

CITY BRIEFS

From South — Mrs. Maggie Hackney and her daughter, Barbara Ray, are visiting here from San Francisco, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter West Jr., Weyerhaeuser. They are former residents of this city. Ray Rivers is now with the United States army signal corps and has been studying at the University of California. He is now stationed at the Presidio.

At Spokane — C. S. Robertson, president of the First Federal Savings and Loan association, left Saturday night for Spokane, where he is attending a midsummer conference of savings and loan associations at the Davenport hotel. Robertson is president of the Oregon State Savings and Loan league and was selected to take part in a panel discussion.

Picture — Hillside hospital has invited all graduate nurses and members of District No. 8, OSNA, to see the technicolor motion picture on biliary surgery Wednesday, June 10, at 7 p. m. in the hospital. The same picture will be shown Wednesday at the noon staff meeting in the hospital. Dr. E. D. Lamb will show the picture.

Dismissed — John Bruce of Merrill, 31-year-old ranch hand employe who was a passenger in the truck hit by the Southern Pacific passenger train at noon Monday taking the life of John Henrich, was reported improving at Hillside hospital and was to be dismissed Tuesday to return home.

Improving — Thomas J. Sparks, 60 Hawthorne avenue, is improving at Klamath Valley hospital and attendants said he would be able to return to his home this week. He has been ill for the past two months.

Improves — Earl Cornell, transient who suffered stab wounds early Sunday evening at the South Sixth street "jungles," was reported recovering nicely by Klamath Valley hospital attendants.

Infection — Alfred Grimm, 835 Rose street, is receiving treatment for infection from a blister. He is a patient at Klamath Valley hospital and employed at Ewanna Box company.

Treatment — Richard Kirk, 11-year-old son of Izelda Kirk of Chiloquin, is receiving treatment at Klamath Valley hospital.

On Trip — Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Peltz of the Audley apartments are on a motor trip which took them to Grants Pass and down the coast to San Francisco.
