On the Philippine battlefield,
Gen. Douglas MacArthur's
American and Filipino defense forces were reported to have beaten off two new Japanese at-tacks, with the invaders suffering heavy losses.

Army communique No. 58, based on reports up to 6:30 a. m., PST, said that the Japanese made "two determined attacks . . . well supported by artillery and aircraft," but that Gen. MacArthur's badly out-numbered troops hurled them back and suffered only comparatively small casualties.

"Reports received from Indanao and Jolo indicate that the Japanese are establishing ad-vance bases in these islands from which to support attacks on Malaya and the Netherlands East Indies," the communique
