Red Cross—Again!
By EARL WHITLOCK
The present Red Cross drive for added millions of dollars is not just an afterthought of its usual fall drive for memberships.

This is the real thing! The Red Cross must make, immediately, preparations, on a scale unparalleled for the past 25 years. So you'd better just forget the little Red Cross button and widow sticker your dollar bought here recently and dig considerably deeper before you'll have any right to feel that you've done your share in the interests of mercy and humanity.

There will be pain and suffering and deprivation aplenty before this war is ended. There will be need for all the resources of the Red Cross. Where? When? Who knows. Maybe right here. Disaster issues no advance bulletins. Support your Red Cross with your time and your money.

Next Monday Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home will comment on "About Heroes."

Day of Prayer—The date for the World Day of Prayer has been set for February 20, it was announced Monday, and all churches desiring to unite in the annual union meeting, are asked to send at once for sufficient programs for their respective programs which they may obtain from church headquarters. RED CROSS JOB ORGANIZED AT SPRAGUE RIVER

SPRAGUE RIVER—Under the direction of Mrs. Peter Streit, local Red Cross chairman and president of the Women's Service league, a group of women met Tuesday, December 30 in the Hoesley hall to formulate plans for work during the coming season. Mrs. Streit, who saw active service in the Red Cross during the first World war made the following tentative appointments, assistant chairman, Mrs. C. A. Fuller; head of cutting department, Mrs. E. B. Riley; building custodian, Mrs. Betty Moore; head of sewing department, Mrs. Joe Young; knitting, Mrs. Will Zadow; bookkeeping, Mrs. Claude Masters or Mrs. Ruth Heidrich. The above appointments may be slightly changed.

The women have been greatly aided in their work by the donation of the IEU union hall at Hoesley's camp. The building, which is about 20 by 30 feet in dimensions, is ideal for the sewing work. It was built in 1940 by the union members, who recently disbanded. It has been used somewhat as a meeting hall for the people of the community. A long table will be installed for cutting and people of the town have pledged numerous pieces of furniture to help fit out the room. For the duration of the war, the hall will be used exclusively for Red Cross and similar work.

After the regular meeting, refreshments of tea and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Claude Masters, Mrs. Betty Moore and Mrs. Joe Young to the following women, Mrs. Peter Streit, Mrs. Myron Mallison, Mrs. Joe Young, Mrs. Claude Masters, Mrs. Rollo Moore, Mrs. Arthur Ipe, Mrs. Eber Riley, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. Jim Williamson, Mrs. C. A. Fuller and several new guest members.

The old Service league will be abandoned as a club during the war and all women in the community interested in helping in

Sprague Girl Scouts Have New Uniforms

SPRAGUE RIVER—Scouts and their mothers met Tuesday night at the home of the scoutmaster, Mrs. Joe Young, to work on the new uniforms that were recently ordered. Chief business of the evening was the cutting and fitting of the goods for the suits. The new uniforms are standard Girl Scout uniforms with official buttons and red neckties.

The purchase of the new suits was financed wholly by the sale of Christmas cards conducted by the troop members during the past two months. The uniforms will be worn at special scout meetings, jamborees and conferences.

The girls are planning to make infant clothes for the Red Cross during the coming emergency. They will meet one week to get materials and directions for home work during the rest of the week.

After the regular meeting, refreshments were served by the leader, Mrs. Young.
