NEW YORK, June 8 — First reports trickling in from clubs that staged Red Cross tennis tournaments last weekend indicate that the average take was $100 a club . . . And since 300 or so clubs were on the list, the contribution wouldn't exactly give you hay fever . . . Regardless of how much the sectional groups take in this weekend on the qualifying rounds, the Hale America golf tourney looks like a financial success already . . . The Ridgemoor club has pledged itself to buy $7000 worth of tickets and the other 64 Chicago district clubs are organizing a sell-drive . . . Indications are the gate will reach $40,000 or $50,000.

TODAY'S GUEST STARS

Chick Morse, Worcester (Mass.) Evening Gazette: "When a race horse gets too old to race, we ship it to fertile green pastures, there to live in peace, away from it all . . . 19-Year-Old Wins Shoot In Washington

TACOMA, June 8 (AP)—The state singles championship event at the Washington State Trapshooters association tournament was won here yesterday by 19-year-old J. A. Turner of Bremerton with a score of 193 out of a possible 200 in the 16-yard event.

Earl Averill of Snohomish, a former major league baseball star, scored 96 out of 100 to win in the state handicap event and Earl Colson Jr., of Tacoma, had high overall score for the three day event.

Ineligible for the Washington title, C. R. Day, Coquille, Ore., posted a 192 in the singles event to tie with Charles Mael for second place, while J. W. Shaw of Portland and J. W. Crane, Salem, each had 191.

By The Associated Press

Startling was the sudden stirring of the Pacific coast league's last place Portland Beavers this weekend, which cost San Diego three defeats and dropped the strong Padre club at least temporarily out of first place contention.

Late inning splurges clinched victory for Portland in the two Sunday games, 6 to 2 and 5 to 3. In the seventh frame of the opener Marty Martinez and Pitcher Joe Orrell followed up a struck batsman and an error with a single and a double. All that produced three runs, and Lee Stine's fly with the bases loaded brought home another in the next session.

Saturday's play resulted in an 8-5 Portland victory. Although the triple success failed to lift the Beavers out of the cellar or even win the series for them, it made a nice offset to four straight defeats by San Diego earlier last week.

If Sacramento had continued to enjoy the same combination of pitching and hitting it received in yesterday's first game the Senators by today would have overtaken Los Angeles in the struggle for the league lead.

In that opener Blix Donnelly tossed a six-hitter, the Sacs came through with three blows and a run in the chips down ninth inning, and Seattle fell, 3-2, bringing Pitcher Dick Barrett, who was touched for nine hits, his third defeat against 12 victories.

In the second game, however, the Rainiers, winning 6-3, pounded Bill Schmidt for ten hits and Herschel Lyons for more over the seven-inning stretch.

In spite of another loss Saturday, 5-1, earlier successes gave the Senators the series, 6-4.

Jack Salveson of Oakland, who can recall without too great strain of memory when he had the coast league's best earned run average, gave Los Angeles 13 hits in six innings of a baseball game yesterday.

Yet the Oaks won that game, 8 to 6, and Salveson received credit for the victory, although he wasn't around at the finish. A six-run eighth inning did it, Rookie Outfielder Wally Westlake's round-tripper with bases loaded providing the decisive punch.

Out-hit in both Sunday encounters, the Acorns also won the second, 4-3, with four-ply blows again accounting for a major proportion of the runs. Joe Glenn cracked one in the sixth, scoring Bill Rigney ahead of him, and Westlake repeated in the extra-inning eighth to end the game.

The double victory, combined with a 6-1 win Saturday, salvaged for Oakland, four games to three, a series which had seemed beyond recall and lifted the club into fifth place, a whisker above San Francisco.

After losing to Hollywood 5-3 Saturday and 6-5 in yesterday's opener, San Francisco managed a 4-2 victory in the second Sunday game and by that margin took the series, 4-3.

A showdown battle for first place is the prospect for this week, Los Angeles and Sacramento clashing in a series opening tomorrow on the Senators' grounds. Portland plays at Hollywood, Oakland at San Diego and Seattle at San Francisco.

Klamath Golf Team Shaded By Bend Squad

A squad of Bend golfers Sunday shaded a visiting team of Reames Golf and Country club linksmen 18½-17½, on the Bend course.

Best score of the tournament was posted by Klamath's G. Vince with an 84.

The Klamath clubbers were entertained at noon with a lunch in the clubhouse. Returning team members reported the match was held under ideal golf conditions. Greens were firm and fairways in good shape.

Convict Ball Team Meets Portland Army Team in Relief Game

PORTLAND, June 8 (AP) — Warden George Alexander predicted today that at least nine convicts would get away from the state penitentiary next Sunday.

