STOCK MARKET LEANS UP FOR THIRD SESSION

NEW YORK, April 21 (AP)—The stock market today leaned towards improvement for the third successive session but top gains of fractions to around a point in the leaders were shaded by late profit selling.

Steels, aircrafts, and rails displayed about the best climbing power in the early proceedings. Heaviness in American Telephone tended to slow the recovery near the final hour. Transactions amounted to about 300,000 shares.

Among the stocks carrying plus marks most of the day were General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Montgomery Ward, Douglas, Curtiss-Wright, Boeing, Westinghouse, Johns-Manville, Union Carbide, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Chesapeake & Ohio and Great Northern.

Telephone's fractional dip was accomplished on a small line of selling. Action on the quarterly dividend is due early in May. Allied Chemical also suffered a relapse and was off as much as 2 points.

Rail loans attracted selective buying in the bond market.

BUYING PUSHES UP PRICE FOR WHEAT

CHICAGO, April 21 (AP)—The best buying power in several sessions lifted wheat prices a cent a bushel or more at one stage today as the market rallied further from five-months lows touched early yesterday.

Buying came from dealers covering previous short sales, shippers, merchandisers and mills and, though not on a large scale, was sufficient to overshadow limited selling. Shipping sold 10,000 bushels of wheat to go to outside mills. The fact that prices are well below prospective 1942 loan rates and minimum figures at which ceilings can be imposed and are not high enough to encourage marketing of old grain now under loan stimulated buying.

Wheat closed 1½-1¾ cents higher than yesterday, May $1.20 ½-⅝, July $1.23-$1.23⅛; corn ½-¾ up, May 86 ½-⅝, July 89⅛; oats ½-⅝ higher; rye ½-1¼ up; soybeans ½-1 higher.

"Checking out, Sir?"

JCC CLEARS LABOR STAND AT MEETING

At a meeting of the junior chamber of commerce in the Elk hotel Monday night there was considerable discussion of the highly controversial labor situation that prevails throughout the country. Inasmuch as considerable misunderstanding has arisen as to the full stand of the junior chamber of commerce, from fragments that have appeared in public from time to time, it was voted to make the following formal declaration of policy:

"The junior chamber of commerce has not and does not now express criticism of organized labor as an institution, nor of its activities in the Klamath basin. However, the junior chamber does feel, and has expressed its belief, that in certain areas and particularly in certain war industries, organized labor has acquired and is acquiring an unfair and unequitable position as compared with persons actually in the armed forces of the country, and the junior chamber insists that any such conditions, whether of organized labor or of other groups, be corrected and prevented."

HOOVER REQUESTS DRAFT COMPLIANCE

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, urged all draft registrants to comply fully with all provisions of the act. For the benefit of those who are not familiar with the requirements, he urged that the following precautions be observed

(1) Always keep your registration card with you.

(2) When you receive your questionnaire, answer and return it promptly.

(3) Report for examination and induction when so ordered.

(4) Keep your local board informed at all times of your correct address.

(5) Report immediately any change in your family status or occupation which might have a bearing on your classification.

(6) Do not attempt to evade any provisions of the Selective Service act or the official instructions of your board.

(7) Do not aid or attempt to persuade any one to avoid compliance with the selective service act.

PACIFIC COAST TO GET HIGHWAY WORK

SALEM, April 21 (AP) — The three Pacific coast states will have more highway construction work than other western states because of their location in a war theatre, State Highway Engineer R. H. Baldock said today on his return from a meeting of the western association of state highway officials in Salt Lake City.

He said the army and navy already have approved many Oregon road projects as being necessary for the defense of the area.

He said the war production has prohibited construction of roads and streets not necessary to the war effort, but added that there is no ban on maintenance of present roads.

The association asked the WPB for a tire pool in each state highway department to eliminate delays in buying tires.

The association also pledged the use of trained personnel in the western state highway departments to assist in solving motor transportation problems.

The nazis should introduce a new column in their war casualty statistics called "slightly killed."—Soviet Spokesman S. A. Lozovsky, commenting on German claims that Russia had lost 20 million men.

COPPER & BRASS GOODS

This is Mr. Brown

His store sells copper and brass ware, among other things.

Here are some of the copper and brass goods that Mr. Brown sold in his store last year.

This is a newspaper advertisement Mr. Brown ran LAST YEAR

Mr. Brown isn't running advertisements like that this year. There is a shortage of copper and brass, due to national defense, so Mr. Brown hasn't enough copper and brass goods to sell this year.

COPPER & BRASS GOODS for sale at Wm Brown's Store

But Mr. Brown hasn't stopped advertising!

Mr. Brown knows that during World War I many businessmen whose stocks of goods were temporarily cut down did stop advertising.

He knows that because they stopped advertising many of those businessmen lost their customers AND DIDN'T GET THEM BACK WHEN THE WAR WAS OVER.

Wm. Brown Store GLASS UTENSILS & DECORATIONS COPPER & BRASS REPAIRED & RESTORED

So Mr. Brown keeps his name before the public by keeping on advertising in the newspapers. He advertises new items—offers service on copper and brass articles. He shows his customers that he is interested in being useful to them—in giving them valuable service.

And when the war is over, when Mr. Brown again has plenty of copper and brass goods to sell, he won't have to worry about his customers forgetting him. They will still be in the habit of dealing with him.

There are many "Mr. Browns" in America today—many businessmen who are advertising even though their shelves are understocked, because they want the public to remember them, to stay in the habit of dealing with them, when the war is over.
