Big Ernie Bonham, the New York Yankees' football master who wore a corset and slept on boards to relieve a back ailment last year, registered his seventh straight pitching victory of the season Wednesday as the Yankees downed the Philadelphia Athletics, 8-3.

Bonham, leading flinger of the current major league campaign, allowed the A's seven scattered hits, and was assisted robustly by Outfielder Tommy Henrich who batted in four of the Yankees' eight runs with a homer and single.

This victory enabled the champion Yankees to stretch their American circuit lead to four and a half games over Cleveland's Indians, who lost to the Chicago White Sox, 9-7, under a bombardment of 17 hits — the most the Sox have made in a game this year. Joe Kuhel led the Chicago barrage with four hits in five trips, including a homer in the third with two men on. Jim Bagby and Harry Eisenstat were the unfortunate Cleveland moundsmen.

The St. Louis Browns downed Detroit, 5-2, behind Johnny Niggeling's pitching which tightened in the clutches although allowing 10 hits. It was Niggeling's fourth victory against three defeats.

The St. Louis Cardinals replaced Boston's Braves in second position beating Pittsburgh, 8-3, while Boston lost to Brooklyn 4-1. Brooklyn's victory stretched the Dodgers' first place lead to six games.

The Cardinals collected 12 hits off Rip Sewell and Lloyd Dietz on the Pittsburgh mound, and Martin Marion's eighth-inning single drove in the winning run.

The largest mid-week Boston Braves' crowd in years, 10,265, saw the Dodgers beat the Braves as Whit Wyatt ousted Jim Tobin in a pitching duel. Brooklyn broke out of a 1-1 tie in the ninth with a three-run burst, bunting three safeties, a triple by Mickey Owen and a walk. Wyatt held the Braves to five hits, while Tobin was found for seven.

Cincinnati walloped the Chicago Cubs, 10-1, in the second game of a benefit show for the army and navy relief funds at Chicago. In the first game, Great Lakes defeated Camp Grant, 4-1, for the service championship of northern Illinois.

Cincinnati routed Paul Erickson with a seven-run attack in the fourth inning, a spree featured by Gerry Walker's homer with three mates aboard.

In a night game at Philadelphia, the New York Giants blasted out a 6-2 decision over the hapless Phils and moved into a tie for fifth place with the descending Pirates. With Bob Carpenter holding the Phils to nine scattered hits for his fourth triumph of the season, the Giant power batters had an easy time with St. Johnson and Tom Hughes.

There was only one private, Jack Isaacs of Langley Field, Va., in the six-man army contingent in the P. G. A. tournament; all the rest were corporals. . . . They're blaming the war for the absence of squawks in the kitty league this season. The circuit had a tough time lining up six pups to work for $150 a month and expenses and apparently the Wolves are afraid to get too tough or those six will head for the army or defense plants.

Jim Bocchi To Compete In AAU Meet

Slim Jim Bocchi, ace Klamath Union high school cager and Oregon's best prep high jumper, will compete in the Oregon AAU tournament in Portland Saturday, KUHS Coach Paul Deller said Thursday.

Deller said the slender, agile Italian boy will jump against the best Washington and Oregon high school leapers in the Franklin field meet. Competition will be in the prep school section of the big tourney.

Bocchi, a junior, soared over six feet in the District meet at Medford several weeks ago, then went on to win the state event a week later.

Demaret Defeats Vic Ghezzi

Defending Champ Beaten In First PGA Round

By OSCAR FRALEY
 ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 28 (UP)—Dapper Jimmy Demaret shot his best golf since dominating tournament play in 1940 when he conquered Defending Champion Vic Ghezzi, 4 and 3, in the first round of match play for the PGA championship at Seaview country club Wednesday.

Demaret, a chunky Texan who faded into obscurity last year, came from behind to beat the hulking army corporal as the nation's crack professionals staged the greatest assault on par in PGA history.

