 In breaking its long silence, imperial headquarters dismissed the three-day battle of Midway as a brief but heavy assault on a single day, June 5, which "inflicted heavy damage on enemy naval units and naval and air force establishments."

Battle of Australia
 Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced that allied fliers had won a 13-to-2 victory over the Japanese yesterday, registering the greatest bag of enemy fighters ever reported in a single action in the southwest Pacific.

United nations airmen also attacked Japanese-occupied bases in New Guinea and Portuguese Timor, setting big fires.

China War Front—Chinese troops striking behind Japanese lines were reported to have advanced within 12 miles west of Nanchang, Japanese-occupied capital of Kiangsi province.

Chinese quarters described the thrust as an apparent attempt to force the Japanese to withdraw part of their invasion armies from neighboring Chekiang province, thus easing the pressure in that sector on China's east coast.

an hour at a time. Then he begins to choke and respiration must be resumed.

"We've been blessed with wonderful friends," said Mrs. Williams, who is worn and haggard after the long ordeal but still hopeful that a way may be found to save her husband.

Recently, she said, he was taken to an Oklahoma City hospital and placed in an iron lung but immediately began to choke and had to be removed.

His weight has dropped from 150 to 87 pounds and doctors hold out no hope for his recovery.

But his friends say they'll keep on pumping until death ends their labors.

DEMOCRACY WILL WIN.
 DEMOCRACY will win because it is MORE EFFICIENT. The United States of America is proving that fact to the world day after day.

HOLD this thought:
 When the less efficient dictatorships have been decisively defeated in battle by the MORE EFFICIENT DEMOCRACIES, a lesson of tremendous importance to the whole future of the world will have been written into the pages of history.

The peace of the world has been seldom destroyed by genuine democracies. It has been OFTEN DESTROYED by ambitious dictators.

If it can be clearly demonstrated that the POWERFUL democracies, whose influence is always on the side of peace, can and WILL crush the would-be conquerors who UPSET the peace of the world, there may be hope of peace in the future.

HOLD this other thought:
 Only by remaining UNCONQUERABLY STRONG can the democracies guard the future peace of the world.

Whatever happens, let's not revert to pacifism and flabbiness after this war is over.

tie, left the vessel shortly before she sank.

"No one even got his feet wet getting away," he said, "but it was miserable after that—cold and rainy and seas breaking over us all the time."

He said the attack occurred about 2:20 p. m. Sunday and the lifeboat started for shore at dawn Monday after "hanging around the scene on the chance someone heard our SOS. It seemed the explosion wrecked the wireless and no one could hear it."

The lifeboat, towed by a passing fishing boat, reached a haven Monday night and gave the position of the two life rafts. Allied planes and a corvette found the rafts and their survivors easily about 6:30 a. m., yesterday and the warship brought them here after "splicing the main brace" with issues of hot rum.

"I'm going to take a three weeks vacation," said Captain Havens after he and his officers and crew had exchanged their sodden clothing for borrowed naval garb. "This was to have been my last voyage in this ship before a new command. It was!"

"I'm going out again before the end of the month, as master of a ship," said First Officer Nystrom. "It was to have been my last cruise in this ship, too. And it was."

by state police with being drunk on a public highway.

On Vacation
 Hayes told officers he and his companions were en route to Bly where they were to visit his sister, Mrs. Marjorie O'Neill. The three were vacationing.

State police were called to the scene of the accident shortly after 10 p. m. by "Bud" Wilson, Indian officer. Police said the car, operated by Tompkins, rounded a turn on the highway, straightened out for approximately 200 yards and then rode the shoulder for some 70 or 80 feet before it plunged down a 15-foot embankment. The car overturned once as it careened down the rocky slope. Both Tompkins and Lessard were thrown from the roadster.

Tompkins' death was caused by a badly crushed chest, according to County Coroner George H. Adler. He was admitted to Klamath Valley hospital at midnight and died at 2:05 a. m. Ward's ambulance brought both Tompkins and Lessard to the hospital.

Liquor in Car
 State police said liquor was involved in the accident and that two full quarts of whiskey were in the car. Hayes, who ended in the county jail, was in the rumble seat of the car and protected from injury as he huddled in the bottom of the car under a blanket. Hayes told police he had returned a few months ago from Midway island where he was employed on government defense projects. He suffered minor hurts including a shin bruise.

Tompkins was the son of Mrs. Rose Bartsch Kesterson of Grants Pass and Harry E. Tompkins of Seattle. He was in the grocery and feed store business with a brother, Chester E. Tompkins, who arrived in Klamath Falls early Wednesday morning to make arrangements for his brother's funeral. Ward's took charge of the body which was shipped to Grants Pass Wednesday. It is understood that Kenneth Tompkins was divorced the day prior to the fatal accident. He leaves an eight-year-old daughter.

"I Lost $7 in the Pacific-- Them Japs!" Moans Hero

PORT ANGELES, Wash., June 10 (AP)—Heroes of the crew of a merchant ship sunk by enemy submarine action Sunday were a couple of lads from the deep south.

Henry Jones, negro chef, "married about 10 times," who still was moaning today "I lost seven dollars and a half at the bottom of the Pacific, ——— them Japs!"

Edward (Willie) Williams, sign-nalman, Nashville, Tenn., who watched his ship sink 30 minutes after she was struck and then intoned solemnly "I'm going to turn over a new leaf. I'm never going to take another drink!"

In pronouncing them the heroes, Capt. Lyle G. Havens, San Carlos, Calif., and First Officer E. W. Nystrom, Oakland, Calif., told how the two boys unwittingly kept their fellow survivors laughing as they huddled in a lifeboat swept by rain and seas and so chilled that one of their number, Second Cook Stephen Chance, 56, negro, of no known address, died in the boat of exposure.

NAZIS ASSERT SEVASTOPOL'S DEFENSES CUT

French garrison in repulsing the attack.

British mobile columns were reported hacking steadily at Rommel's vital supply lines west of the main battle sector around Tobruk.

For the first time the British disclosed that United States-built Baltimore bombers (Glenn Martin 187's) have gone into action in the Libyan desert struggle, executing "daring daylight raids" on an axis airdrome at Barce.

"The bombing was particularly accurate and effective," a communique said.

As the battle swirled indecisively under a broiling sun, RAF bombers attacked the big Italian naval base at Taranto for the second successive night.

An Italian communique said known casualties totalled 20 killed, 75 injured, and acknowledged that "several fires flared."

On the English channel front, bad weather kept the RAF's city-destroying offensive against Germany grounded for the third night this month.

Meanwhile, authoritative reports from Vichy said two years of war since Dunkerque had convinced France's Chief of State Marshal Philippe Petain that the axis cannot win.

These reports said Vichy's Premier Pierre Laval and Admiral Jean Darlan, chief of Vichy armed forces, still hold the contrary view.

TWO ARRESTED AS RESULT OF BRAWL

William "Bill" Hoschler, 49, and James Thrasher, 53, occupants of a cabin in the rear of the Arcade hotel on Klamath avenue near Eleventh street, were seriously hurt in a brawl late Monday and city police have arrested Ivan Jackson, 18, Beaty, and Percy Ball, 19, Chiloquin.

Hoschler suffered a broken jaw and other hurts and was dismissed Wednesday from Klamath Valley hospital. Thrasher is in the city jail where he is being treated.

Officers said Jackson was in the county jail, held for juvenile authorities, and Ball was moved to the county jail Wednesday where a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon will be lodged against him. Police said both were involved in hotel room entries recently at which time property was destroyed.
