

Patricia Gallagher To Be Summer Bride

Attractive Klamath Girl Announces Betrothal to Aviation Cadet Robert Shaw

One of Klamath Falls' most attractive members of the younger set, Miss Patricia Jane Gallagher, has joined the ranks of summer brides-elect with the announcement of her engagement and coming marriage to Aviation Cadet Robert Shaw of Walla Walla, Washington.

The betrothal was made known at the annual June breakfast of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority's seniors given at Whitman college last Saturday morning. A silver airplane, which flew to the center of the breakfast table, held a bomb in which was a message telling the guests of the young couple's plans.

Miss Gallagher is the daughter of Mrs. Francis Robert Olds, and with her mother returned to Klamath Falls Thursday evening from Whitman where she was graduated. She has been active in students' affairs on the campus, served as president of Mortar board, senior women's honorary group, and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Mr. Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Shaw of Walla Walla, is a graduate of Whitman college where he was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity and prominent in athletics. At this time he is taking his final aviation training at Lubbock army flying school in Texas preparatory to receiving his silver wings and gold bars as an air corps officer on June the twentieth.

No date has been announced for the wedding although it will take place sometime in July following Mr. Shaw's graduation.

The announcement party was given in the garden at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Lyman in Walla Walla.

En route home from Walla Walla, Mrs. Olds and Patricia spent a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher in Prineville.
