NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Several notable successes have been scored by the US navy in submarine warfare in both the Pacific and Atlantic lately, but the navy has not been letting the news out. Accounts may not be available for weeks.

The theory behind censorship even of its own achievements is that axis vessels, far from home, do not communicate with headquarters sometimes for weeks. Their sending radio is kept dead to conceal their whereabouts. Consequently, Berlin and Tokyo cannot be sure, perhaps for a month or two of what it has afloat, if our navy keeps quiet about what has been sunk.

This constant talk about Stalin flying to Washington first came out of Budapest (a Nazi rumor factory) via Stockholm (where most of our axis grease in the news is handled these days). Up to last Monday night, at least, no one had invited Stalin to fly here and Stalin had indicated to no one that he wanted to. The idea never occurred to anyone except the axis greasers, desirous to mark his absence from the Roosevelt-Churchill meetings.

STALIN OUT-TALKED THEM
Lord Beaverbrook has just filed a report with his government on Stalin's religious views, which is supposed to be highly amusing. The smiles are not at Stalin's expense. The sufferers are Beaverbrook and Averill Harriman, FDR's emissary, who sounded out the red leader in Moscow at a time when the religious aspects of the communist revolution in Russia were considered very pertinent in London and Washington, in connection with lend-lease.

Neither Beaverbrook nor Harriman were suited to the task, it will appear when the report gets out. Their acquaintance with the Bible was casual, whereas Stalin had spent two years in a Russian orthodox theological seminary when he was young.

The report readily admits he out-talked them.

NOBODY LIKES HIM
Mother Perkins, the labor secretary, has been bothering herself somewhat in the interest of William H. Davis for the chairmanship of the new war labor board, but no one else has. Mr. Davis, chairman of the disintegrating defense mediation board, has some friends there who say the unanimous distaste for him among the CIO, AFL, chamber of commerce and National Association of Manufacturers makes him an ideal candidate for the post.

About forty other names were in the lists placed a week ago on Mr. Roosevelt's desk. Near the top were James Landis, dean of the Harvard law school and Lloyd Garrison of the University of Wisconsin.

COOPERATION
No one could ask for more cooperation than this congress is giving Mr. Roosevelt. Little opposition can be heard publicly, and the only corridor criticism comes mainly from administration leaders, grumbling lightly about the way the war is going. Senate Foreign Relations Chairman Tom Connally, for example, went down to see Navy Secretary Knox to find out "where the fleet is." All he could tell his colleagues on his return was that it is supposed to be out hunting Japs.

But illustrative of the general congressional tone is the case of the iconoclastic Senator Wheeler. The one thing he feared most for this country was the delegation of dictatorial powers to FDR. Now he is championing an administration bill allowing Mr. Roosevelt alone to juggle the hours of the nation into daylight savings for one or two hours. Asked about it, Wheeler said: "Well, there is no other way."

In all, the new session marks no change from the old. It has the same leaders, same problems. A foreshadow of possible criticism against the conduct of the war has risen, but not very high yet.

ICKES' WINGS CLIPPED
The political gas and oil administrator, Mr. Ickes, suffered wing-clipping again in Mr. Roosevelt's order setting up the office of defense transportation under Joe Eastman. That office will now decide about new pipelines and the Nelson priority division (SPAB) will decide about materials for pipelines.

Mr. Ickes and his merry men have an elegant rationing plan for gas and fuel oil all ready, but may not get a chance to use it. The Henderson auto and tire bans will certainly curtail the use of cars and gas consumption increasingly, without other action. Too bad for Ickes. He tried so hard.

HUNDREDS OF WAR EVACUEES ARRIVE IN U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7 (UP)—Hundreds of evacuees from the Pacific war zone, including the crew of a torpedoed Norwegian freighter and families of service men, arrived yesterday after an "uneventful" voyage from Hawaii.

The freighter's crew, including one American, told of their dramatic rescue at sea by a U. S. warship and the civilian passengers added new stories of the December 7 horror at Pearl Harbor and Honolulu. There were no casualties or wounded in the group that arrived today.

Without Warning
It was the third band of war evacuees to reach safe harbor at San Francisco since outbreak of the war. One group arrived Christmas day, another on December 31.

Lauren Locke, 21, former San Jose State college student, who was a member of the Norwegian freighter's crew, described how a submarine torpedoed his ship without warning in the Pacific during a dark night a week after the war started.

"I was sound asleep at the time the ship was hit by a torpedo. I was bunking in a cabin amidship near the galley. The torpedo hit starboard, near No. 3 hold. It threw me out of my bunk and pushed the ship around."

"It was pitch black—about 4 a. m. We didn't see the submarine that hit us. It didn't surface. At any rate, there was no fire from its deck gun."

Capt. Einar Andersen, skipper of the sinking freighter ordered four lifeboats lowered and the ship abandoned. Young Locke said he got aboard a boat with the captain and four other men. Among those who abandoned ship were the freighter's five passengers, including one woman.

"We drifted for several hours. The lifeboats stayed close together. An American warship dove into sight and picked us up. There were no heroics. Mrs. Locke, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Locke, Campbell, Cal., said he joined the Norwegian crew in San Francisco for his first trip to sea. He planned to return to school.

