

Caroline Daggett Is Bride in Ceremony

Well Known Klamath Falls Maid Becomes Mrs. Paul Crapo on Sunday Morning

White calla lilies and white stock made the pulpit of the Congregational Community church a beautiful background for the wedding at nine o'clock Sunday morning, March the fifteenth, of Miss Caroline Daggett and Mr. Paul Crapo. Mrs. George McIntyre played the wedding processional.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Claude H. Daggett and the late Mr. Daggett, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Crapo, all of this city.

A sheer wool crepe suit of rose, powder blue and beige was chosen by the bride for her wedding costume. Her felt hat was a matching blue and she carried gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Miss Nelmae Holmes of Portland was the bride's only attendant. She wore a turquoise blue dressmaker suit with brown accessories and her flowers were Talisman and Joanna Hill roses.

Mr. Clarence Crapo was his brother's best man.

Following the service which was read by the Rev. Eugene V. Haynes, pastor of the church, a reception for members of both families was given at the Daggett home.

The bride cut a beautifully decorated cake which was served by Miss Phyllis Foster. Pouring at the coffee table was a cousin of the bride, Miss Lisbeth Daggett of Prineville. The table was centered with a bowl of pink roses and freesias, flanked on either side by tall pink candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Crapo will make their home in Klamath Falls where both are prominent in affairs of the younger group.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett and daughter, Lisbeth, and Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Mercereau, all of Prineville and formerly of this city, and Miss Phyllis Foster of Eugene, student at the University of Oregon.

MRS. LAMB PAYS OFFICIAL VISIT TO CLUBS

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb left Thursday morning for Grants Pass to pay an official visit to Redwood Garden club at a meeting held on the Redwood highway west of Grants Pass. Mrs. Lamb serves as vice president of the Siskiyou district, Oregon State Federation of Garden clubs.

On Friday Mrs. Lamb visited the Jacksonville Garden club in Jacksonville and during the day also conferred with garden club members in Medford and Ashland in regard to the district conference scheduled for April the twenty-second in Klamath Falls.

During the past week Mrs. Lamb was a guest at the meeting of the Altamont Garden club held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bert Schultz. At that time members discussed vegetable gardens and conservation of products during the coming season.

BOSSES WILL BE HONORED AT BPW DINNER

Business Women and bosses will mingle Monday evening at half past six o'clock in the Willard hotel, when the Business and Professional Women's club holds its annual employer-employee party.

Designed to "take his mind off war and taxes," the affair will be a hard time party with old comfortable clothes and plenty of entertainment.

In charge of this meeting are the past presidents, headed by Dena Backes, assisted by Flo Ann Eaton, Leda Gardner, Emma Carter, Jean Porter, Martha McCollum and Ruth Bathiany. All members are urged to come and bring "the boss."

VISITORS HONORED AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Castleberry of North Third street entertained on Wednesday evening for a group of their son's fraternity brothers, members of Sigma Nu of Oregon State college, here this week to attend the wedding of Miss Dencie Kleinberger and Mr. Norman Peters.

Guests included Jack Castleberry, Irvin Thompson, Benjamin Kerns, Harry West, Sam Trueblood, and Bud Hunziker. Later a group of girls was invited in for dancing. The men returned to school early Thursday morning.

Ceremony In South

Former Klamath Folks Attend Rites in Arcadia Home

The marriage of Esther Nock Esterbrook and Don Otey Soule, son of Mrs. Ross Otey Soule, and the late Mr. S. E. Soule, formerly of Klamath Falls, was solemnized in Arcadia, California, on March the twelfth, according to word received here.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James Nock, in the presence of intimate friends and members of both families. The double ring service was read by the Reverend Edison Reifsnider before a flower banked living room hearth.

Mrs. Frank Wagoner, sorority sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Dr. J. J. Otey of Glendale, uncle of the groom, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. The bride cut a beautifully decorated cake which was served from a lovely table.

Mrs. Soule is a graduate of Pasadena high school and attended Pasadena Junior college. Several delightful affairs were given for her by members of her sorority before her marriage.

Mr. Soule attended Klamath Union high school before moving to Los Angeles where he completed his education. After special training in the Frank Wiggins school he has been employed by the Lockheed aircraft company where he continues as inspector. The Soules will be at home after March thirtieth at 365 Bella Vista street, Pasadena.

There were a number of former Klamath Falls residents among those present, Mrs. Muriel Elliott Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Gillenwaters, and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby.

APRIL FOURTH SET BY COUPLE AS WEDDING DATE

Saturday, April the fourth, has been set as the date of their wedding by Miss Evelyn Haworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haworth of Palmer, Idaho, and Mr. Wilbur W. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, pioneer residents of this city.

Both young people are graduates of Oregon State college and now interested in defense work of the Columbia Steel company in Pittsburg, California. Details of the wedding will be announced later.

HONORED
Adele Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Powers, was honored on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday anniversary Tuesday, March the tenth.

