

GRADE SCHOOL CONCERT WELL RECEIVED HERE

Enthusiastic applause greeted number after number as a packed house voiced approval of the technique and variety expressed by grade school students in the annual spring concert presented by Lillie Darby, supervisor of music, in the Fremont auditorium Friday night. Each of the seven schools in the system was well represented.

An impressive opening greeted the audience and there was no let down as each number deserved credit for excellent execution. On the stage 80 boys of Roosevelt school, making up a chorus of well trained voices, stood in three tiers. The elementary choir was placed below the platform and served as background for the advanced band. The audience stood at attention as the children sang "The Star Spangled Banner," "Marine Hymn," and the band then presented the overture, "Louise," by Schmidt.

This was followed by numbers by the band and the Roosevelt boys' chorus, the latter group directed by Mrs. Sherman Carter. D. E. Curry's groups were presented in numbers greatly appreciated. A string trio, made up of Bill Southwell, Fred Foster, and Harlan Bosworth played "Lone Scout March" and "Autumn Day." The brass quartet is made up of Douglas Powers, William Benson, William Pickett and Benny Shepard.

Thirty-five members of a beginners' band with Dick Eatherton and Scott Reed, student directors, brought a tremendous applause from the audience as did the numbers by the all-city orchestra of 85 boys and girls. Directors are Miss Darby, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Irma Badger.

The brass sextet was made up of Gordon Veitch, Bobbie Pearson, Shirley Sogge, Chandler Sogge, Dee Nelson and Stephen Stone and their work was considered exceptionally mature. Young Stone of Klamath Union high school replaced Wilbur Anderson, bass, unable to attend. The program ended with "Blue Danube Waltz" and "Spirit of Youth," by the advanced orchestra.

Tribute was paid by Miss Darby to the four young girls who accompanied instrumental and voice numbers, Mary Lou Timmons of Roosevelt, eighth grade; Marilyn Hayden, Mills, fifth grade; June Bosworth, Riverside, eighth grade, and Golda Orr, Fremont, eighth grade. Appreciation was expressed to KHS students, former members of the city bands, who aided in the success of the evening's performance. They were Meade Badger, baritone; Jimmy Case, drums; Stephen Stone, trombone.

Two hundred and fifty boys and girls took part in the program, considered one of the finest of the annual concerts. Work of the advanced band was especially praised. Miss Darby was presented with flowers by her friends as a result of her efforts. Music teachers who assisted Miss Darby were Marie Doern of Joseph Conger, Della Weber of Fairview, Jean Whitney of Fremont, Irma Badger of Mills, Ruth Anne Napier of Pelican, Doris Fredrick of Riverside, Ola Mae Carter of Roosevelt.

FIVE ALGOMA FLOOD SUITS FILED HERE

Five more "Algoma flood" suits were filed in circuit court Friday afternoon, bringing the total up to eight suits filed by landowners against the California-Oregon Power company and associates. The "flood" occurred in May, 1940, when water from the Upper Klamath lake broke through the dike, inundating farm lands.

Suits filed Friday against the power company were: Edwin Logan, asking $419 damages and costs; Eloise Logan for $251 and costs; Herbert and Caroline England, for $5000 and costs; Henrietta Horn for $6566 and costs; and William Uhrman for $26,265 and costs.

RE-TRIAL OF PARKS SET FOR APRIL 13

Re-trial of George Parks, held here in connection with the notorious Buffalo lunch murder case, has been set for Monday, April 13. First trial of Parks ended February 28, when the jury split on the question of guilt or acquittal.

Parks has been held in the county jail on a first degree murder charge since early in December, when he was brought back to Klamath Falls in connection with the killing of Dr. Salem A. David at the lunch room, March 16, 1941.

Attorneys U. S. Balentine and E. E. Driscoll are handling Parks' defense.

MERRILL — There'll be fun for the young folks and fun for the old folks at the St. Patrick's dance next Tuesday night in the community hall. Musicians will play plenty of modern music and plenty of old time airs too for the squares and quadrilles. Committees have the plans well organized and invite everyone in southern Oregon on this side of the Greensprings to attend.

There are still a number of those early dances who recall those early dances 36 years ago when folks came from all over Klamath county in buggies, in hacks, on horseback and in wagons, parked babies and older young 'uns on benches or under them and danced the night away. They ate and they visited and the dance was frequently the only time during the entire year that neighbor saw neighbor.

They'll eat again this year with supper to be served by St. Augustine's Altar society. "Pappy" Gordon and his Oregon Hillbillies are tuning up for the music.

The dance is sponsored by native sons of Ireland and not by the Catholic Order of Foresters as previously announced.

