

Picture News of the Week

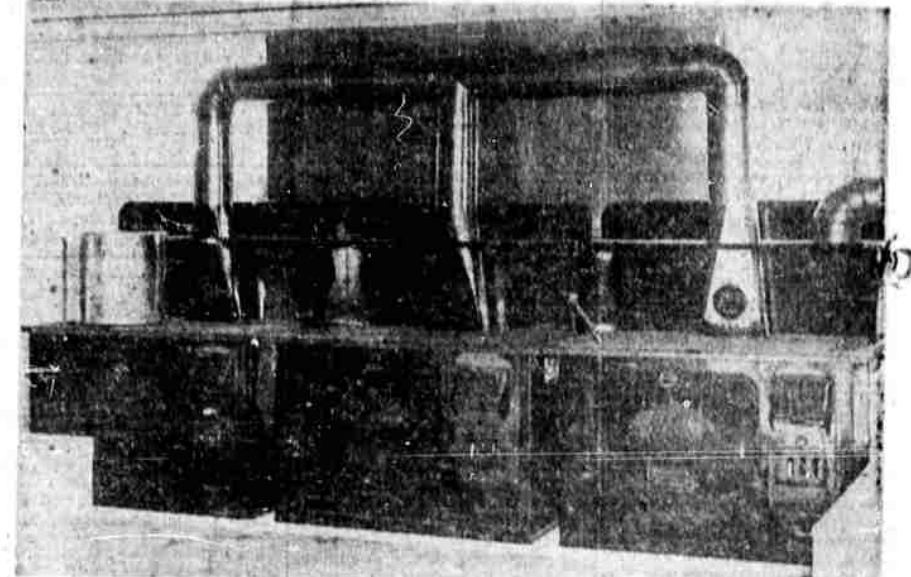

WINS CUP—Erlene Wheeler, daughter of Mrs. Freda Wheeler, received the coveted sportsmanship and scholarship cup given eighth graders from the Fremont Girls' Athletic association.

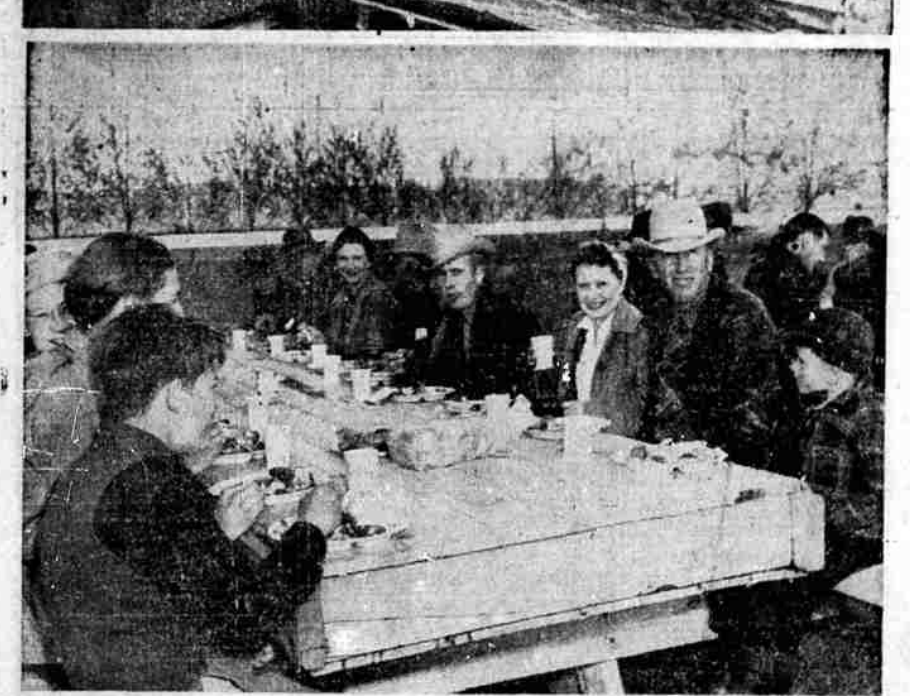

HEADQUARTERS—The war relocation authority has its headquarters in this building at the Tulelake Japanese project.