The pros took the course apart with the 16 survivors shooting a total of 57 strokes under par for their rounds. Head men in the attack were slamming Sammy Snead, who clipped nine strokes on 30 holes in a 7 and 6 win over Sam Byrd, and Ky Laffoon, who cut eight strokes off par for 25 holes in a 12 and 11 win over Vic Bass, Keokuk, Ia.

But Ghezzi and Byrd, the former Yankee outfielder, had good company as they went out. Victims as the 32-man field was halved included Former Champion Denny Shute, Jimmy Hines, Dick Metz, Long-Hitting Jimmy Thomson, Dutch Harrison and Ben Loving.

The crowd was intent on Snead and Byrd. The two Sams waged a tight match on their first 18 when Snead finished two up on the strength of a four under par 68. But when the Virginia hill-billy got really hot, finishing up with five straight birdies for a total nine under par on the 30 holes to celebrate his 30th birthday.

National Open Champion Craig Wood clipped par by six strokes over the 32 holes route in turning back Rod Munday, Toledo, O., 5 and 4. Leland Gibson of Kansas City, Mo., joined the parade by hacking seven strokes off regulation figures in a 10 and 9 win over Jim Gaunt, Longview, Tex.

The defeat was Newsom's seventh of the season and the triumph the second for Judd of the Sox.

PAY-BALL

Start of Down Swing Is Smooth, Slow Pull to Left Arm With Wrists Cocked

By CRAIG WOOD
 National Open Champion
 Hitting a brassie, play the ball opposite the left heel as in the drive. Square stance is preferred. Foot-spread should be slightly wider than the width of the shoulders.

Keep the hands low, close to the body. Right shoulder is down, hips and legs relaxed, weight evenly distributed.

Left arm is slightly bent at the top of the swing, left shoulder is pointed toward the ball, and the club-shaft is parallel with the ground.

Start of the down swing is a smooth, slow pull to the left arm with wrists cocked and the left arm almost rigidly straight.

Roy Helsler, trying again to get a purchase in Class AA baseball (if the Portland Beavers can be classified Double-A), seemed to tighten up again in a recent game against Los Angeles. The ex-Salem WIL terror, apparently had plenty on the ball but he couldn't get it over the plate often enough. The Angels only got one run off him in four innings but he was in difficulty almost all the time, mainly because of seven walks.

However it was Helsler's first work in a week.

Oregon Sport Notes

By FRED HAMPSON
 Associated Press Staff Writer
 About the most optimistic forecast of any of the northwest sport writers on the Pacific coast track and field circuit in Seattle Saturday is four first places for the Northwesters collegians, 11 for the Californians.

Most of the writers haven't bothered their heads too much about the meet since the California schools—particularly USC—usually hog cinder honors nationally and it goes without saying they murder such sectional upstarts as Oregon, OSC, Washington, Idaho, Montana and WSC.

Al Stump of the Vancouver Columbian, who seems to keep a pretty accurate set of books on northwest cinder men, can't see more than four northwest wins. He likes Pat Haley of WSC in the low hurdles (after a terrific battle by Hertel of Stanford), Gene Swaney of Washington in the half mile (in about 1 minute, 54 seconds), Noel Williams of WSC in the mile, and either Clawson of Montana or Anderson of Idaho in the discus.

Al sees almost certain victory for Hal Davis, the California streak, in the sprints; Cliff Bourland of Southern California in the 440; Leroy Weed of USC (who does 9:17 while the rest try to crack 9:30) in the two-mile; Ed Stamm of Stanford in the shotput (he can't miss); Bob Biles of California (only lad in the league able to top 200 feet) in the javelin; Guinn Smith of Cal or Schaefer of USC in the

Bend Nine To Meet Pelicans

Visitors to Open Slate Here Sunday at 1:30 P. M.

Preparing for its initial league contests scheduled for next week, Manager Jack Gordon's Bend Oregon State league nine invades southern Oregon Sunday to meet the Klamath Falls Pelicans in a practice tilt at Recreation field at 1:30 p. m.