They will be members of the prison baseball team, and their leave will be only long enough to permit them to play against the Portland army all-stars here in a benefit game for the army recreational fund.

Crapo's Double Cops Second for Locals

Carlstrom Wins Third in Row Saturday; Seven Bigbill Errors Help Lose

By BOB GLENNON

Dealt a stunning 11-3 defeat in their Oregon-California league opener at home Saturday evening by a former team mate, Dorris' Clyde Carlstrom, the Klamath Falls Pelicans nabbed the second game of the series at Recreation park Sunday afternoon, 3-2, by coming from behind in the last of the ninth, scoring the necessary two runs on a walk to Manager Ernie Bishop, Hi Hatfield's triple to right center and Paul Crapo's double to left.

Left Fielder Hatfield, hitless in three previous trips to the plate, picked one of Southpaw Jim Snider's pitches to his liking and clubbed it between the Lumberjack center and right fielder for three bases after Bishop had received a walk as first man up in the final stanza. The Klamath manager's run tied the score, 2-2. First Baseman Paul Crapo, whose only hit in seven attempts up to that time had been a scratch single, then sent the first pitch soaring over the Dorris left fielder's head for two bases scoring Hatfield to break up the ball game.

The Lumberjacks tallied first in the tight-scoring Sunday fracas when Pitcher Jim Snider singled Clyde Carlstrom home from third base in the fifth inning. However, the locals tied up the count in the seventh on Crapo's infield hit, a passed ball and Third Baseman Bob Yancey's single to center.

Manager Red Tolbert's boys seemed determined to sweep the weekend meet when Catcher Bart Goldbar tripled as first batter in the eighth and First Baseman Jack Duracha sent him on a perfectly-executed squeeze play. This marker put the Lumberjacks ahead, 2-1, and the game was apparently in the bag for the visitors until the Pelicans clinched the fray with the last inning rally.

In the Saturday evening tilt the 'Jacks blasted out 17 safeties to score in every inning except the eighth and ninth. Hatfield and Frank Van Driesche divided the pitching assignment for the Pelicans, the former allowing eight hits and seven runs in five frames while the latter was nicked for nine safe blows and four runs in the final four cantos.

Murray Marshall, the Dorris second baseman, garnered the best average of the series. He drove in three runs on six hits in eight official tries. In two other trips to the plate he was walked. Earl Brooks collected four hits in 11 attempts while Goldbar, Duracha and Carlstrom bagged three hits in the two games. Goldbar's three, however, were distance blows including two triples and a home run.

Carlstrom fanned seven and gave no free passes to first in registering his third loop triumph in as many starts. Bishop, who was Klamath's best hitter with three for six in the two engagements, and Pitcher Van Driesche each got two hits in the Saturday game.

This week the Medford Craters come here for a couple of contests that opens the second round of play for the four clubs in the circuit. Dorris travels to Grants Pass to meet the Merchants in a brace of tilts.

Caps, Tigers Exchange Lead In WI Loop

By The Associated Press

The Western International baseball league lead changed hands between Tacoma and Vancouver this weekend every time the two teams played ball but rests today with Tacoma by a very narrow margin.

The Tigers held the lead until Friday night when the Capilanos won it from them. Saturday night the Tigers took it back with a narrow 4-3 10-inning victory, won when Vancouver First Baseman Bill Wright dropped the ball and Al Kretchmar let another past him to score Roy Younker from second.

The Caps moved briefly into the lead again yesterday when they won the opener 6-5 after the Tigers allowed five unearned runs with five errors, four of which were made in the eighth inning. Vancouver brought in three runs in both the seventh and eighth innings to eat up a four run Tiger lead.

In the nightcap the Tigers started badly by allowing two more unearned runs but soon tightened up and gave able support to the fourhit pitching of Fred Bradley to win, 3-2, and, incidentally, resume the league lead.

At Salem the tail-end Spokane Indians took a double beating again at the hands of the Senators by scores of 4-0 and 4-1.

Troy on March for 8th Title

USC Track Team Leaves For Nebraska and Tourney

By ROBERT MYERS

LOS ANGELES, June 8 (AP)—Led by Coach Dean Cromwell, the University of California track and field aggregation heads for Lincoln, Neb., tonight in quest of Troy's eighth straight NCAA championship and its eleventh crown in 15 trips to the meet.

Undefeated this season, and with their seventh consecutive Pacific coast conference championship safely stowed away, 17 athletes will make the journey and stop over for a workout Wednesday at Denver.

Jovial, optimistic Cromwell expects to have entries in every event on the Saturday program except the two-mile run and javelin throw.

