

APPLICATIONS BEING HANDED OUT FOR TIRES

Application blanks for new tires and tubes are being given out at the chamber of commerce, in line with the tire rationing program which got underway here Monday with organization of a county tire-rationing committee.

These are the classes of vehicles for which new tires or tubes may be sold, under the new OPM eligibility classifications:

No certificate shall be issued unless the applicant for the certificate certifies that the tire or tube for which application is made is to be mounted:

- (a) On a vehicle which is operated by a physician, surgeon, visiting nurse, or a veterinary, and which is used principally for professional services.
- (b) On an ambulance.
- (c) On a vehicle used exclusively for one or more of the following purposes:
 1. To maintain fire fighting services.
 2. To maintain necessary public police services.
 3. To enforce such laws as relate specifically to the protection of public health and safety.
 4. To maintain garbage disposal and other sanitation services.
 5. To maintain mail services.
- (d) On a vehicle, with a capacity of ten or more passengers, operated exclusively for one or more of the following purposes:
 1. Transportation of passengers as part of the services rendered to the public by a regular transportation system.
 2. Transportation of students and teachers to and from school.
 3. Transportation of employees to or from any industrial or mining establishment or construction project, except when public transportation facilities are readily available.
 4. On a truck operated exclusively for one or more of the purposes stated in the preceding sections or for one or more of the following purposes:
 1. Transportation of ice and fuel.
 2. Transportation of material and equipment for the building and maintenance of public roads.
 3. Transportation of material and equipment for the construction and maintenance of public utilities.
 4. Transportation of material and equipment for the construction of defense housing facilities and military and naval establishments.
 5. Transportation essential to render roofing, plumbing, heating and electrical repair services.
 6. Transportation by any common carrier.
 7. Transportation of waste and scrap materials.
 8. Transportation of raw materials, semi-manufactured goods, and finished products, including farm products and foods, provided that no certificate shall be issued for a new tire or tube to be mounted on a truck used (a) for the transportation of commodities to the ultimate consumer for personal, family, or household use; or (b) for transportation of materials for construction and maintenance except to the extent specifically provided by subsections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this section (e).
 9. On farm tractors or other farm implements other than automobiles or trucks for the operation of which rubber tires or tubes are essential.
 10. On industrial, mining, and construction equipment other than automobiles or trucks for the operation of which rubber tires or tubes are essential.

RESTAURANTS FREE

CHICAGO —(P)—When police raided his restaurant because it had a handbook where the kitchen should have been, James L. Stewart, who said he was the owner, gave this explanation:

"About three weeks ago, some one telephoned me and asks me if I want a restaurant for free. Then the caller says, 'Go to 214 North Clark street and take it over. It's all yours.' So I did."

Stewart was charged with disorderly conduct and ownership of the restaurant was investigated further.

THIS IS WAR

CHICAGO —(P)—John Warneck, hit by an automobile, was taken to a hospital where physicians, after bandaging his more serious cuts, told him it was imperative he remain at the hospital pending X-rays.

"No," said Warneck, "I can't. I have to be at my steel mill by five in the morning to adjust the oil gauge. This is war, you know." And off he went.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour 2 pints of bile into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

It takes three good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up."

Get 4 packages today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 10¢ and 25¢.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

DOROTHEA ELLINGSON

Mr. Smith, who is in charge of the evening German classes at the high school, said that though 27 students enrolled in the German classes, only 14 have attended regularly, including two adults. Because of the small class, Mrs. Good, Mr. Eschebeck and Mr. Smith will probably alternate teaching the class instead of having three separate classes as was the original plan.

"Chuck" Stanfield, head of the music department, said that he is already making plans for a big exhibition to be presented between halves of the basketball games both Friday and Saturday nights, January 16 and 17.

Mrs. B. B. Blomquist's fifth period dramatics class is going to present an original drama within the next 10 days during the noon hour in the little theatre.

The drama entitled, "She is More to be Pitted Than Censored," or "Curses, Foiled Again," was written by George Brown, a sophomore. This play is being given to raise money for defense stamps and relates the story of the goony Seawater family. Admission prices have been set at three cents for adults, so all freshmen will be admitted for one cent.

One hundred and eighty dollars in defense stamps have been sold to date since the beginning of the sale," stated Mr. Rowe, head of the defense stamp sale at the high school. This average is about $10 per day.

Today's Shanghai Is City Of Hunger, Sharp Rivalry

KINHWAI, Chekiang Province, China, Jan. 7 (UP)—Japanese-held Shanghai today is a city of desperate hunger, anti-Anglo-American propaganda and sharp rivalry between the Japanese army and navy over division of the vast wealth of enemy property.

Americans and Britons are allowed relative freedom of movement within the city but live under the menace of arrest, at least 10 prominent members of their community already are held by the Japanese gendarmes.

Shortwave radio sets, their only means of hearing anything but the Japanese version of what is happening in the world outside, are being confiscated. Allowed no gasoline for their motorcars, even the tycoons among them go to their offices in crowded buses or on bicycles borrowed from servants.

Some have been ousted from their businesses. Others are allowed to function only under close Japanese supervision. American and British banks are open, but the Japanese navy dictates all their dealings. The American-owned Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury continues publication every afternoon but without its American editor.

To save ourselves from hunger and possible reprisals and to reveal Shanghai conditions to the world, my wife and I escaped into free China after five days of hiking and boating through bandit and Japanese-infested mountains and rivers south of Shanghai.

We obtained Japanese permission for a trip to Hangchow, about 200 miles south of Shanghai.

From Hangchow, a Chinese guide led us on a pitch-black night through the Japanese lines by narrow mountain passes. We reached a river and hid two days in a Chinese farmhouse on its banks and a few hundred yards from a Japanese troop concentration.

One morning four Japanese soldiers entered the house and commenced a cursory search. We lay hidden, however, and escaped detection.

At midnight of the third day, a Chinese sampan arrived on the river. Its master agreed to carry us through the Japanese lines together with a cargo of contraband goods being run into free China.

We slipped off under the noses of the Japanese. The dark sky was cloudy, and there was a slight drizzle.

Though it was dark, we knew the Japanese held the right bank, along which there were occasional pillboxes and sentries. The left bank was controlled by Chinese troops. Either would have fired had they detected our sampan during its five-hour voyage.

When we reached our destination we were literally too numb to move. The boatman carried us piggy-back through ice mud

KLAMATHITES GIVE DEFENSE SERVICES

Klamath's civilian defense registration is already paying dividends in service, Earl Reynolds, civilian defense co-ordinator, announced Tuesday.

Five draughtsmen have been called on for the preparation of maps and charts to aid in the defense program here: Clifford B. Speaker, LeRoy Erdmann, Osmund C. Rice, Wally Hector and Frank Z. Howard. Ply board for use in preparing the maps was donated by the Swan Lake Moulding company, he said.

Mrs. Alice Triplett, volunteer stenographer, is working half-days for the week.

Chamber of commerce employees have donated a great deal of their time to defense council, defense bond and tire-rationing work, headquartered in the chamber of commerce. "There's
