Attend Ceremonial — A number of Klamath residents were guests in Grants Pass on Thursday and Friday where they attended the ceremonial of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, at which the supreme queen, Mrs. C. M. Sheasty of Pittsburgh, was honored. Those attending from here included Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold, president of the Klamath Falls club, Mrs. E. H. Halsiger, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mrs. Carl Steinmeier, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. Jerry Ricker, Mrs. Harry Panning, Mrs. Harry Bathiany, Mrs. Ted Shoop, Mrs. F. H. Heilbrunner, Mrs. Leo N. Hule, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. J. H. Poppy, Mrs. Fred Coleman, Mrs. James Webb, Mrs. Francis Ochs, Mrs. William Hagelstein Morris, Mrs. Ralph McKay and Mrs. Grace Berman.

Here for Wedding — A number of out-of-town guests were here Sunday to attend the wedding of Yvonne Petersteiner and Dwan C. McDonald, which was solemnized at the Petersteiner home on Portland street. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bush, Barbara and Bobbie Bush, Mrs. A. A. Atkinson and C. B. Fall, grandfather of the bride, all of Sacramento, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Quackenbush of Pine Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McDonald of Multa, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Trotman of Merrill, Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Atkinson and Mrs. Quackenbush are sisters of Mrs. Alfred Petersteiner.

To Valley — Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg and their guests, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. George Hurn, and Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, motored to the Rogue River valley this past weekend. The Wattenburg party looked over the site of the new army cantonment of 35,000 acres, and reported building activities "humming" and all sorts of construction work carried on. Grants Pass was the next stop and the party returned over the newly paved highway up the Applegate river to Jacksonville. Between the two points the buttercups were blooming and many spring flowers promised.

On Honor Roll — Halleck Donelson, son of Mrs. Vera Clemmens, who is studying for his master's degree at Linfield college, is closing this semester as an honor roll student with a straight A average, according to word received by his mother. In addition to his studies, Donelson is also teaching in the high school at McMinnville where he is completing the term for an instructor who has left for naval duty.

In Marines — Lawrence W. Mehaffey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Mehaffey of Antioch, Calif., and grandson of Mrs. Wilbur Jones of this city, has been in the radio division of the United States marines since last October and will be transferred soon, according to word received here. The Mehaffeyes and Mrs. Jones plan to visit him before he is moved.

Visitors — Gilbert Nelson, the young soldier who suffered a badly broken leg two months ago while a member of a convoy en route through Klamath Falls is now able to have visitors at Klamath Valley hospital. The boy's home is in the east.

Improving — Lon Hunt, 5630 Harlan drive, radio technician at KFJI, is reported improving at Klamath Valley hospital where he may have visitors. Hunt recently submitted to an operation for the removal of his appendix.

Correction — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Burnett of near Klamath Falls were married February 1 and not February 21, in Reno, as first reported. Burnett has not yet received orders to report for duty at Camp Lewis, Wash., with the United States army.

Earl Emerich Safe — Earl Emerich has arrived safely in Honolulu, according to a message received by his mother, Mrs. W. C. Kohler, 234 Hillside avenue.

Visit Saturday — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holmes of Lakewood, formerly of this city, were visitors in Klamath Falls for several hours on Saturday.

Income Tax Aid — A state income tax auditor will be in Klamath Falls March 13 to April 1, to assist taxpayers in making out their 1941 returns.

Leave for North — J. Q. Alink of LaVerne, Minn., who has been spending the past several days as a guest at the home of his cousin, Mrs. J. H. Poppy on Roseway drive, en route home after several months in Long Beach, Calif., left Monday for Portland, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Poppy and Mrs. Oscar Peyton. The Poppys plan to be away about a week, visiting friends in Portland, Salem and Eugene. Mrs. Peyton will visit with friends in Eugene and with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peyton, and grandson, Larry, in Portland.

Son Born — Friends of Dr. and Mrs. Roger E. DeWeese Jr., San Francisco, are interested to learn of the birth of a son, their first child, at St. Mary's hospital on March 2. The boy has been named Roger 3rd. Dr. DeWeese is the son of Mrs. Joanne DeWeese of this city and is well known here.

Improving — Friends of Mrs. Mae K. Short, Klamath county clerk who collapsed in her offices in the courthouse Saturday shortly before noon as the result of a heart attack, will be interested to learn she is showing improvement at Klamath Valley hospital where she was moved by her physician.

Club to Meet — The Young Married Women's club of the First Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, March 10, at the home of Mrs. Don Drury, 1401 Pacific Terrace, 1:15 p. m. Naming of the club will be discussed.

Visit Valley — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart and two children, Ann and Sara, spent the weekend in Medford visiting Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. Eugene Vilm. They reported the cantonment work advancing rapidly.

From Fort — M. W. Gibson, employed as maintenance man with the Oregon state highway at Fort Klamath, was in Klamath Falls Monday on business.

Surgery — Stanley Miller, employed at Lorenz company, submitted to major surgery at Klamath Valley hospital this weekend. Miller, whose home is at 112 High street, was reported improved Monday.

Returns Home — Mrs. Vera Peterson, route 3, box 817, returned to her home Sunday accompanied by her infant son. They were patients at Klamath Valley hospital.

Leaves Hospital — Mrs. H. D. Perkins, 1317 Adams street, returned to her home Sunday after having been patients at Klamath Valley hospital.

Returns Home — Mrs. Timothy Murphy returned to Dunsuir Saturday after spending the weekend in Klamath Falls.

News About Fuels

BOX FACTORY BLOCKS are scarce and deliveries are being delayed a week or more. This condition will likely continue for some time.

DRY SLAB WOOD is not really dry. Our customers are using it in stoves and furnaces because they can't get anything better but it is not satisfactory for cooking.

BODYWOOD. We have some of both Fir and Lodge Pole Pine. If interested, come to the yard and look it over. Delivery at once.

GREEN SLABS AND EDGINGS will be ready for delivery within a week or two. Phone your orders in and delivery will be made when we start to receive them. Delivered prices will be Slabs $4.00, edgings $2.50.

COAL? Sure, we have coal, the best coal you ever burned. This coal is so pure you can almost light it with a match and it will take the place of blocks in nearly all cooking ranges. Call at our yard for a few sacks at a time in your own car. Or we will deliver for a little more money.

FUEL OILS. Our tanks are full at all times of the purest oils on the market, and we suggest you keep yours full. Oil is plentiful but this is war times and a shortage of cars can change the picture in a few days anytime.