HOSTESSES AT DAFFODIL DANCE

One of the most delightful parties of the year is that scheduled for Saturday evening, March the twenty-eighth, when members of the Winter Dancing club meet for the last of a series of four dances in the Willard hotel. Golden yellow daffodils will carry out the "Daffodil Dance" theme. Hostesses are, left to right, Mrs. Lloyd Prock, Mrs. Donald C. Statham, Miss Johnnie Bell and Miss Antoinette Whitman.

—Kennell-Ellis pictures.

Proebstels To Leave

Well Known Klamath Family to Reside in Washington

Friends regret to learn the departure of another Klamath Falls family, active in civic and social affairs of the city. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Proebstel and young son Jimmy, will leave April the first for their stock ranch in Klickitat county, Washington, where they will retire after a residence here of the past six and one-half years.

Mrs. Proebstel has resigned her office as president of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club. A number of affairs are being planned for the Proebstels prior to their departure. They have occupied the Dr. Paul Sharp home on Washington street.

THREE HONORED FRIDAY BY MRS. WHITLATCH

Mrs. Roy Whitlatch entertained Friday evening at her home, 1122 North Eighth street, complimenting three members of the younger group who are leaving the city within a short time. Honor guests included Mrs. Richard Post who leaves this weekend to join her husband in Portland, Miss Jean Hauger who plans to leave next week for San Francisco to study, and Miss Audrey Edwards, who will also go to San Francisco.

Others present at the affair included Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. T. Frederick Farley and Miss Margaret West.

MRS. WEST DINNER HOSTESS ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Dale West of Merrill entertained for Mrs. George Clark on Friday evening when she asked a group of friends to motor to her home for dinner.

Guests included Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Nell Black, Mrs. Walter Lassett, Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mrs. Karl Urquhart of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Ed Crawford and Mrs. J. Randolph Barr of Merrill.

Cascade Crest Holds Initiation

Initiation of a new member, Mr. R. Bernell Holbrook, took place at the meeting of Cascade Crest chapter, OES, held Wednesday evening at the Chiloquin Masonic hall, with Mrs. Walter Brown, worthy matron, and Mr. William Morande, worthy patron, presiding.

Mrs. Amy Zumbum and Mrs. Geneva Brattain presided as hostesses for the social hour that followed the chapter meeting.

Members of the international relations group of AAUW will meet at eight o'clock Friday evening with Mrs. Everett Dennis, 1956 Huron street.

Mrs. G. C. Lorenz entertained at her home on High street with an evening of bridge Thursday for members of her club.

Daffodils Will Be Shown on Monday

Garden Group to Hear Discussion of Bulbs and Flowers by Blossom Farm Operator

What promises to be one of the most interesting meetings of the year of the garden group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club is the afternoon session slated for Monday at two o'clock when at least twenty-five varieties of daffodils will be shown by Mr. Conley of the Conley Blossom farm in Eugene.

Mr. Conley will discuss the varieties which he will bring from his farm, one of the best known in the northwest, and there will be a definite hint of spring in the air as the gay yellow blossoms brighten the small club room in the city library.

Spring arrangements will also be shown at this meeting according to Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, chairman of the day. Members of the group are asked to make their arrangements early.

Gardeners who are interested in learning just which bulbs and spring flowers will do the best in this climate, are urged to attend the meeting. A talk will be given by Mr. Conley and he will answer questions.

The next meeting of the club is to be held April the twenty-seventh when Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke will be chairman of the afternoon, her program based on perennial and annual borders. There will be seasonal flower arrangements.

The year for the group will end with the May eleventh meeting which is also the date of the big spring flower show of which Mrs. Horace E. Getz is chairman. There will be election of officers at this time.

AU REVOIR PARTY GIVEN MRS. BULLIS

Mrs. David Bullis, who leaves next week for Portland with her family to join Mr. Bullis, was complimented at an au revoir party given Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Phil Fahnlender entertained at dessert for a group of friends.

A gift was presented Mrs. Bullis during the afternoon. In cards high score went to Mrs. Lloyd Prock, second to Mrs. Edward Kliever, and low to Mrs. George Clark. Others present included Mrs. D. F. Branson of Newport, sister of the hostess, Mrs. William Van Buskirk, Mrs. Bullis, Mrs. DeLos Mills, Mrs. LeRoy Erdmann, Mrs. Lloyd Porter, Mrs. O. K. Puckett, Mrs. Howard Hanville, Mrs. Henri Conradi and Mrs. R. L. Hessig.

Home from school this weekend were a number of Klamath students including Clark Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, and Jerry O'Callaghan, son of Mrs. Leo Sagehorn. Both are students at the University of Oregon.

Miss O'Keefe Plans Told

Klamath Maid to Wed John Whitley on March Twenty-Eighth

Miss Dorothy Jane O'Keefe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Keefe of this city, has chosen Saturday evening, March the twenty-eighth, as the date for her marriage to Mr. John Whitley, son of Mrs. Henry N. Whitley and the late Mr. Whitley of this city.

The service will be read at half past eight o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church by the Rev. Victor E. Newman. Miss O'Keefe has asked her twin sister, Mrs. Clarence Crapo, (Beverly O'Keefe), to be her matron of honor, and Sara Margaret Stewart will be the flower girl. Mr. H. Douglas Whitley will be his brother's best man.

