

Mrs. Martin Takes Over OES Office

Mr. LeRoy Erdmann Named Worthy Patron of Aloha Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, worthy matron, and Mr. LeRoy Erdmann, worthy patron, were duly installed into their respective offices Tuesday evening, December the twenty-third, at the regular meeting of Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, in the Masonic temple on Klamath avenue.

Installing officers for the evening, all past matrons of the Eastern Star, were: Mrs. William J. Steinmetz, installing matron;

Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, installing marshal; Mrs. Hiram F. Murdoch, installing chaplain; Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, installing secretary; Mrs. George Hurn, installing treasurer; Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, installing pianist.

The elected and appointed officers for 1942 who will serve with Mrs. Martin and Mr. Erdmann, and who were regularly installed at the Tuesday evening meeting are: Mrs. Clarence A. Humble, associate matron; Mr. Lawrence K. Phelps, associate patron; Mrs. Ed Markham, secretary; Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, treasurer; Mrs. R. Dickson, conductress; Mrs. John Oldham, associate conductress; Mrs. Oscar Smith, Adah; Miss McArthur, Ruth; Miss Isabelle Milne, Esther; Mrs. Will Wood, Martha; Miss Frances Finch, Electa; Mrs. Nina Currier, warder; Mr. John Oldham, sentinel; Mrs. Victor Josephson, chaplain; Mrs. L. L. Hendricks, marshal; Mrs. Fred H. Cofer, pianist.

The main chapter room and the dining room were beautifully decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of deep blue and silver. The rostrum in the east had for background a massed arrangement of deep blue and silver, ribboned strips of cellophane, the arch above being outlined with blue electric globes, and on each side stood a silvered fir tree, with blue lights and ornaments. Clusters of silvered pine and fir cones and boughs and blue candles were arranged about the chapter room.

A new altar, constructed by Mr. Robert E. Wattenburg, decorated by Mrs. Walter Brown, and financed by the 1941 officers and visitors, was presented to the chapter, Mr. Wattenburg making the presentation talk. The altar is finished in driftwood gray and upholstered in deep blue, with floral emblems of the five points of the Star painted on milk glass, around sides, and lighted from within by electric globes. Oliver W. Spiker, worthy matron, accepted this lovely piece of furniture, in behalf of the chapter.

Mrs. Walter Brown, worthy matron of Cascade Crest chapter of Chiloquin, was introduced and escorted to a seat in the east. Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, chapter chairman of Red Cross activities, read a letter from Mrs. H. Fay Ambrose, worthy grand matron of Oregon, saying that Aloha chapter had done more work than any chapter in the state outside of Portland.

Mrs. Spiker addressed the members briefly before turning the gavel over to her successor, telling of the loyalty, cooperation and good will which the officers and members have given her during the past year, and which will always be to her a pleasant memory. Mrs. Spiker especially expressed appreciation and gratitude for the faithfulness and help of her worthy patron, Mr. Arlet Edsall.

At the close of installation ritualistic ceremonies, Mrs. Glenn Kent sang "O Holy Night," with Mrs. Fred Cofer at the piano. Twelve girls, members of Job's Daughters, conferred an impressive floral degree on Mrs. Charlotte Martin, presenting a basket of large white chrysanthemums, and also distributing corsages to each newly installed star point. Taking part in this feature were: Mary Ellen Long, Merlon Albrecht, Maria Campbell, Mary Jane Drake, Betty Buchanan, Joy Kent, Barbara Moore, Virginia Howard, Lois Hankins, Barbara Shultz, Ann Mueller, Mary Lou Johnson, Betty Yadon, Charlotte Carter.

Mrs. Martin gave a brief talk, expressing her earnest desire to serve Aloha chapter to the best of her ability with justice and humility. Mr. Erdmann also told of his pleasure and pride in being asked to serve Aloha chapter in the capacity of worthy patron. The 1941 officers in a lovely little ceremony presented a gift to Mrs. Spiker. Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, in behalf of Aloha Past Matron club, gave to Mrs. Spiker a bouquet of red carnations, and extended her a cordial invitation to become a member of the club. The past matron's jewel, the gift of the chapter, was presented to Mrs. Spiker by Mrs. Wattenburg, who praised the retiring worthy matron for her many splendid qualities.

Mr. Will Wood presented, in behalf of the chapter, the past patron's jewel to Mr. Arlet Edsall, retiring patron. Gifts from her family were given to Mrs. Martin by her daughter, Mrs. J. Hardin Carter. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Walter Brown received lovely vases from Mr. Wattenburg.

Members of Klamath Lodge No. 77, represented by Mr. Arthur Dickson, Mr. Earl Templar and Mr. Victor Josephson, gave to Mrs. Martin a large basket filled with poinsettias, chrysanthemums and greens, and tied with a fluffy tulle bow. Neighbors of Mrs. John Oldham, newly installed associate conductress, sent her a basket of gorgeous red rosebuds.

The refreshment committee consisted of Mrs. Harold M. Brown and Mrs. Frank Ira White, joint chairmen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Frain, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan, Mrs. G. Logan Black, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter and Mrs. R. D. Eller.

The dining room was lovely in decorations of deep blue and silver. Job's Daughters, under the direction of Mrs. Howard Listoe, grand guardian, were responsible for these decorations. Balls of popcorn wrapped in blue cellophane marked each cover. Ice cream shaped like a water lily, decorated cakes, and coffee were served well after the midnight hour. More than one hundred members were present to enjoy the occasion.
