

SOCIETY

By Lois Stewart

Newcomers

MRS. R. JACK SIMPSON, with her young son, Dell, are making their home here at 1845 Esplanade. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson are former residents of Medford. (Above).

AN ATTRACTIVE ADDITION to the younger group in Klamath Falls is Miss Patricia Wethered, formerly of Eugene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wethered of that city. The newcomer serves as junior case worker in the welfare commission offices here. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. (Center).

MRS. WESLEY McNEE and her son, Wesley Jr., stopped all this business of settling in their home at 2025 Earle street long enough to permit the photographer a shot. Mr. Mc-Nee is with the Conifer Lumber company here. They are former Spokane residents. (Right).

FORMER PORTLANDERS are the Richard Maxwells who have moved to Klamath Falls and now make 1535 Eldorado their residence. Mrs. Maxwell is busy with small fry, Mary Margaret, ten, David, six, and Stuart Neil, just one year. Mr. Maxwell is practicing law. —All pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

Today's page is devoted to a group of attractive newcomers to Klamath Falls, interesting people who will take the place of the many residents who have left our town during the past month or so.

This past week has been a busy, busy one. The membership drive of the Klamath Community Concert association was to close at five o'clock Saturday night. The workers have called, checked and rechecked their lists of members and early response assures an excellent 1942-43 program. Anyway the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo is incentive sufficient to sell a ticket, front row or balcony.

Outstanding affair of this weekend is the Italian supper dance slated for eight o'clock tonight, Saturday, when Reames Golf and Country club officially opens its spring party season in the clubhouse. Supper will be followed by dancing and a good orchestra was promised the merry makers. Dance committee members included Dr. and Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hauger, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dinsmore.

Three dances are scheduled for next Saturday night! The last party of the year given by the Winter Dancing club will be held in the Willard and the "daffodil" theme will be used as a spring time motif. Also in the Elks temple the Sons and Daughters dancing party promises to be much fun for members of the younger set. Last but not least is the party scheduled in the armory for Shriners and their wives honoring officers and Hillah Temple Divan.

