THREE QUESTIONS SUBJECT OF TALK

The three questions the disciples asked Jesus, "When shall these things be, what is the sign of thy coming, and the end of the world?" will be the subject of the prophetic discussion during the evening service at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, March 15, at the Immanuel Baptist church, North Eleventh and High streets, by the pastor.

As one listens to the radio and reads the newspapers today the question comes, "Do the events which are transpiring today have anything to do with these questions which the disciples asked Jesus?"

The student must keep these questions clear in his mind as he reads before he can understand them.

There is a great interest shown by the good attendance in this series of prophetic messages each Sunday evening in the church. Your questions are honestly considered if written and handed in. If your questions are handed in before the evening service they will be considered during the evening service that night.

Follow the crowds and attend this special series of prophetic messages.

PRAYER MEETINGS CLIMAX IN LENT

On New Year's day was held the most successful union prayer meeting in the city of Klamath Falls. The large First Methodist church was filled with devout worshippers. The meeting was called at the suggestion of President Roosevelt and was under the auspices of the Klamath Ministerial association. Just as an emergency existed at the beginning of the year, likewise, at the present time our country is at the crossroads.

It is therefore befitting that the serious-minded citizenry of our community again turn their thoughts and prayers heavenward. The union Passion week services are now being arranged by the Klamath Falls Ministerial association. These meetings should come as a climax to Lenten services in the various churches.

The week-day meetings are scheduled from Monday through Thursday from 12:20 to 12:50 p. m. On Good Friday, the traditional three-hour service will be held. It begins at 9:30 a. m., and closes at 12:50 p. m. The seven utterances of Jesus while on the cross will be expounded by as many different pastors. Special music is to be rendered at every service throughout the week. The meetings are to be held in the Pelican theatre.
