NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (Wide World)—A lot of silly things have been said about the war sports (and this may be one of them) but we can't see the necessity of cancelling the golf championships . . . We can't think of anything that would have much less effect on the war effort than a women's golf tournament — unless it's the court tennis championships that already have been called off.

As long as the golfers are going to have competition, why not let them have a national title to aim at, even though it not let them have a national ture of the arch, which means title to aim at, even though it the 6 foot-5 inch forward will wouldn't mean as much as usu-not se al . . .
