Attractive Tea Event of Wednesday Afternoon At Home of Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt

It was a busy week, indeed, for members of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, hostess chapter to the state conference, Oregon Society of DAR which met here Tuesday and Wednesday. Apart from business sessions there were a number of social affairs which held the interest of the members.

Largest affair of the week was the formal tea given on Wednesday from four to six o'clock at the home of Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt, 847 Pacific Terrace. Members of the committee making arrangements for the tea were Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin and Mrs. Alfred Collier.

The tea table was centered with a mirror on which was cleverly arranged a colonial room with Dresden figurines and furniture. This was surrounded by greenery and many miniature colonial bouquets of pastel shaded flowers. Blue candles burned in silver candlesticks and presiding at the table were Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones and Mrs. Thomas Hampton. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. H. A. Nitchelm, Miss Mary Lou Timmons, Miss Marcille Reynolds and Miss Ann Mueller.

Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Martin greeted the guests and in the receiving line were those women for whom the tea was given: Mrs. William Dawson Foster of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Howard P. Arnest of Portland, Mrs. William H. Pouch of Washington, D. C., Mrs. John Y. Richardson of Portland, Mrs. Gordon McCracken of Ashland, Mrs. Boone G. Harding of Medford, Mrs. E. C. Apperson of Portland, Mrs. Gilbert E. Holt of Pendleton, Mrs. William Horsfall of Medford, president-elect of the state.

Calling during the afternoon were visitors to the conference, local members and a few invited guests.

Mrs. G. Logan Black, past regent of Eulalona chapter, entertained on Tuesday morning with a Shrove Tuesday pancake breakfast for members of the State Officers club at her home on Grant street. Fifteen guests were seated about prettily appointed tables centered with bouquets of spring flowers. Mrs. Black was assisted in serving by Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble and Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm.

Mrs. Howard P. Arnest, state regent, was hostess at a formal dinner party given at the Pelican on Tuesday evening for members of her board.

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, past regent, entertained a group at her home Tuesday evening when she had for dinner guests Mrs. Robert Forest, Mrs. Guy Johnson and Miss Ethel May Handy, all of Portland.

Much credit is due Mrs. Sydney B. Evans of the local chapter for her work in planning the two luncheons and banquet held in the Willard during the conference. Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb was responsible for decorations which were exceptionally attractive, and credit for a music program received enthusiastically by conference attendees goes to Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt.

Valentine Wedding

Attractive Maid Becomes Bride of Cyrus Smith

A pretty bride of St. Valentine's day was Miss Rita Mettenberg, daughter of Mrs. Robert Mettenberg of this city and the late Mr. Mettenberg, when she exchanged vows in Sacred Heart church at ten o'clock with Mr. Cyrus L. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Smith of Eugene.

The Rev. Father Scott read the service in the presence of both families. Music was played by the organist before the ceremony. Traditional professional and recessional music was also played.

The bride was lovely in a gown of pale pink tulle over taffeta. The bodice was snug fitting with a pleated yoke bordered by a tulle frill. Her shirred elbow-length sleeves were slightly puffed at the shoulder and her veil of matching tulle fell to the hem of the long, full skirt. A wreath of bouvardia held the cap of the veil in place over the bride's dark hair. A single lavender orchid with a cascade of white satin streamers and bouvardia and a white prayer book were carried by the bride.

Miss Caryl Reinerz, niece of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore delphinium blue tulle fashioned with a square neckline, large puffed sleeves and on her hair was a tulle bow. Her flowers were made into a colonial bouquet.

Mr. Dan Crawford of Tulelake was the best man. A small reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, 309 Martin street. The bride cut a beautifully decorated cake, later served by her attendant. Following a wedding trip to the valley Mr. and Mrs. Smith returned here to make their home, 1342 Martin street.
