

RESIDENTIAL GAS STORAGE DANGER NOTED

Klamath Insurance Agents association on Friday warned local people concerning private storage of gasoline on residential property.

Said the association in a resolution:

Whereas: it has come to the attention of the Klamath Insurance Agents association that due to present restrictions about to be put on the purchase of gasoline and fuel oils a good many people are purchasing unusual quantities and storing on their private residential premises;

Whereas: if this practice should be continued it might develop into a very serious fire hazard due to the particular conditions that we are subject to at the present time.

Therefore: be it resolved that the members of this association feel that the attention of property owners generally should be called to the seriousness of this situation, also they believe that if this condition should develop any serious fires that we might be faced with a considerable increase in fire rates.

E. B. REDMAN, Secretary.

Limit on Charge Accounts Studied

NEW YORK, March 19 (AP)—Possible future limits on use of charge accounts will be discussed Friday at a meeting of credit managers and store heads, the National Retail Dry Goods association announced today.

Such limitation, the association said, would be in line with federal reserve board attempts to reduce the difference between potential purchasing power and the amount of consumer goods to be available.

The series of destruction and retreat, of too little and too late, must end. The time of advance and attack should be near—Lieutenant Governor Van Mook of Dutch East Indies.

she will leave her flanks exposed.

And besides no one can say what a Jap—especially a Jap militarist—will do.

BUT there can be little doubt that our best chance of winning decisively and reasonably quickly lies in dangerous over-extension by Japan.

ANOTHER ALGOMA FLOOD CASE FILED

Ninth of the Algoma flood cases, Robert Gourley vs. The California Oregon Power company et al, was filed in circuit court Wednesday afternoon. Gourley asks $629.24 in damages for personal property allegedly destroyed in May, 1940 when water from the Upper Klamath lake broke through the dike, flooding land in the Algoma district.

A. C. Yaden is attorney for Gourley.

reported that Russian guerrilla forces had regained control of 6000 square miles of territory behind the German siege lines around Leningrad and declared they were so strong that the Germans could not enter the region.

Although not specifically identified, the section may be a part of the Baltic state of Estonia, which the Germans overran in their drive against Leningrad.

Russian appeals for opening of a second front against Germany were renewed today by the Moscow news, now published in Kulybshev, with a declaration that anti-Hitler forces "can and must determine the future progress of the war."

From a secret continental base, the German-freedom radio said German troops and laborers were strengthening Netherlands defenses and "these preparations show Hitler actually expects a landing by British and American troops."

adventures in military annals. Details of this thrilling, dramatic episode cannot now be revealed.

"I am not authorized to disclose details of the general's plans as they must be regarded as military secrets.

"I am authorized, however, to state that his plans are being put into operation and that he is approaching this new task with the same serene confidence and efficient aggressiveness that have characterized his brilliant career as a soldier and the magnificent defense of the Philippine islands."

Vegetable Drying Seen New Industry For Klamath Area

contact was established, as requested by the group, with individuals now engaged in dehydrating fruits and vegetables in California. Kenneth McLeod Jr. was to secure further information on outlets for dehydrated products and progress of present dehydrating companies. Lee McMullen was requested to secure information on government financing. As had been previously explained, the dehydrating plants might be financed in the same manner as new airplane or munition plants.

Attending the meeting were representatives of the agricultural committee and industrial development committee of the chamber of commerce and directors of the Klamath Potato Growers association, and others.

A skit, "A Roman Tragedy," was presented, with Mrs. Ted Medford as the reader. Those taking part were Mrs. Orin Fralley, Mrs. John Fowler, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. Don Drury, Mrs. Jack Schultz, Mrs. Ted Reeves, Mrs. Jack Murphy, Mrs. T. F. Farley, Mrs. Ray Oldenburg, Mrs. M. P. Kerr and Mrs. K. A. Moore.

Others who assisted were Mrs. Percy Murray and Mrs. L. K. Johnson. On the committee were Mrs. Fred Southwell, Mrs. Medford and Mrs. Thompson.

Lieutenant Governor Charles Wiper of Eugene was a special guest.

Visitor at Home Of Strangler's Victim Questioned

PORTLAND, Ore., March 19 (AP)—Police announced today they had located one of the two men who were in the apartment of Gwen Ponsen, 35, last Saturday night, some hours before she was strangled to death.

Police Lt. L. D. Manciet said the man, Malcolm M. Hartman, 25, Portland, admitted being with Miss Ponsen but asserted he departed about 2:30 a. m. Sunday, leaving her in the company of a second male visitor.

Manciet said Hartman was not held. The body of the blond office worker was found by other occupants of her apartment Sunday. Evidence indicated she had been strangled with an electric light cord, but there were other marks which led officers to think she might have been choked into unconsciousness by hand first.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or scanty passages with starting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When function of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eye, headache and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