Leroy Weed, Cromwell's star distance man and co-captain of the team, will concentrate on the mile, and his race against Leslie MacMitchell of New York U. figures to be a classic. The New Yorker edged out Weed in a close finish in the NCAA last year, but the Trojan has a mark of 4 minutes 15.1 seconds to his credit this year and may reverse the decision.

Eugene Takes Lead in State Loop Play

By The Associated Press

The Eugene Athletics moved into the lead of the Oregon State Baseball league yesterday, pounding three Albany pitchers for a 10-0 victory and their second consecutive win over the Alcos.

The Portland Firemen, victors over Silverton last week, were spilled by the Red Sox yesterday, 4 to 2.

Bernard "Bud" Brewer hurled the victory for the Athletics, scattering eight hits.

Pesky of Silverton gave up six hits, the same number yielded by three Portland pitchers, but he scattered them more effectively.

Smith Cracks Ernie Bonham's Win Skein

Cleveland Southpaw Cops, 5-4; Tigers Keep Grip on Second; Bums Win Two

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Nearly everybody in the major leagues, it seems, is working on a "streak" of some kind these days, but the ones who hope to keep them intact will take a tip from the New York Yankees and steer clear of Al Smith, the Cleveland southpaw.

Ernie Bonham is the latest to tangle with Lefty Al, whose portside tactics have made him an unpopular citizen in the vicinity of the Bronx.

Sporting a record of eight straight victories and topping the pitching ranks of both leagues, undefeated Ernie went after number nine against the Indians yesterday and 71,910 paying customers were on hand at the Yankee stadium to watch him work.

Al Smith

But Smith had ideas of his own.

When Lou Boudreau singled in the ninth for the 11th blow off the Yankee ace and moved to second on a sacrifice, Smith stepped up and lashed out a hit for the sum that won the game, 5-4.

Cleveland's success was short-lived yesterday, however, for the Yanks splattered home runs all over the place in the second game, winning 13-1 behind Spud Chandler's five-hit pitching and dumping the Indians into fourth place as the Boston Red Sox moved into third.

The Detroit Tigers held on to second place in the American league, ten games behind the Yanks, by dividing a double bill with the Washington Senators. Detroit took the first game, 6-4, with the timely hitting of Pinky Higgins and Roger Cramer, but Walt Masterson blanked the Tigers on four hits in hurling the Senators to an 8-0 win in the afterpiece.

The Boston Red Sox tripped the Chicago White Sox twice, winning both games by a score of 3-2 and scoring the winning runs in the final frames.

Continuing their flirt with the first division, the St. Louis Browns knocked off the Philadelphia Athletics in both games, 5-2 and 7-1.

In the National league, the Cincinnati Reds took a pair from the tumbling Boston Braves and moved into third place, vacated by the New York Giants who lost a twin bill to the St. Louis Cardinals.

Four unearned runs helped the Reds win their first game, 6-2, but it took a ninth-inning homer by Ray Lamanno to decide the second, 3-2.

Howard Pollet pitched the cards to a 4-1 triumph over the Giants in their opener and Mort Cooper made it unanimous with a four-hit 2-0 shutout.

The Brooklyn Dodgers clung to their seven game lead over the Cards by winning a pair from the Chicago Cubs. Arky Vaughn, Dixie Walker, and Pete Reiser paced a 16-hit attack which won the first game, 8-4, and Reiser drove in the winning tally in the tenth inning of the 4-3 second game.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, who replaced the Cubs in sixth place and boosted their longest winning streak of the season to four straight, came from behind twice to nip the Philadelphia Phils, 5-4 in ten innings, and 8-6 in a game held to seven innings by the Sunday law.

Get a Grip on Yourself and Play Tennis, Use Continental Grip, Says Marble

Coach Tennant illustrates. Shake hands with racket-handle.

Second of 10 instructive articles.

By ALICE MARBLE and ELEANOR TENNANT

Continental grip is for serves, the backhand, overhead smash and volleys.

The Eastern grip is for the forehand.

The Eastern grip is obtained by shaking hands with the racket-handle. Place the racket-head in your left hand vertically, then take the racket-handle in your right.

Fingers are spread on the handle, as in a handshake. Your first finger knuckle is on the broad side. The heel of the palm is on the top or diagonal face.

For the Continental grip, turn your hand upward from the Eastern, so the first finger knuckle is on the diagonal face and the heel of the palm on the top face.

In changing grips, hold the racket with the Eastern, then lift your hand to the Continental. Do this 20 times. Serve two balls with the Continental, then stroke two over the net with your Eastern forehand drive. Do this 20 times. The change of grip becomes natural.

Hold your racket with the Eastern grip and pat the ball to the ground, keeping an even tempo until you can keep the ball in play 50 times.

This develops timing, rhythm, ball control and most important of all—you learn to keep your eye on the ball.

NEXT: Serves.
