Phyllis.

FAMILY GATHERS AT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall entertained with a family dinner party on Christmas eve, the occasion also marking their wedding anniversary.

Gathering at their home on California avenue were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall and two sons, Roger and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. William Kuykendall and two children, Ailsa and John, and the D. V. Kuykendalls.

CHRISTMAS DINNER AT BELL HOME

Two long-time friends, Mr. J. M. Bell and Mr. Frank Evans, enjoyed their Christmas dinner together for the twenty-fifth consecutive year when members of both families met at the Bell home, 1334 Johnson avenue, at half past four o'clock Thursday.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schmidt and young son, Kurt, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson and son, Billy.

her mother, Mrs. A. J. Lyle, spent Christmas with Lieutenant Runyan in Roseburg. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Runyan of that city.

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR NEW YEAR'S EVE

Mrs. Ted Shoop, left, talking over plans for the annual New Year's eve ball at Reames Golf and Country club with members of her committee submits a breakfast menu which they all seem to approve. Left to right, Mrs. Shoop, Mrs. Don Drury, Mrs. R. E. Hooker, Mrs. Frank Tarr, and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm. Members of the committee not present include Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mrs. James Busch, and Mrs. Ted Reeves.

—Picture by Wesley Guiderian of The Herald and News.

YOUNGER SET ENJOY SKIING PARTY AT LAKE

A group of the younger set, home from various schools for the holidays, left early Saturday morning for Crater Lake park to spend the weekend skiing. They were accompanied by Miss Lillian Redkey.

Those who made up the party included Miss Janice Bubb, Miss Phyllis Collier, Miss Barbara Bell, Miss Patty Fleet, Miss Svea Swansen, Miss Marlyce Erlanson, Miss Redkey and Mr. Dick Igl, Mr. Rex Hiatt, Mr. Lee Metz, Mr. Dick Blohm, Mr. Fred Eyerly, Mr. Bob Jester, Mr. Eldridge Anderson, Mr. Harold Eitrem and Mr. Ben Hastings.

MACARTNEY HOME SCENE OF GATHERING

Miss Rose Macartney is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney of Washington street, and will return after the first of the year to resume her studies at the Katharine Branson school at Ross, California.

A family dinner at the Macartney home on Christmas day found the following gathered about the festive table, Mrs. Edmund S. Durment of Berkeley, Mrs. Macartney's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Macartney and young son, David, Miss Rose Macartney and the hosts.

During the day other members of the family sent greetings by telephone and message.

Smiths Entertain At Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley O. Smith entertained with a family dinner on Christmas day and their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Durment, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kimball, and Miss Marie McMillan. Dr. Buford Hargus, son of the Smiths, spent Christmas at Belmont, California, and sent greetings to his family on the holiday.

GARRIOTT CHILDREN

Averill Love and Billy Love Garrriott, are children of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Garrriott of Laguna street. Their grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes of Olene, pioneer residents of this district.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Snowball Dancing Party Friday Event

Miss Deanne Hamilton Crowned "Sweetheart" at Annual DeMolay Affair

One of the gayest affairs planned for the holiday season by members of the younger set was the annual snowball dance given by the Order of DeMolay in the Willard hotel ballroom Friday evening of this week. At eight o'clock the guests gathered in the decorated ballroom to dance to Emile Buzaid's orchestra.

During intermission the DeMolay "Sweetheart" and her court of princesses, were presented. The "Sweetheart," Miss Deanne Hamilton, escorted by Bill Burness, was crowned by Master Councillor Glenn Kennedy. Princesses were four attractive maids, Miss Marian Campbell, Miss Roberta Tucker, Miss Joanne Hamilton and Miss Wanda Shaw. Miss Campbell's escort was Mr. James Shaw, Miss Tucker's escort was Mr. Dick Howard, Mr. James Noel escorted Miss Joanne Hamilton, and Miss Shaw's companion was Mr. William King.

The patriotic theme was in keeping with the times, flags and red, white and blue streamers used effectively throughout the ballroom.

