HONORED—Izaak Walton league members and their wives honored past Waltonian presidents this week at a dinner in the Willard hotel. Above, State Game Commissioner Francis Olds, right, presents plaques to Forrest Losee, left, and John B. Ebinger, center, in token of their services as past leaders. In lower right is Mrs. Losee.

AVIATION CADET CANDIDATES HONORED—Forty applicants for aviation cadet training were paid special honors at a meeting of the Klamath Falls Elks lodge Thursday evening. The group is shown above in the lodge hall. It was a feature of "Keep 'Em Flying" week.

THIRD DRAFT REGISTRATION—This general view was taken at the Klamath armory Monday, when hundreds of Klamath men signed up in the third selective service registration.

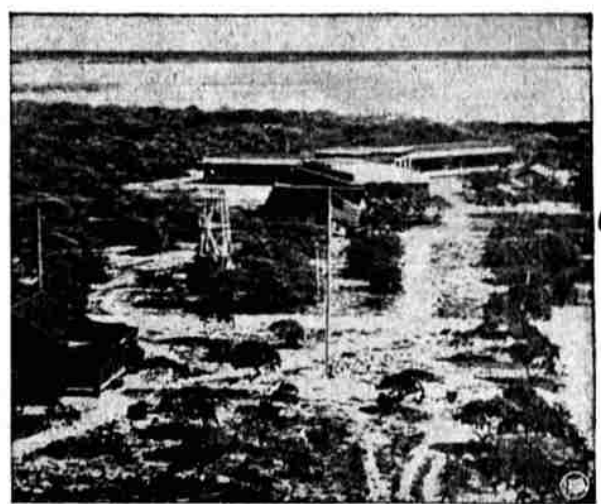

SECOND 1942 FATALITY—Picture shows the automobile that carried Clare Leonard, San Francisco business woman, to her death a mile south of Modoc Point on The Dalles-California highway Friday afternoon. The car tumbled from the highway down a rocky embankment to the S. P. tracks below. In the picture, a railroad man is closing the door of the wrecked car to give clearance to a passing train.

HIGH SCHOOL ANIMATION—Partisanship was intense Friday night in the Altamont gym as students from Klamath and Lake county B high schools packed the arena to watch their teams in action in the championship cage tournament. Above, the Chiloquin rooting section during a cheer.

GETS AHEAD—Dale Tepper, above, graduated from the armament technical school at Lowry field, Denver, on February 6, and is now instructor there. He enlisted in the air corps on October 1, at Fort Lewis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tepper, and graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1938.

WAKE MEN PRISONERS—Two Klamath county men, Wesley F. Carter, right, and Lloyd Peppie, above, both of Bonanza, are presumably prisoners in Japan. Civilian workers on Wake Island, they were captured by Japanese. Above is a view of Wake Island.

TOURNAMENT ACTION—Jimmy Conroy of Chiloquin leaps high for a free ball as Bob Carnini, Elwyn Hall and Claude Parrish of Sprague River watch for a slip-up. Chiloquin whipped the Warriors Friday night to enter the finals of the Klamath-Lake B tournament in the Altamont school gym.

WHO HAS IT?—Elwyn Hall of Sprague River and Don Smith of Chiloquin jump for a loose ball as Jimmie Conroy of the Panthers waits. The action took place Friday night during the Klamath-Lake B loop cage tourney in the Altamont school gym.
