

Rates on Hogged Fuel Revised

The state utilities commissioner has authorized a change in the rate schedule of the Klamath Heating company, permitting a raise in rates of 2 per cent for every 5 cent increase in hogged fuel cost per 50 cents per unit.

At present, hogged fuel prices are 75 cents, and the cost to consumer is 10 per cent over the base rate.

prices are 50 cents, there is no increase in the cost to the consumer.

Auditors Rush City Book Check

G. Q. D'Albini and L. J. Knox, working on the annual audit of the city of Klamath Falls, stated Wednesday they would probably be through with the books late Sunday night. The men have worked night and day since Monday.

THAT WAR'S OVER
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—The culprits who stole the park department's cannon several months ago finally decided they couldn't use it. The civil war firing piece returned to the city park mysteriously as it disappeared. Authorities have placed it in the city jail for the duration—or until some prankster-proof mountings can be made.

All great revivals in history, both religious and political, have been preceded by periods of oppression, disaster and defeat.—Rev. Dr. Allen E. Claxton, Broadway Temple Methodist church, New York.