HOLIDAY GUESTS AT BLOHM HOME

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blohm have had as their Christmas houseguests their nephews, Charles and Paul Manlove of Portland. The boys returned to their home in the north on Saturday.

Dick Blohm, home from Reed college for the holidays, was accompanied here by Jack Beatty of Portland who spent the early part of the week at the Blohm home.

EAST COAST VISITORS IN KLAMATH FALLS

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook have as their Christmas houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraemer of Philadelphia. On Sunday the Hornbrooks and Kraemers will motor to San Francisco to spend New Year's.

Guests at Christmas dinner at the Hornbrook home included Mr. and Mrs. Kraemer, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Starkey and young son, Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Oakes.

Visitors Here From Idaho

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawthorn of Palmer, Idaho, accompanied by their daughter, Eleanor, student at Oregon State college, arrived in Klamath Falls Friday evening to spend the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jones, and also to join their daughter, Evelyn, here at the Jones' home from Pittsburg, California.

Mrs. Wilbur Jones will leave this weekend for Walnut Creek, California, to visit her son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury, and to stay with the three children, Mary Pat, Roxy and Nancy Elizabeth, while the Newburys enjoy a motor trip south for one week.

Mrs. Helen Hendricks of Lake Chelan, Washington, is visiting here over the holidays with her brother, Mr. E. H. Heiken of North Second street.

Portland Maid Is Bride in Church

Bernice Steelhammer and Thomas H. Radcliffe Married in Episcopal Ceremony

A wedding of interest in Klamath Falls took place Saturday evening, December the twentieth, at St. Michael and All Angels church in Portland when Miss Bernice Steelhammer of Portland and Mr. Thomas H. Radcliffe of this city were married at eight o'clock. The young couple spent Christmas in the city. Following is the story from the Oregon Journal:

"An all-ivory wedding was that of Miss Bernice Steelhammer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry William Steelhammer, whose marriage to Mr. Thomas Heber Radcliffe of Corvallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe of Klamath Falls, took place last evening at the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, Bishop William Proctor Remington of Pendleton read the service before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums.

Coffee Is Holiday Event

Corporal Donald West Honored at Watters' Home

An interesting holiday affair was the coffee given Sunday evening, December the twenty-first, between the hours of four and seven o'clock by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton Watters complimenting Corporal Donald West, home from Fort Knox, Kentucky.

This is the first visit Corporal West has made since going into the United States army. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. West of the Mt. Laki district, and well known among members of the younger set.

Mrs. Charles L. Moore presided at the prettily appointed coffee table which was centered with a miniature snow man holding forth in an arrangement of Christmas greens. Over his head fell a cascade of silver bells. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree, and holiday greens on the fireplace mantle made a gay background for the party. Mrs. Roy Whitlatch and Mr. Thomas Watters, daughter and son of the hosts, assisted during the afternoon.

Greeting Corporal West were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Macartney, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Post, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dehlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Miss Dorothy Teed, Miss Helen Moore, Mrs. Jean Hauger, Miss Margaret West, Miss Jolene Woodruff, Miss Patricia Woodruff, Mr. Paul Roberts, Mr. Donald Ellingson, Mr. Dick Nash, Mr. Don Hunt, Mr. Fred Peterson Jr., Mr. Lloyd Froom and Mr. Thomas Watters.

QUIZ CONTEST FEATURES LUNCHEON

Members of the college group, home from school for the holidays, were entertained at Rotary club's annual luncheon on Friday at twelve o'clock noon in the Willard hotel ballroom. More than one hundred boys and girls were guests of the club.

A quiz contest with the students asking questions and the Rotarians answering, was a feature of the party.

TARRS PLAN NEW YEAR'S PARTY SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr are having an informal Tom and Jerry party at their home in Weyerhaeuser on Sunday afternoon. Hours are from five o'clock until nine o'clock.

Twenty-five guests have been invited to call during the holiday party hours.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Proebstel and young son will move shortly after the first of the year into Dr. Paul Sharp's home on Second and Washington streets. They formerly resided in the Sharp home but for the past few months have lived in the Kenoffel apartments.

