Riveter Sets New National Record

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5 (AP) Riveter Lloyd H. Laknes, 26, hammered 1745 rivets into the hull of a Liberty freighter during a recent seven-and-a-quarter-hour shift—and washed up and went to a dance.

The Oregon Shipbuilding corporation, in announcing the feat today, claimed a national record for its tireless young champion. Laknes, corporation officers said, drove seven per cent of all rivets needed in a 10,000-ton freighter in a single shift.

Laknes himself was not greatly impressed and gave most of the credit to his seven-man crew. The boys kept the hot rivets coming at him one every 15 seconds.

Laknes, who learned to operate a rivet gun only last fall, was stirred to his record attempt by an Associated Press wirephoto picture of a Los Angeles riveter whose count was 1456 for eight hours.

Gov. Sprague Not Aspirant for University Job

SALEM, June 5 (AP)—Governor Charles A. Sprague, commenting on reports that he might be the next president of Willamette university, said today he is not an aspirant for the position.

The governor, whose term expires next January, said he wants to return to newspaper work. He is publisher of the Oregon Statesman, Salem's morning newspaper.

Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf resigned the presidency of Willamette effective next September 1, and the university trustees, of which the governor is one, are expected to name a successor before that date.
