Program Presented

Interesting All Day Session To Be Held By Women's Group

Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church enjoyed an all day meeting on Thursday starting at ten o'clock in the morning with the usual study hour and sewing. As guests were seated at the luncheon table they sang, "America the Beautiful."

A musical program included the following, numbers by the vocal trio, Aileen Cornell, Jane Hanson, Lorraine Kluth, "Just A'wearyin' for You," and "Perfect Day," by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Mrs. E. B. Redman accompanied the three. Solos were sung by Joy Kent, "Oh Dry Those Tears" by Del Reigo, and "The Lass With the Delicate Air," by Arne, accompanied by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt. Jane Hanson played one piano number, "Rustle of Spring" by Sviding.

At the close of the luncheon hour Mrs. Victor Phillips took charge of the devotionals. At this time Jane Hanson and Aileen Cornell sang with Mrs. Redman at the piano, the number chosen from the hymnal. A brief business meeting followed.

Miss Hanson then played a Beethoven sonata followed by vocal duets sung by Mrs. S. Meade Badger and Mrs. William M. Terwilliger, "Gray Days" by Johnson and "Coming Home," Charles Wilbey. At the close of the musical hour Mrs. Eugene Cervena had charge of the topic, "Your Children." Mrs. W. R. Cabiness, Mrs. Lela Laurenson and Mrs. Paul Deller assisted in the discussion.

There was an excellent attendance at the meeting.

PARTY GIVEN BEFORE DINNER AND DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Huson entertained with a cocktail party at their home on Auburn street just before the Sojourners dinner dance at Lakeshore inn Thursday evening.

Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hubble, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kempter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coulam and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Rauw.

EXECUTIVE MEETING OF GARDEN GROUP

Mrs. Frederick Hamilton, president of the garden group of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club for the ensuing year, held an executive and committee meeting at her home on Crescent avenue on Tuesday afternoon to make plans for the coming year.

Mrs. H. E. Getz, program chairman, presented plans for the future club meetings which are expected to be unusually interesting. Refreshments were served by the hostess from a prettily appointed tea table where Mrs. William L. Scott and Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook presided.

MRS. HESS HOSTESS AT BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. John Hess entertained with a dessert bridge at her home, 712 Doty street, on Thursday afternoon.

Honors went to Mrs. William Bratton, Mrs. Melvin McCollum, Mrs. George Sprague and Mrs. L. A. Murphy. Others who enjoyed Mrs. Hess' hospitality were Mrs. Harold Robertson, Mrs. John Sandmeyer, Mrs. Oliver Moen, and Mrs. Harold Cloake.

Mrs. Francis R. Olds, accompanied by Miss Helen Lois Winningham, left early Friday morning for Walla Walla, Washington, where they will attend commencement exercises for Mrs. Olds' daughter, Patricia Gallagher. Miss Winningham goes to Portland to reside with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mylius P. Winningham, and Mrs. Olds and Patricia will return here, stopping in Prineville to visit at the Robert Gallagher home for a brief time.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ulrich have returned from a three weeks' visit in the south. They were guests of their son, First Lieutenant Armond Ulrich at Oakland, and while there, their daughter, Mrs. Richard Walker of Inglewood, paid her family a visit. Mrs. Armond Ulrich and small son have returned here for a visit at the Ulrich home on Conger avenue.

BIRTHDAY

Little Suzanne Goeller, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goeller of 406 South Riverside, blows out two candles on her cake.
