

City Briefs

To Coos Bay—The Rev. and Mrs. Harold Van Duker are leaving this week for the coast where they will take over the duties of the Empire Baptist church at Empire, Ore. They are accompanied by their two children, Billy and Elizabeth. Rev. Van Duker will serve the Empire church and Mrs. Van Duker will have charge of young people's work in Marshfield. The family will reside in Marshfield. Mrs. Van Duker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hurn of this city. She has been affiliated with the county library.

Going East—Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Schultz of Algoma will leave this weekend for Cleveland, Ohio, where they will attend the annual convention of Kiwanis International. Schultz is a member of the Klamath Falls club and will go as a delegate to the Cleveland confab. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wood of St. Francis park. After the convention, Mr. and Mrs. Schultz will visit New York and Washington, D. C.

Go North—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baxter, (Helen Hough), who were married Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church, are now making their home in Seattle where Baxter is employed with Boeing Aircraft as draftsman. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert B. Hough and Baxter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baxter, all of this city.

From Vallejo—Mrs. Clayton C. Morris has returned to her home, 2081 Eberlein avenue, from Vallejo, Calif., where she has been visiting for the past three weeks with her sister, Mrs. Roland Fleet. The two women spent much time at the bedside of Roland Fleet in an Oakland hospital. Fleet's condition is critical and little hope is held for her brother-in-law's recovery, Mrs. Morris stated.

Uninjured—Lieut. Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Johnson of 1879 Leroy street, and stationed at Elwood, Ill., was not injured in last week's ordnance plant blast there which claimed 59 lives, his mother said today. Lt. Johnson is with the U. S. engineers in the construction division.

Neighbors of Woodcraft—The Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a special meeting Thursday, June 11, at 8 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dryden, 610 North Eleventh street. The principal speaker will be Henry Massman of Portland, an official of the Woodcraft lodge.

In Portland—Irene Kroenert spent several days last week in Portland, returning Sunday evening. While in Portland she visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Holland, and on Saturday attended a meeting of the Business Schools' association of which she is a member.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandell of Lincoln street are on a vacation trip to Crescent City. Sandell is on a two weeks holiday from duties at the California Oregon Power company.

USO Contributions—Steadily adding to the honor roll of business firms which have contributed 100 per cent to the drive for funds for the USO, troop entertainment and navy relief, Chairman Dick Maguire announced that three more firms have gone over the top. They are: First Federal Savings and Loan Association; J. W. Kerns and Wilson Title and Abstract company.

Enlists—The local navy recruiting station reported Wednesday the enlistment of Alfred Ennis Barrell of Algoma in the United States naval reserves. Barrell has been employed for the past year at Algoma. His parents reside in Fowler, Colo.

In Hawaii—Athen E. Moore, son of Mrs. Alice Moore of this city, has arrived safely in the Hawaiian Islands. He is with the armed services.

Treatment—Charles Cummings, 1817 Portland street, son of K. G. Cummings of Washington street, is receiving treatment at Klamath Valley hospital.

Have YOU Joined the Army of the Thrifty?
The fun of unconsidered, spur-of-the-moment buying, is a luxury of the past for us Americans. We replace it, now, with the deep satisfaction of wise planning, careful buying. • We Americans don't buy anything we don't need. We buy nothing to hoard. We make everything last as long as possible. That is our part in the war effort. We must all join the Army of the Thrifty. • And we, the patriotic merchants, will help you buy wisely . . . to make every penny count.
