

Picture News of the Week

COUNTY BUYS $50,000 BOND—Klamath county bought a $50,000 defense bond with money from the bond sinking fund this week. Picture shows, seated, left to right: County Commissioner Jack Benner, County Judge U. E. Reeder, and County Commissioner John Reber. Standing is Senator Marshall Cornett, who promoted the sale as chairman of the government division of the county defense savings committee.

NOW SECOND LIEUTENANT—This is Eble Reber, son of County Commissioner and Mrs. John Reber of Malin, who has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the air corps. He is now taking final pilot training at Phoenix.

HAULING AWAY THE SNOW—Snow piled in the center of Main street was hauled away in trucks Friday, clearing the streets. This picture shows a truck being filled with snow at Ninth and Main streets.

AFTER MANILA'S FALL—Here is the new scene of battle in the Philippines following the fall of Manila, with Cavite evacuated but American and Philippine troops fighting on north of the city. (NEA Telephoto)

GIRLS RUN H. S. PAPER—Girls hold dominant positions on the staff of the Klamath Union high school paper, the Krater, for the coming term. Left to right: Marcille Reynolds, editor; Anita Gwyn, assistant editor; Nadine Palmerton, copy editor, and Dorothy Ellingson, news editor.

KLAMATH MARINE HONORED—Shown here is Private James Earl Rogers of Klamath Falls receiving the "honor badge for efficiency" from Major General William P. Upshur at recent ceremonies at the Marine corps base at San Diego. The badge is one of the most coveted awards of recruit training. Rogers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, 851 Pacific Terrace.

RUSSIANS TAKE KALININ—Flames sweep a building in Kalinin, Russia, as red army troops enter the city, recaptured from the Germans in Russian counter-offensive.

GREETINGS—Staff Sergeant Chesley of the US marine corps recruiting station here offers congratulations to Lawrence Orval Luce, first man to enlist in the marines in 1942. Young Luce's brother, Russell Loyd Luce, was the last man to enlist at the local station in 1941. The boys are sons of Lawrence E. Luce, 324 Martin street.

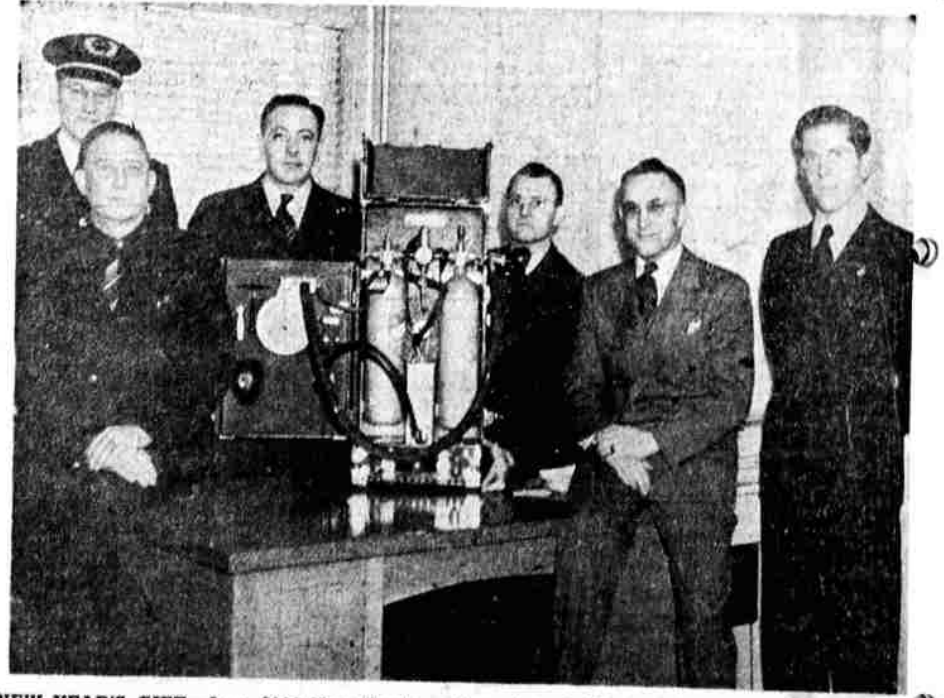

HAPPY ITALIAN PRISONERS—Hands raised and many waving white handkerchiefs, Italian soldiers trapped near Tobruk rush toward British lines to be taken prisoner. One lone British soldier in foreground greets them. (NEA Telephoto)

CHURCHILL, ROOSEVELT AT CHURCH—Winston Churchill and President Roosevelt leave Christ church at Alexandria, Va., New Year's day after sitting in George Washington's pew to hear Rev. E. R. Welles (left), rector, pray for victory and peace. Left to right: Welles, Lord Halifax, Churchill, an unidentified man and the president.

WARPLANE PRODUCTION LINE—Boeing Aircraft company released this picture of a heavy bomber production line at its Seattle plant, coincident with a statement the firm had beaten delivery schedules by 70 per cent in December. It said the announcement and photograph were approved by the war department.

NEW YEAR'S GIFT—As a $300 New Year's gesture of goodwill, the AFL Teamsters' union, local 911, this week presented the community with a portable resuscitator for use by city police, sheriff's officers, state police, and Klamath medical men. The resuscitator will be placed in the city police headquarters where it will be available 24 hours a day. Shown above as the machine was presented to the city are Assistant Police Chief Earl Heuvel, Sheriff Lloyd Low, Earl Edsall, sec. reary-treasurer of the Teamsters; Ralph Waggoner, president of local 911; Mayor John Houston and Hugh Cole, Teamsters' trustee.