SLOW DRIFTING MARKS MARKET

NEW YORK, March 20 (P)—A slow drifting stock market to say just about cancelled the brisk MacArthur rally of St. Patrick's day.

The pleas of President Schran and the American Federation o Labor for a repeal or revision o the capital gains tax sounded hopeful note in financial quar ters but the attitude of congres on this argument was cloudy enough to hold optimism in

WHAT STOCKS DO YOU FOLLOW?

The Herald and News are revising their stock list, and are anxious to hear from subscribers as to which stocks they want to see quoted daily. Please note your stocks on a penny postcard and mail it to the MARKET EDITOR. Herald and News.

Due to heavy pressure on the wires from war news, it will be necessary to reduce the number of stocks carried. Some papers in cities larger than Klamath Fails have eli minated the stock list. The only way we can find out whether it is worth continu-ing is a showing of reader in terest as suggested above.

FRESH DECLINES _hurches HIT GRAIN MARKET The Apostolic Faith

CHICAGO, March 20 (A)-Fresh declines in the grain market today carried prices of lead-ing cereals and soybeans down to near or below the lowest figures quoted so far in 1942 in most cases.

Rye fell almost 2 cents, wheat more than a cent, and corn and coats almost that much, while soybeans at one stage tumbled 6 singing organizations and music o'clock. ted in one session.

Stop loss selling was blamed for the pronounced weakness of both rye and beans but the mar-ket in general was bearishly af fected by lagging demand for 5429. most spot delivery grain, exce, The favorable prospect Sacred Heart for new winter wheat, which Catholic Church will be moving into consumption in about three months, also was
