

New Year's Eve Affair Wednesday

Elk Hotel Scene of Gay No-Host Affair As 1942 Greeted by Guests at Buffet Supper

One of the gayest of New Year's eve parties was the informal gathering of a group of friends in the dining room of the Elk hotel where a buffet supper and dance was enjoyed from ten to two o'clock starting the last day of the year.

Making plans for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zamsky, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Don Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hart Jones and Mr. and Mrs. John Schubert.

Bright red and green garlands and other holiday greens made the large room attractive. Small tables were placed about the rooms. At midnight "Auld Lang Syne" was the greeting and horns and serpentine distributed among the guests.

Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Post, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nellis, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mushen, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray, Mr. and Mrs. George May, Mr. and Mrs. Al Zenger, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zamsky, Mr. and Mrs. Don Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. John Schubert, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hart Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Goeckner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Urquhart, Miss Ruth Dunning, Miss Mary J. Clark, Mr. Haarby Bechen, Mr. Jack Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Jobe, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Walter LeSette, Dr. and Mrs. Nell Black, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogatay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. David Bullis, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whytal and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Padgett.

But a few weeks remain until the annual benefit bridge party and tea given by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club for Doernbecher hospital, and committees are working toward one of the most successful parties in the many years the group has donated funds to the children's institution.

VISITOR FETED AT BEANE HOME

A gay time was shown Mary Ellen Dalton of Dallas on her visit here this past week as the houseguest of Barbara Beane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beane of Pacific Terrace.

Miss Dalton arrived Tuesday. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta and president of the house on the Oregon State college campus. On Wednesday she enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Lawrence Hardman of Tulelake, former classmate, and on New Year's eve attended a party given at Cal-Ore tavern by Mr. and Mrs. Beane. Friday the younger group journeyed to Crater lake for a day of skiing.

Miss Beane, Miss Wilamae Lehto, Miss Dalton and Richard Beane will return Sunday to resume their studies.

OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED BY SHRINE CLUB

Members of the Klamath Shrine club are looking forward to the dinner scheduled for half past six o'clock Wednesday evening at the Elk hotel. There will be a cocktail hour followed by dinner at seven o'clock.

Newly elected officers will take over their duties at this meeting. Mr. Robert Thompson is president, Mr. E. B. Hall, vice president, and Mr. Floyd Stanley, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Willard Ward is in charge of the evening's program. Plans will be made for 1942 activities. The affair is for members of the Shrine club only.

SUPPER ON NEW YEAR'S FOR VISITORS

For the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham of Eugene who were New Year's houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston entertained with an informal supper party at six o'clock New Year's night at their home on Pacific Terrace.

Sixteen guests were bidden to the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Graham left Friday for their home in the north.

Cascade Crest Chapter to Meet

Cascade Crest chapter, OES, will hold its first meeting of 1942 on Wednesday evening, January the seventh, at half past seven o'clock in the Masonic temple at Chilcoquin with the worthy matron, Mrs. Walter Brown, and the worthy patron, Mr. William Morande, presiding. A social hour will be held after the regular meeting. All members of the order are cordially invited to attend.

Cocktail Party Given

Guests Gather at Thompsons Before Elks Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson entertained with a cocktail party in the recreation room of their home on Pacific Terrace for a group just before the Elks dancing party New Year's eve.

Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Seruys assisted the hosts. The buffet table was attractive with arrangements of bright red poinsettias, large red candles and holiday greens.

Fifty guests were invited for the affair including a number from out-of-town, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes Jr., of Grants Pass who were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Slater, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham of Eugene, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

COMMITTEES FOR ANNUAL TEA NAMED

But a few weeks remain until the annual benefit bridge party and tea given by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club for Doernbecher hospital, and committees are working toward one of the most successful parties in the many years the group has donated funds to the children's institution.

The date of the affair is Saturday, January the thirty-first, at half past one o'clock in the Willard hotel.

Mrs. Robert A. Thompson is chairman of cards and she has named the following committee heads: Mrs. A. G. Proctor, table reservations; Mrs. Harry Wayne, tables and chairs; Mrs. J. F. King, stage decorations, and Mrs. Emile Buzaid, tallies.

Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns is chairman of the tea committee and has named sub-chairmen, each to select her own committee. Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb will be in charge of flowers and tea services, Mrs. Glenn Kent will solicit for tea cookies, and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver is in charge of the serving.

All women of the city are urged to take part in the benefit with all funds going to the children's hospital in Portland.

Affairs Honor Visitors From East

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wakefield of Massachusetts, who are the guests of Mrs. Wakefield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck, have been entertained at several informal dinner parties during the past two weeks, and have been greeted at the Groesbeck home by a number of friends.

