

MISS MARY ANN MILLS AND MISS CONNIE HUNT

SOCIETY

By
Lois
Stewart

MISS MARY HOOKER

RONALD HERSHBERGER AND MISS BETTY BENNET

Recital Week

This week and next are busy ones for the people on our page, chosen by this equally busy editor from among the piano and voice students of six teachers. Some of the small fry are just embarking on the choppy voyage of music, others are little wizards on the keyboard. To their parents they are all budding young artists!

Student of Mrs. Charles A. Henderson is Mary Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hooker, 1218 Pacific Terrace. Mary was coaxed in from play to pose at the piano for Mister Photographer.

Practicing just before lesson hour are Mary Ann Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills, and Connie Hunt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Hunt. They are piano students of Mrs. Stanley Woodruff.

Two stars on "The First Butterfly" proudly grace Mary Jane Howard's music. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard, 1603 Eldorado, and the student of Mrs. E. D. Johnson.

A duet team to perform Tuesday evening, Betty Bennet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bennet, and Ronald Hershberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hershberger. They are students of Mrs. Allen Sloan.

Mary Louise Sexton, standing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sexton, sings while Mary Lou Van Riper accompanies her at the piano. Mary Lou is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Van Riper. Both are students of Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt.

Marian McIntyre and her brother, Donald, are children of Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre of Lincoln street. Their piano teacher is none other than Mother. Marian is 12, Donald is nine.

MISS MARY JANE HOWARD

MISS MARIAN M'INTYRE AND DONALD M'INTYRE

—All Pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

MISS MARY LOUISE SEXTON AND
MISS MARY LOU VAN RIPER