

Delegates Report Meet

Klamath Shop Owner Elected President of Association

At the monthly meeting of the Klamath Falls unit of the Oregon Association of Beauty Shop Owners and Operators held Tuesday, March tenth, delegates home from the convention in Grants Pass March first, second and third, gave a full report of the state meet.

Officers elected to state office were: Mrs. Gladys Stephens, Klamath Falls, president; Mildred Foster, Forest Grove, first vice president; Zonia Higby, Tillamook, second vice president; Mrs. Irene Spalding, Grants Pass, secretary; Sara Jane Spillane, Portland, treasurer, and Darwin Jones, Portland, sergeant-at-arms.

Only two districts held elections during the convention, naming Agnes Smith, Forest Grove, district president of Number 1, and Mrs. Velma Sauer, Grants Pass, president of district Number 4.

Beauty shops over the state will play their part in the work of civilian defense. A resolution was passed asking all operators holding first aid certificates to apply for designation of their shops as first aid stations. The resolution pointed out that shops are equipped with towels and sterilizing equipment to aid in an emergency.

By a second resolution passed by the convention, the operators signified their intention to go before the 1943 state legislature with renewal of their efforts to obtain passage of a bill designed to "raise the standards of beauty practices" in the state.

At a banquet delegates and guests heard G. A. Nunn, Grants Pass, speak on the place of beauty operators in the war emergency. State Senator L. W. Wippenman spoke on legislation.

The well known Cavemen made the convention an enjoyable one with their antics and imitations, including a conducted tour through the Oregon caves.

Highlight of the convention was Ricardo, nationally known hair stylist who gave several interesting talks on the simplicity trend in the future hair styles, accompanied by demonstrations. Ricardo has been engaged by the Oregon association to tour the state and he will be in Klamath Falls sometime in late April or early May. Several of the delegates from Klamath studied under Ricardo while in Grants Pass.

The next meeting of the Klamath unit will be held the second Tuesday of April at which time plans will be completed for a Bingo party.