The Wakefields returned the middle of the week from a visit to Portland and Timberline lodge, and plan to remain here until next week before leaving for their home in the east. Mrs. Wakefield is the former Grace Jean Groesbeck.

JUDITH

Little Jud'ith Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mahoney of Oakland, California, and formerly of this city. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Mahoney and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Krueger, all of Klamath Falls. —Kennell-Ellis

DECEMBER BRIDE

Miss Bernice Irene Steelhammer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry William Steelhammer of Portland, was a lovely bride of December the twentieth when she became Mrs. Thomas H. Radcliffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe of this city. The ceremony was read at the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, Portland.

—Deacon, Portland

Kiwanis Party Set For Wednesday Eve

Dinner Party to Be Followed by Dancing at Installation of Club's Officers

Outstanding on next week's calendar is the installation of officers of Kiwanis club which will take place Wednesday evening, January the seventh at the Willard hotel when a dinner dance is scheduled along with the ceremony.

Mr. Malcolm Epley will be installed as president; Mr. Ed Ostendorf, vice president; Mr. Bert C. Thomas, treasurer; directors, Mr. John M. Budd, Mr. R. C. Dale, Mr. Orin Fraley, Mr. Joseph Hicks, Mr. Lester Offield, Mr. Henry Perkins, Mr. Charles Seavey, Mr. E. A. Thomas and Mr. Willard Ward. Retiring president is Mr. Fred Southwell.

Here for the installation will be Mr. Charles Wiper of Eugene, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis, and Mr. Phil Hitchcock of Bend, former lieutenant governor. The speaker of the evening will be Mr. D. J. Ferguson, chaplain of the United States army at Vancouver Barracks, former Presbyterian minister at Albany and Astoria.

Dr. Ernest D. Lamb is chairman of the evening with Mr. John H. Houston scheduled as master of ceremonies. Dr. Lamb's committee includes Mr. Paul Roberts, Mr. E. M. Igl, Mr. Stanley Woodruff and Mr. Willard Ward. Mrs. Lamb will be in charge of table decorations.

The cocktail hour is planned for half past six o'clock with dinner at seven o'clock and installation ceremonies at eight o'clock. Dancing will be at nine o'clock, according to the chairman.

There will be music and special entertainment during the dinner hour and a cordial invitation has been extended to all Kiwanians and their guests to attend the affair which is the social highlight of the Kiwanis year. At least one hundred and thirty are expected to attend the dinner and dance.

Holiday at Dalton Ranch

Virginia and Janice Bubb, home from school for the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb, spent New Year's with Betty Lou Dalton at the ranch home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton, near Malin. They left Tuesday for the ranch and returned here Thursday. Betty Lou is home from Dominican college at San Rafael.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jenkins and two children, Nancy Lou and Clifford Jr., are expected home this weekend from a holiday visit spent at the home of Mr. Jenkins' mother and other members of the family in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cofer were Christmas guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foster, at Prineville. Also holiday guests at the Foster home were Mrs. Foster's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barrie of Lakeview.

Mid-Winter Carnival

Winter Dancing Club Schedules Affair January 17

Plans for the second of a series of four parties planned by the Winter Dancing club in the Willard hotel Saturday evening, January the seventeenth, are being made by a group of hosts made up of four young couples. The affair, to be held in the Willard hotel, will be a mid-winter carnival with favors and fun planned in the spirit of the occasion.

Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tibbitt, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Goeckner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Funk.

LEAGUE TO MEET AT PACKER HOME

The first meeting of the new year for Junior Chamber league members is scheduled for Monday at half past seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. M. Packer, 1951 Erie street. Hostesses will be Mrs. Packer, Mrs. Joseph S. Bally, Mrs. John H. Harris Jr., and Mrs. Ralph M. Stearns.

All wives and sweethearts of Junior Chamber members are invited to attend. Mrs. Embert Fossum will give a reading during the evening and there will be sewing for the Red Cross on hand.

COCKTAIL PARTY AT HANVILLE'S

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville asked a small group of friends in for cocktails before the Elks New Year's eve party on Wednesday at their home on Lavey street.

Guests of the Hanvilles included Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Justin McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Griggs, and Mr. and Mrs. William Van Buskirk.

Mrs. Walter Brown will entertain members of the verse group of the League of Western Writers at her home on Pacific Terrace Monday afternoon, January the fifth, at a half past one o'clock dessert.

BUY DEFENSE SAVINGS STAMPS at SEARS

Open House New Year's

McComb Home Scene Of Party on Thursday Afternoon

Thirty-five guests called between the hours of two and six o'clock New Year's day at the home of Miss Mary McComb, 1635 Crescent avenue, when Miss McComb and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blodgett entertained at open house on the first day of the year.

Coffee was served at a prettily appointed table centered with greens and a horn of plenty which held bright fruits. Assisting at the coffee table were Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mrs. Warren Bennet and Miss Marie Collier.

