STATE REBEKAH HEAD TO VISIT

MERRILL.—The official visit to the Merrill Rebekah lodge of Mrs. Myrtle McAlpin, state Rebekah president, will coincide with the district convention to be held here, it was announced at the meeting of the local lodge Monday night following receipt of a letter from Mrs. McAlpin expressing appreciation for $5 sent from here to be applied on a luncheon for the Odd Fellows home at Portland.

Mrs. Theilma Stukel, absent for regular installation, was installed as treasurer with Mrs. J. A. Stevenson acting as district president; Mrs. Goldie Kidwell, deputy marshal, and Mrs. Ann Fruits as deputy treasurer. Mrs. Vivian Haskins was presented with the past noble grand's pin by Mrs. Stevenson, a gift from the lodge in recognition of her work the past year.

Mrs. Mae Anderson was appointed to buy a gift for Mrs. McAlpin to be presented at the time of her official visit and a letter from Mrs. Christine Smith, state "good of the order" chairman was presented expressing appreciation for the work of retiring officers and urging incoming officers to continue to work for promotion of the lodge.

Flowers and cards will be sent for the duration of the war for funerals only and money formerly used for remembrances for a sick will be spent for dental stamps.

New Year resolutions were offered in opening the program hour and it was announced that men of the lodge will at the next meeting present a skit, "The Masquerade."

Goldie Kidwell, Edna Hancock, Mae Anderson, Nannie Van Meter, Calvin Haskins and M. A. Bowman, who had birthdays in January were feted at refreshment table with Mary Pope, Hazel Lilly, Hallie Dodenhoff and Beth Robley, all December folks, as the committee.

The Three Links club met later to discuss plans for the convention with Mrs. Theilma Stukel to serve as convention chairman.

Warren Fruits read a number of short bits of poetry during the refreshment hour.

SOME SUIT

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 21 (AP) J. Z. Miller's boss made him buy a new suit when he sent him to New York on a banking errand in 1910.

It cost $90 and was—or is—some suit. The banker has worn it exclusively on his New York and Washington trips for the past 32 years.

And he has let it be known he wants to be garbed in it for that last trip of all.

We are at a loss for ourselves. We have become a people, not individuals. We have become diluted, losing strength and color.—Prof. Mary Ellen Chase, Smith college.

Here's a slip that fits

as though it were made by your own dressmaker

Maybe you've put up with the slight binding here, or bunching there, of the slips you've bought. Maybe you have done a bit of cutting and sewing on them yourself to make them fit. Neither is necessary with the new

Laros
DIMENSIONAL SLIP

Four gore fashioned, alternating bias. It fits any woman, any size. Consequently it feels better, wears longer. In addition, there's no finer fabric made than that used in it — and it's made with the famous Laros PERMA-LOCKT seam, stronger than even the fabric itself. Finally, its costs no more than others!