Little Cecile Vandenberg, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, will probably return to her home on Washington street this weekend after having spent Christmas in Klamath Valley hospital.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR WEDNESDAY CLUB

On December seventeenth the annual Christmas party was given for the members of St. Paul's Wednesday club at the parish house. The evening's program began with singing of favorite Christmas carols, and Santa himself distributed gifts. An appropriate "Christmas" dessert of plum pudding was served.

The room was gaily decorated with the Christmas tree, pine cones, spruce, fir and pine boughs. Ten tables of bridge were in play during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. E. B. Goeckner and Mrs. Percy Webb. Awards were defense stamps.

MRS. SPROAT INVITES GROUP FOR EVENING

Mrs. Robert O. Sproat has invited a few friends in for bridge Monday evening at her home on Hillside avenue.

Guests of Mrs. Sproat will be Miss Phyllis Foster, Miss Patricia Gallagher, Miss Carolyn Collier, Miss Peggy Constans, Miss Mary Jane Eyerly, Miss Betty Lou Drake and Miss Margaret DeBolt. Most of the young women are home from school for the holidays.

MOTHERS CLUB PLANS MEET IN JANUARY

Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver will entertain at her home at half past one o'clock for members of the University of Oregon Mothers club. Assisting hostess will be Mrs. William Anderson.

This is the first meeting of the year for the group which has met for a number of years. Mothers of students are invited to affiliate with the Mothers club.

OPEN HOUSE CHRISTMAS DAY IS EVENT

One of the most delightful parties of the week was that presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Britt of 935 Pacific Terrace when they invited friends in for Tom n' Jerry on Christmas afternoon. Hours were from two o'clock until half past five o'clock.

The rooms were festive with Christmas greens and decorations. Fifty called during the hours.

Miss Virginia Bubb, who has been home for the holidays visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb, her parents, plans to leave Tuesday for Prineville to spend the remainder of the holidays visiting Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett and their daughter, Lisbeth. Miss Bubb will return to the University of Oregon from Prineville.

Annual Open House

Friends Bidden to Shaw Home on Thursday

For the tenth consecutive year friends will gather at the Shaw home, 2515 Homedale avenue, and enjoy an open house which has become quite traditional in this town. Mrs. Clara Shaw and Mrs. Ruth Turner, her daughter, will be the hostesses, and they have invited old friends as well as new to gather around their festive fireplace on the first day of the New Year.

Thursday, January the first, is the day, and hours are from two o'clock until six o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray will assist during the afternoon.

FAMILY OBSERVES CHRISTMAS IN TRADITIONAL WAY

Christmas was traditionally observed by the Hannon family when members of the family gathered on Christmas eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hannon on North Eighth street. On Christmas day Mrs. Ellen Hannon, Miss Bernadine Hannon and Mr. E. J. Murray greeted members of the family and a few old friends at an informal reception at their home on North Eighth street.

CORVALLIS VISITORS AT ROBERTS'

Mr. and Mrs. Innis Roberts have had as their holiday guests, Mrs. Roberts' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Corvallis, and Miss Gladys Raddas, also of the valley city. On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Charles I. Roberts asked a few in for an informal tea and to greet Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Paul W. Sharp left Saturday morning for Fort Lewis, Washington, where she and Dr. Sharp have been for the past year. Mrs. Sharp spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mueller of North Third street.

KISSES COOLING?

Have you found tattle-tale grey on the glow of your honeymoon? Are kisses on a park bench losing their punch? What you need is a romance refresher!

SEE SKYLARK

HURRY!

FORMALS Should Be Cleaned for New Year's Eve!

We Give S&H Green Stamps

NEW METHOD CLEANERS Phone 4471

1453 Esplanade

COMFORT Makes the Famous CANTILEVER Soles the favorite health shoe for thousands of women

- * Ideal combination last No. 74
- * Full tread and toe room
- * High cut flexible arch
- * Straight inner line

There must be a reason why Doctors recommend the Cantilever

Stewart & Smith 827 Main St. Now $8.50