MARINE IS HONOR GUEST AT PARTY

Dale Hankins, who has just returned from duty with the United States Marines, was honored with a party given Saturday evening of last week when Miss Patricia Knighten entertained at her home on Nevada street.

A scavenger hunt was planned and honors went to Miss June Cook and Dick Snyder. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and at supper.

Guests included Dale Hankins, Miss Shirley Chase, Miss Lois Wittman, Miss Mildred Williams, Miss Vivian Lowther, Miss Vivian Jensen, Miss Letty Linman, Miss June Cook, Miss Edna Renner, Francis Gilchrist, Clarence Courtney, Cecil Hendricks, Jim Lawson, Lonnie Sanders, Dick Johnson, Dick Snyder, Herbert Cox, Don Johnson, Jerry Hample, and Maurice Van Emon.

Returns Home From Trip South

Mrs. Wilbur Jones returned to Klamath Falls Thursday after an absence of the past eleven days during which she enjoyed a visit in southern California. Mrs. Jones joined her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Melhaffey Sr., of Antioch, California. They motored to San Diego, joined in Compton by Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. Albert N. Sillis. In San Diego they visited the Melhaffey's son, Lawrence Jr., who has completed his work in the radio division of the United States marines and is now awaiting call. Young Melhaffey and a friend, Marine Fred Weaver, spent Sunday in Compton, returning to their base that night. Mrs. Jones and her daughter then drove leisurely home over the coast route, stopping at the missions in Santa Barbara, Carmel and Monterey.

A son was born on March the twentieth to Mr. and Mrs. Innis Roberts, 926 Newcastle street, in Hillside hospital. Mrs. Roberts is the former Grace Brown. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Roberts of this city.

Mississippi Church Scene of Wedding

Evelyn Campbell, Daughter of Pioneer Residents, Weds Ladd Hoyt in Jackson Chapel

Wedding bells rang in the Calvary Baptist church of Jackson, Mississippi on the evening of March the seventh, when Cadet Ladd Hoyt of the Jackson air base took as his bride Miss Evelyn Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar S. Campbell, prominent ranchers of the Langell Valley country. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Hoyt of 2905 Bisbee street.

The bride wore a heavenly blue sult with smart navy accessories and her corsage was of lavender orchids.

The Rev. Claude Bowen read the ceremony in the presence of the mothers of the young couple and the groom's brother, Mr. Richard Hoyt.

A furlough was obtained by the young soldier and with his bride returned to Klamath Falls for a brief visit, returning March the eighteenth to resume his duty at the air base.

Both are well known in Klamath county and are active in affairs of the younger group. Mrs. Hoyt will remain in Klamath Falls for a time.

STANLEY BROWN TAKES BRIDE IN SEATTLE

The church in which his parents were married on June the twentieth, 1917, was also the scene of the wedding of Mr. Stanley Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton J. Brown of Tulelake, when he took Miss Ardell Higgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Higgins of Tulelake, as his bride on March the fifth.

The service was read in the First Christian church on Broadway in Seattle, Washington. The pastor officiated.

Mrs. L. Leader and Mr. Robert Burns, both of Seattle, attended the young couple. The bride attended school in Tulelake and recently has been in Idaho. Mr. Brown graduated from Tulelake high school and later attended Anderson airplane school in Los Angeles. At the present time he is affiliated with the Boeing plant in Seattle where the couple will reside.

WEDDING OF INTEREST TO KLAMATH FOLK

A wedding of interest in Klamath Falls is that which took place Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the parsonage of the Community Congregational church when Mrs. Janet Perry Metzelaar and Mr. Byron Hoyt of Portland were married in a simple ceremony.

Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Embert Fossum.

Mrs. Hoyt has taught English in the Bonanza high school and will remain in this position. Mr. Hoyt leaves for army duty within a short time. He is now with Sherman Clay in Portland. Both are graduates of the University of Oregon. Mr. Hoyt majored in music and has continued this study since leaving school. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Perry of Portland.

"Duration" Visitors Here

Here for the duration are Mrs. William C. Holley and one-year-old son, Billy, guests of Mrs. Holley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Hout, Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Holley will be remembered as the former Lois Hout. Captain Holley is now in Washington, D. C., attending the engineer's training school.

Live in Beauty

You'll know what we mean when you try one! Comfort—supreme comfort! Unequaled for perfect bust control! Cunningly contrived for beautiful lines!

Yes—it's Formfit's sensational uplift LIFE brassiere now incorporated in an all-in-one! The ultimate for feminine grace—glamour—ease in an undergarment.

$7.50 to $15

AS ADVERTISED IN THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Life Girdle by Formfit

LaPointe's

MARRIED IN SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Ladd D. Hoyt, well known Klamath residents, shortly after their marriage took place March the seventh in Jackson, Mississippi, where the groom is stationed at the Jackson air base. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Campbell, prominent ranchers of the Langell Valley area.

—Kennell-Ellis.