REGULAR MEETING OF DAR SLATED

Members of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, are looking forward to the Monday evening meeting of this coming week when they gather at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, 219 Pine street, for the first meeting of the year. Mrs. Wattenburg will be assisted by Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm and Mrs. B. W. Zollman.

The programs, "Early Oregon Gardens," will be presented by Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb.

Plans for the state conference of the Oregon Society of Daughters of the American Revolution to be held in Klamath Falls Tuesday and Wednesday, February the seventeenth and eighteenth, will be discussed at the Monday session.

Reeds Visit In Pennsylvania

New Year's holidays are being spent in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and other points on the east coast by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed and son, Scott, who left Sunday night by train for their former home. They expect to return the latter part of January.

Women Organize For Red Cross Work

Groups Meeting for Knitting and Stitchery as War Work Attracts Many Klamathites

Bridge is due for a chair in the back row of afternoon meetings and instead the click of knitting needles and the whirr of the sewing machine, and the sighs over button holes, will take the place of the "four no-trump" and the Oregon convention player's response.

Within the past week several groups have organized for Red Cross sewing and knitting.

ROBERT

First New Year's day for Master Robert Harwood who is just six months old and the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Harwood of 216 Washington street.

Mrs. Winnifred Gillen is enjoying the skiing at Timberline lodge at Mount Hood and has been at the winter resort for the past week.

First to start a group of ten were Mrs. Stanley R. Woodruff and Mrs. Raymond Cooney who asked friends in Thursday morning of last week. The guests brought sandwiches and the hostesses provided cake and coffee. A box of Red Cross sewing was opened and distributed, the guests choosing between men's pajamas and children's nightgowns. All called for button holes and the work was on.

Guests at the Woodruff home included Mrs. Howard Listoe, Mrs. F. W. Peake, Mrs. Dean Osborn, Mrs. Neil Black, Mrs. Wilhelm Bodine, Mrs. Albert Fitch, Mrs. Harold Palmer and Mrs. Arnold Grapp and the two hostesses. The group will meet each Thursday and Mrs. Peake will entertain Thursday, January the eighth.

On Tuesday at one o'clock Mrs. Robert C. Hart asked a group for luncheon with sewing following. This group also plans frequent meetings, and those gathering at Mrs. Hart's home on Pacific Terrace were Mrs. R. E. Geary, Mrs. Sam Lockwood, Mrs. John Budd, Mrs. Don Drury, Mrs. John H. Harris Jr., Mrs. S. A. Wilcox of Portland, Mrs. C. A. Henderson and the hostess.

Mrs. John Shaw and daughter, Betty, left Friday by train for Portland where they will spend the coming week and attend the wedding this weekend of Mrs. Shaw's sister, Miss Molly Cunningham.

Tremendous Savings... January

Fur Sale

Positively the Greatest Price Slashing Fur Sale ever held in Klamath Falls! Gorgeous top-quality furs cut to cost... near cost... BELOW COST! Compare Sitkin quality and price with ANY FURS OFFERED ANY WHERE! Here is the fur coat you want—at the price you want to pay... Be here Monday... EARLY!

OUR LIBERAL CREDIT TERMS ARE STILL IN EFFECT!

SITKIN FURS

ONE OF A KIND --	REDUCED TO CLEAR!
Southern Back Mink-dyed Muskrat. Was $159..... Now $119.00	3 Row China Mink Coat. Was $395..... Now $259.00
Brown Lapin-dyed Coney. Was $69.50..... Now $ 39.50	Dyed Rus. Squirrel Back. Was $210..... Now $179.00
Nat. Baby Panther Coat. Was $129..... Now $ 69.50	Dyed 32" China Mink. Was $249..... Now $169.00
Black Caracul Head Coat. Was $125..... Now $ 89.50	Brown Kid Jacket. Was $49.50..... Now $ 29.50
Brown Caracul Lamb Paw Coat. Was $110..... Now $ 79.50	Natural Red Fox Jacket. Was $99.50..... Now $ 79.50
Sable-dyed Ermine. Was $395..... Now $259.00

IN PERSON!

ROSE ANN SITKIN, one of America's foremost designers, is here direct from her Los Angeles store, with hundreds of beautiful furs to add to our already large stock. She will be glad to aid you in making your selection!

BETTER FURS -- TERRIFICALLY REDUCED!

Northern Back Sable-blended Muskrats. Were $249 to $299..... Now $199 to $239
Dyed Russian Ermine Coats. Were $449 to $595..... Now $379 to $495
1 Only-American Mink. Was $1,295..... Now $895
Brown or Grey Russian Squirrel. Were $210 to $295..... Now $179 to $259

LONG'S

719 MAIN