Assisting at Mrs. Lockwood's tea, above, Mrs. Don R. Drury, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. Charles A. Henderson, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., Mrs. Lawrence Shaw and Miss Virginia West.

Valentine Tea

At one of the prettiest parties of the early spring, Mrs. Samuel P. Lockwood entertained on St. Valentine's day in the Pelican party room. Tea was served from four to six o'clock. Mrs. Lockwood, above right, greeted her guests in a Valentine red frock with a corsage of camellias.

Mrs. Theodore S. Durment smiles over a cup of tea.

Miss Ruth Flood discusses world problems over a cup of tea with Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke.