Man Pleads Guilty To Drunk Driving

Carl Young, bartender, admitted he poured himself a few when he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Young, 200 Conger avenue, was arrested at Conger and Main streets by city police Friday night. He was sentenced to a $100 fine, 30 days in jail, and had his license suspended for a period of one year by Police Judge Leigh Ackerman in police court Saturday morning. Young paid his fine.

Three drunks also appeared in court.

KENO WINNER 34-33

Keno's B league Eagles wound up their cage season this week with a thrilling 34-33 overtime victory over the Sacred Heart Trojans of Klamath Falls on the Keno courts.

Zarozinski paced the winners with 11 points. Krueger topped the Trojans with 10. The game was tied, 33-33, at the end of the regulation periods. Sacred Heart led at the half, 14-13.

PIKERS!

SPOKANE, Wash., (P)—Pvt. Carl Schroegel has 13 letters in his name, has been in the army a month and 13 days and was married 13 days after enlisting. He got a 13 word telegram from his bride on Friday the 13th, asking him to meet her in Seattle.

But the army gave him just 12 hours leave.

SEAPLANE TRAINING STARTS NEXT WEEK

Instruction will start early next week in the new civilian pilot seaplane training course on Upper Klamath lake, Donald H. Blaker of the Clark flying service announced.

Blaker said a seaplane, a pontoon-equipped Cub, was flown into Klamath Falls and landed on the lake Thursday. He said that seven students, all from Marshfield, Coquille and North Bend, will comprise the first class. They will be qualified for secondary rating in cross-country and instructors' work upon completion, or they may transfer flying credits to the army air corps if they are accepted.

Blaker and Harry VanZandt, co-operators of the Clark service, said it is the only seaplane school on the Pacific coast. Joseph Berchtold will be the instructor. The plane is moored at the Ziegler boat dock near the Fremont bridge.

The students are Randall Hockett and Richard Sherrill of Marshfield, Leo Aber and Ford Liday of Coquille and Albert Kuschke, Leonard Smith and Floyd Goldbloom of North Bend.

Judge of what we ought to be allowed to know. This is due in part to inexperience with censorship — to lack of knowledge of what can be told and what can't be told without giving the enemy valuable military information.

It is ALSO due to the natural and human (although unspoken) inclination of insiders to tell the public as little as possible for fear that if the public KNOWS TOO MUCH it will get out of hand.

To the extent that our government is withholding information from us merely because it doesn't yet know by experience what can be told and what can't be told without giving the enemy valuable military information, we should be patient with it.

As it gains experience with censorship, it will become wiser — as the British government did. But to the extent that the insiders in our government are holding back information of what has already happened for fear of what we might do if we knew the full truth—that is, constituting themselves the judges of what we are FIT to know—we should be both impatient and angry.

500 and 1,000,000 Germans were reported operating in that region.

Eleven "populated places" were wrested from the Germans in the drive toward Smolensk, the Russian communique said. Hitler's field headquarters acknowledged that the Russians were continuing their "unsuccessful" attacks along the entire front.

In the Crimea, the German high command said, red army forces strongly supported by tanks and planes unleashed a new assault upon German-Rumanian positions on the Kerch peninsula but were thrown back "in hard fighting."

The Kerch peninsula, mostly recaptured by the Russians, is the gateway to the rich Caucasian oil fields.

work in grade school music in 1942-43.

It is known that Stanfield has received a number of offers from other schools since he came to Klamath Union high school four years ago, and there remains the possibility that he might decide to take work elsewhere as opportunities arise. He has, however, been elected to the staff of the school here and his present intention is to remain.

WINDFALL

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., (P)—After paying some bills, William Greer wound up $4 short. He asked two stores to check their cash receipts for the day to find out whether they were $4 ahead.

One store called Greer later and said: "Our cash balance is $4 over. We are mailing you a check."

Then the other store called. The mystified Greer was told: "Our cash balance is $4 over. We are mailing you a check."

U. S. CRUISER, DESTROYER ON CASUALTY LIST

counter, British; Stronghold, British.

Others were the Yarra, Australian sloop; and the Evertsen, Dutch destroyer, which was listed as beached and presumed lost.

The Japanese force consisted of at least nine cruisers, the navy said, of which two were 10,000-ton ships armed with eight-inch guns.

The Japanese cruisers were accompanied by two flotillas of destroyers.

"It is impossible to estimate with accuracy the damage inflicted upon the enemy during these actions of February 27. Observers in the Perth considered that one Japanese eight-inch gun cruiser was sunk, a second eight-inch cruiser damaged, and a destroyer sunk. It has also been reported that a cruiser of the Mogami class was set on fire and three destroyers seriously damaged and left on fire or sinking.