The Bend aggregation, which ranked high in the Oregon semi-professional baseball tournament held last summer in Silverton, will be led by such seasoned performers as Gordon, Bill Hatch, southpaw pitcher-first baseman-outfielder, and Jim Farmer, veteran moundsman. Johnny Bualo, pitcher-first baseman of the University of Oregon northern division diamond champions, also likely will be with the central Oregon club this week.

Klamath's Pelicans will probably have only three of their 1941 regulars in the lineup against the Bend group. Manager Ernie Bishop, second baseman, Paul Crapo, the hard-hitting first baseman, and Outfielder Paul Bernadour are the only players now members of the local team that helped to beat Manager Gordon's outfit three out of four times during the 1941 season.

Virg Haynes, winner of two of the three Oregon-California league wins chalked up by the Pelicans in four loop engagements, is in line for the pitching assignment against the invaders. However, Bishop may elect to start Leo Soran or Frank Van Driesebe, provided the latter arrives here this week.

Inner defense of the Klamath team will be strengthened for the Bend game with Earl Hamp-

Turner Scores TKO Over Arizmendi

OAKLAND, Calif., May 28 (UP)—Earl Turner, Richmond negro, battered Baby Arizmendi of Los Angeles to win a six-round technical knockout in the feature event of the navy relief fund show at Oakland auditorium Wednesday night.

Turner, who weighed 145½ pounds, had the edge throughout the fighting, and in the sixth round caught Arizmendi in the latter's corner and beat him unmercifully for a full 30 seconds until Trainer Whitley Eckwert threw in the towel. Arizmendi weighed 143½.

Arizmendi never has been knocked out in his long career, and had lost only two matches previously by the TKO route.

Pari-Mutuels Only Way to Boost Track

SEATTLE, May 28 (AP)—It's too bad they don't have pari-mutuels at track meets, in Seattle at least.

Saturday Southern California's great aggregation of runners, leapers and muscle men will be here to defend their Pacific coast conference track and field championship. And California's Hal Davis will be shooting at a new collegiate mark in the 100-yard dash.

But University of Washington officials admitted today that the attraction would be lucky to draw more than 1500 persons, mostly friends and relatives. Seattle just doesn't go for track.

Conference nabobs certainly would frown on a track pari-mutuel set up, with the customers planking their hard money through the wickets, and with a tote board in the infield recording the play. So the 10 conference teams will perform before an exclusive gathering.

Full teams of 18 men have been entered by U. S. C., California and Washington, with the other seven schools nominating fewer entries.

Davis' effort to lower the existing collegiate century mark of :09.4, which he equalled in the Fresno relays May 16, should hold most of the attention. The current "fastest human" has been clocked under that mark in practice sprints.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 28 (UP)—Portland and San Francisco split a Pacific coast league double header Wednesday night, Portland winning the opener 3 to 1 behind the five hit pitching of Ad Liska and the Seals the nightcap 10 to 4.

Liska limited San Francisco to two hits until the eighth inning when three consecutive singles scored the Seals' only run. He struck out six.

Portland scored one in the second on Barton's and Norbert's singles, an infield out and Castro's long fly.

HOLLYWOOD, May 28 (UP) San Diego overcame a desperate Hollywood team Wednesday night, breaking a ninth inning tie to win their second straight Pacific coast league series game with the Stars, 3 to 2.

The Padres broke a scoreless deadlock in the sixth with two runs. George Detore singled, Garibaldi walked, Jensen bunted for a hit, filling the bases, and Mel Mazzera singled to center-field scoring Detore and Garibaldi.

Wally Hebert gave up nine hits for the Padres, who nicked Freddie Gay for 10 safe hits.

SEATTLE, May 28 (UP)—Seattle and Los Angeles split a double-header here Wednesday, the Rainiers taking the first game 3-1 and the Angels the seven-inning nightcap 6-4.

Barney Olson's triple with the bases filled in the fifth inning gave the Seraphs their margin of victory in the nightcap.

In the opener, Seattle got to a fourth inning lead and never headed. Jo-Jo White's single opened festivities, and he was scored on Lynn King's sacrifice and Ed Stiekler's double.