Among the evacuees were Jane Burke, 19, Fort Knox, Ky., and her mother. They had been wintering at Waikiki beach when the Japanese attacked. Now they are en route to Arlington, Va., to visit Miss Burke's grandfather, George Newlove, a retired army major.

Your Federal Income Tax

YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX No. 2
INCOME TAX DON'TS
DON'T prepare your income tax return until you carefully read and understand the instructions accompanying the forms. Make out a work-sheet and check it with the instructions before filling in the forms.

DON'T delay in making out your income tax return. Tax problems deserve careful study, and the early assembling of your data expedites this.

DON'T, if your gross income is $3000 or less and is wholly from salary, wages, or other compensation for personal services, dividends, interest, rent, annuities, or royalties, file your return on Form 1040 without carefully considering the option to file the simplified Form 1040A, since the filing of your return on either form in such case constitutes an election which prevents you from filing an amended return on the other form.

DON'T overlook the fact that for the majority of taxpayers the tax for 1941 will be two or three times as much as for 1940 and that it is important for you to save out of your weekly or monthly earnings, or otherwise provide, a sufficient amount to pay your tax when it becomes due. For the calendar year 1941 the tax is payable on or before March 16, 1942, or it may be paid in four equal installments on or before March 16, June 15, September 15, and December 15, 1942, respectively. If any installment is not paid when due, the whole amount of the tax unpaid is required to be paid upon notice and demand from the collector.

DON'T omit any explanation or information that is essential to a complete audit of your return. An ounce of care may save you a pound of unnecessary expense, and time and annoyance both to you and to your government.

ON PROPHECY

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To the Editor)—May I avail myself of your column "Telling the Editor" to say a few things concerning "War and Revelation" as I noted an article there, recently purporting to show that Hitler is the anti-Christ spoken of in Revelation 13. This reminds me of the fact that during the last war there were certain ones who had the Kaiser all figured out to fulfill that prediction. Then there are others who tell us that the Pope of the Roman Catholic church is the anti-Christ, and I have heard of others who say that Mussolini is the anti-Christ, but let us not allow ourselves to be guided by our dislikes or hatreds in saying who the anti-Christ or second beast is. Let us be careful and search the scriptures to see if these things are so.

In the first place I would like to know how, in the last instance, the one who figured Hitler out as the anti-Christ got the authority from the Bible to use the English alphabet in his calculations, when the Old Testaments was written originally in Hebrew, and the New Testament in Greek and Aramaic. Also by what authority did he assign certain numerical values to different letters, and then tell us that these "facts" are based on the 13th chapter of Revelation. Such distortions of the scripture are confusing and misleading, and many folk as a result turn their noses up at the whole proposition of Biblical prophecy.

Hitler might possibly be fitted into the place of the first beast who comes up out of the sea, but he would have to be decidedly change his views and actions concerning the Jews. We know that Hitler is a Jew hater and as such could not be a religious leader who will be the one whom Jewry will accept as their Messiah. This will be the anti-Christ. Again the anti-Christ must be a Jew for that people would not accept an anti-semitic when I say this for every one knows that Judaism has never accepted Jesus Christ as their Messiah, but are still looking for the Messiah to come.

Neither could the Pope be the anti-Christ for we read in John 2:22, "He is anti-Christ, that denieth the Father and the Son." This the Pope has never done nor has the church which he heads ever done so. They stand truer in this respect than some of the protestant preachers and churches.

Sincerely yours,
Dr. C. B. Cassell.

Mt. Laki

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Jackson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, born Friday, January 2, at the Hillside hospital. The little lad has been named Ray Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill, Miss Ethel Dixon and Miss Dorothy Dixon enjoyed skiing at Crater Lake last Wednesday. Word has been received that Corporal Don West was promoted to sergeant on his return to Fort Knox last week after a 10-day furlough spent here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Corrie is on the sick list. Ethel and Dorothy Dixon left Sunday by motor for Eugene to resume their studies at the university. Other students leaving this weekend for Corvallis are Jean Thompson, Darwin Grise, Clyde Dehlinger, Cecil Whitmore and Earl Reynolds Jr.

Dish-Drying's A Picnic With These

Whether they're at the circus or on your kitchen linens, elephants are always favorites (and some say good luck, too.) Make a set for the bride-to-be—she can never have too many! Pattern 7165 contains a transfer pattern of 7 motifs averaging 4 1/2 by 10 inches; illustrations of stitches; materials needed; color schemes.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture, but keep it and the number for reference. Be sure to wrap coin securely as a loose coin often slips out of the envelope. Requests for patterns should read, "Send pattern No. _____ to _____ followed by your name and address."

IDEALS
Our ideals are our better selves.—A. Bronson Alcott.

All good that ever was written, taught, or wrought comes from God and human faith in the right.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Ideality is only the avant-courier of the mind, and where that, in a healthy and normal state goes, I hold it to be a prophecy that realization can follow.—Horace Mann.

A man will not be the better because he had a well-born father, if he himself is nought. But true high-birth is in the mind, it was never in the flesh.—King Alfred.

What you believe most influence what you are. What you are determines what you do, and what you do determines your value here and hereafter.—Jane Tuder.

There is nothing that makes men rich and strong but that which they carry inside of them. Wealth is of the heart, not of the hand.—John Milton.
