Malin Students To Review South America on Air

South America, its ways and its music, will get a thorough review Thursday afternoon when Malin high school students go on the air for the second of a series of radio programs dealing with "America and Her Allies."

The program, under the general direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson, county school music supervisor, is a part of musical appreciation and class-work in the county schools and will be presented each Thursday afternoon for the next two months. This is the third year for the study program.

Students write and present the dialogue around music suitable to the subject.

The program is scheduled for 2 p. m. over station KFJJ.

the boat with our hands because the clothes used for a scoop had been ripped or washed away. We hadn't slept at all, only dozed. Try sleeping on a mattress: half your length with someone hitting it from beneath with a baseball bat every few seconds and you get a rough idea of the beating and slapping the seas and fish gave us.

"Field of Corn"

The next morning Aldrich, although a seaman by circumstance, proved he remained a midwestern at heart.

"Chief, I see a field of corn," he said weakly to Dixon.

Dixon thought he was out of his head. Then the other two also saw the "cornfield"—an island with a coconut grove.

A hurricane buffeted the intrepid three as they staggered over reefs so rough that the island natives had left them unguarded, believing them unsuited for any landing parties. That night the trio huddled in a mat shack they had found. Every moment they feared the hurricane would blow it away.

The next day natives found them and fed them. Ultimately a navy craft rescued them.

During their storm-tossed journey they had been so in need of food that Dixon even fought one shark with his bare fists. Aldrich also tried the bare-handed method—and a shark nipped him.

Man Arraigned on Auto Theft Charge

James E. Harper, charged with stealing an automobile, was arraigned Tuesday afternoon in Circuit Judge David H. Vandenberg's court, and time for pleading set at 2 p. m. Thursday.

Is your child a NOSE PICKER?

It may be more than just a nasty habit! It may be a sign of worms. Yes, ugly, crawling roundworms inside your child! Other warning signs are itching, "picky" appetite, crankiness, itching in certain parts. Roundworms can cause real trouble! If you even suspect your child has them, get Jayne's Vermifuge right away! Jayne's is America's best known, proprietary, worm medicine. Scientifically tested and used by millions for over a century. It expels stubborn worms, yet acts very gently. If no worms are there, Jayne's acts merely as a mild laxative. Be sure you get Jayne's Vermifuge.

Jumpin' Manhole Covers, 'Twas a Mighty Big Blast

SEATTLE, March 11 (AP)—Boom!

Excited residents nearby called police, firemen, harbor patrolmen, the army, navy, marines... some hustled down to their basement and raid shelters.

Police and firemen finally traced all the excitement out Magnolia Bluff way at 1:25 a. m. today down to this:

A gas tank worked loose from Walter Bridges' automobile and fell to the pavement. The gas poured out and flowed into a nearby sewer. A midnight stroller flipped a cigarette.

Then: Boom! A manhole cover flew into the air. Flames shot up. Lights went on all over the neighborhood.

The stroller, still nearby when authorities arrived, made a flipping motion with his middle finger.

"I, uh, just slipped—and whoost!" he said.