TYPICAL LIVING QUARTERS—There are scores of buildings exactly like this at the Tulelake relocation center, each containing four living units with separate entrances. All living units are alike. The buildings are 20 by 100 feet in dimensions.

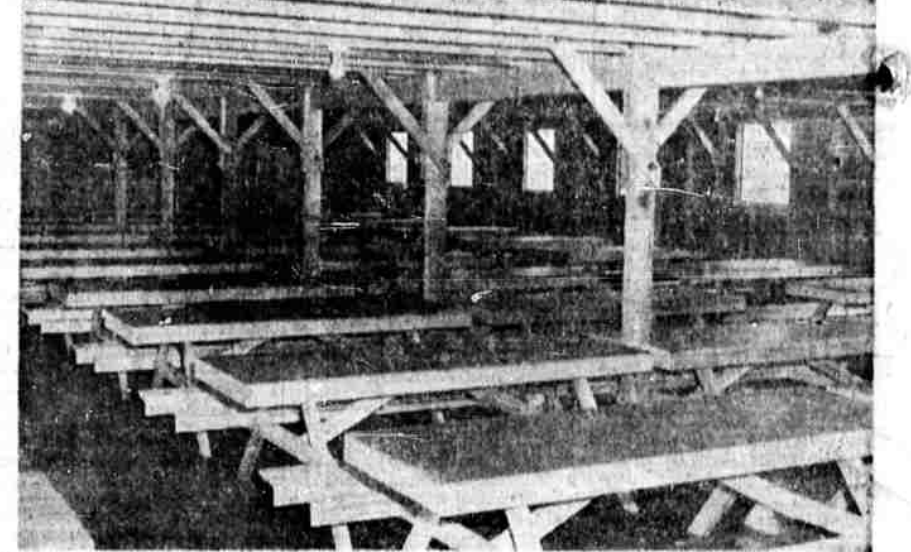

ARMY RANGES—Three rugged U. S. army ranges in the kitchen of a Tulelake relocation settlement mess hall.

AT LIVESTOCK BARBECUE—Upper picture shows a part of the lineup at the serving tables at the big livestock tour barbecue held this week at the Chet Barton place in Poe Valley. The festivities took place on the big lawn with special tables constructed for the business of eating. Below, a typical crowd stowing away the chow.

HOSPITAL CORRIDOR—An idea of the size of the Japanese relocation center's base hospital may be had from this deep view of one of the hospital corridors.

MESS HALL—There are 36 mess halls at the Japanese relocation center like this one.

FIRST TO REGISTER—Esther Elliott was the first Klamath woman to register for the Women's Auxiliary Army Corps when enlistment was open to ladies of the nation.

AWARD PRESENTED—Mayor John Houston presented the safety award plaque received by Klamath Falls to members of the safety council. Left to right: Police Judge Leigh Ackerman, Officer Tom Judge, Jack Campbell, member of the safety council, Sam Ritchey, chairman, Mayor Houston, John Sandmeyer, council member, Officer Odell Olson and City Engineer E. A. Thomas.

KLAMATH SOLDIERS—Left to right: Staff Sergeant Leon Deering, member of the US army air corps, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Deering of this city. He was a member of KUHS class, 1934. Jack Otterbein, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Otterbein, 524 North Tenth street, is now with the US marines stationed at Great Lakes training station, Chicago. He is taking torpedo training and is up for the rating of private, first class. Corporal William McCauley is now at Camp Lee, Virginia. He is the son of Mrs. W. P. McCauley of this city. Second Lieutenant Robert Muskrat of Chiloquin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Muskrat of Klamath Agency. He reports for regular duty June 1 after two years at Oregon State. Young Muskrat was an outstanding track star during high school days, made the varsity at OSC and qualified for his army commission at the age of 18 years. He is now 20. Muskrat was valedictorian of his high school class, 1940.

PRO-AMERICA—Mrs. Sylvia Riggs, Portland, state president, spent last week here in the interest of organizing Pro-America. Seated, left to right, Freida Sugarman, Mrs. Van Thome, Mrs. Riggs, Mrs. Charles D. Garcelon, Elenora Weatherford. Standing, Mrs. James H. Van, Mrs. Ethel Storm, Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Joyce Jacobs, Mrs. Grace Wells, Mrs. Stephen Sabo.