

Fishin's Fun

By WALTON IZAAK

This week threatens to be one of those things, so far as the "welcome mat" being out in fishing areas. The weather is working out just right and water conditions are a lot better.

Bear in mind the fact that with this high water condition the fish are being well fed by nature, so that you will have to work a little harder to select a choice tidbit for them to snap at.

The best bet in the book looks like close-to-home fishing. Rocky Point and Harrison ledge on the UPPER KLAMATH LAKE both look for plenty of excitement. During the week some of the big boys have been lured out of their beds. The most effective lures are jigger and Andy Recker wobblers. Some of the experimenters have used flashers and worms to a successful end.

The mouths of SEVEN-MILE and WOOD RIVERS should be hot trolling and bait spots with rivers themselves being a good guess. If you are considering fishing in this area the best place to start from is Neptune beach on the old Bend highway just beyond Williamson river. Boats are available here.

FISH LAKE fishing is on the upbeat and fish are sure in tune. Try your brass section for some slow trolling or, for sure-fire, an old-fashioned worm dunked in about 12 feet of water should bring unexpected results. Jiggle slightly and change bait often.

LITTLE DESCHUTES. Some limits on flies in almost all sections.

THE ROGUE RIVER and its tributaries in and around UNION CREEK are showing real signs of life and some good bug hatches are on the water. This should be welcome news for fly fishermen.

Grants Pass ROGUE RIVER area reports fishing very good.

EAST LAKE. Bait fishing best to date with some late fly fishing as second guess. The trollers are a poor third.

PAULINA LAKE. Trolling in the No. 1 spot with late fly fishing a very close second. Some of nice size are being taken.

ELK LAKE. Trolling and bait about a tossup. The road is now open and in good shape.

How about MILLER LAKE? Always good on bait and trolling. Well worth the trip. Should catch fish.

The country south and east of Klamath Falls will get a workout this weekend and fly fishermen will, I think, do best. On the forks of the SPRAGUE RIVER cluster eggs are best.

DIAMOND LAKE. So far this year a disappointment and, with less than one fish per fisherman as the average, is still on the hard-to-get list. Fishing is, moreover, falling off from there, according to reports. If you intend to fish here take the works so far as tackle. Use flat fish.

Another thought—this share-your-rubber idea looks like a good bet for all of you guys that want fishing and tires, too. You can ride with another guy this week, then take him along with you the next time out.

"TAKE A BOY FISHING."

Demaret, Ben Hogan Lead in 8th Inverness

By FRITZ HOWELL

TOLEDO, O., June 12 (AP)—Sixteen of the nation's hot-shot professionals aimed to lay down another birdie barrage today in the second round of the $7650 eighth annual Inverness best-ball matches, with 14 of the play-for-pay boys pursuing those torrid Texans, Jimmy Demaret and Ben Hogan, the 1941 winners.

The Lone Star state lads ripped six strokes off par yesterday, each getting three birdies, to win a four-up decision over Denny Shute and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison. That put the defending champions out front, but they meet the second place duo, Henry Picard and Sam Byrd, today.

Picard and Byrd scored a two-up decision over Herman Keiser and Chandler Harper, the Miami four-ball tourney winners, to get the runner-up spot.

The Chicago Cubs had Bill Lee and Claude Passeau, their veteran pitchers, on the block last winter and it is scarcely more than luck that this pair still wears those odd suits the Bruins use for baseball uniforms.

Yet today Passeau and Lee between them have accounted for 17 of the Cubs' 25 victories in the National League and one wonders where the sixth place Chicago Cubs would be if either or both of these big righthanders had been traded.

Lee won his 8th game Wednesday and Passeau followed with his ninth yesterday in the shape of a five-hit 7-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

The only other National League encounter scheduled was between the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals and for the third day in a row weather kept these feudists idle.

The Boston Red Sox completed a sweep of their three-game series with the St. Louis Browns by winning 8-7 on a ninth-inning run which Jim Tabor singled home. Each team used three pitchers and St. Louis made 13 hits, two more than Boston and including homers by George McQuinn, Frank Hayes and Tony Criscola.

Cleveland also completed a sweep of its series at Washington by rallying for four runs in the ninth inning to beat the Senators 6-6.

Alice Marble Says Firmer Grip Is Needed on Backhand Drive

By ALICE MARBLE and ELEANOR TENNANT

Use the Continental grip for the backhand drive. Court position and backswing take place when the ball leaves your opponent's racket.

Hold the racket a little firmer than for the forehand drive. Keep it above the hand in your backswing with arm hugging the chest. Place your body sideways to the net at a 90-degree angle.

Alice Marble illustrates factors of backhand, left to right: Racket above hand; hitting up on ball; racket well open at impact; racket above hand at finish.

The San Francisco Seals pulled to within a percentage point of fourth place Seattle last night when they defeated the Rainiers, 3-2, in a Pacific Coast league baseball game at San Francisco.

The win left the Seals in a tie with the Rainiers for the upper division spot on the basis of games behind the leading club.

All of San Francisco's scores were unearned as Dick Barrett, trying for the second time for his thirteenth victory of the season, blew up to walk the Seals for a tally in the third and then overthrew third base in the fourth to allow two additional scores.

Stan Corbett, young Oak twirler, worked a five-hitter and his teammates collected nine timely bingles off Frankie Dasso, Padre speedball hurler.

Customers at Sacramento saw Eddie Lake, Solon shortstop, double to score two runners in the seventh to break a tie and win the see-sawing game from the Angels.

Cromwell Sees Trojan Win As NCAA Tourney Opens

LINCOLN, Neb., June 12 (AP)—Coach Dean Cromwell of Southern California is confident of an eighth straight NCAA track championship in the annual meet opening at 4:30 p. m. (PWT) tonight, yet is respectful of his team's opposition.

"You've got to be a champion to finish last in this meet," he commented as his squad of 17 took the field for a workout. He said Leroy Weed, co-captain of the Troy squad, could give Les MacMitchell, NYU, "all he wants" in the mile.

"But," said Cromwell, "I'm downright sorry that Les got beat last week, for he is liable to come out here plenty mad and make it tough on everybody."

Summing up his squad's chances, Cromwell commented "We just happen to have the boys." The squad is the largest entered by any school.

Eagerly awaited are the times of Hal Davis, California, and Barney Ewell, Penn State, in the 100, which fans figure to be the outstanding race, with the mile, in the finals. Ewell is defending champion, having won the last two years, and Davis had a time of 9.4, equalling the world mark, on the west coast.

NET RESULTS

By Alice Marble and Eleanor Tennant

Look at the ball over the right shoulder. Step with the right foot toward the left side of the court and slightly toward the net. When you hit the ball, the weight is on the right foot. The left heel comes up slightly after the moment of impact.

There is a little body rotation. Keep the ball about three feet from the body to allow for reach, as in the forehand.

On the backhand drive, hit up to allow for a three-foot net clearance.

Racket should be well above the net when completing the stroke.

Sunday, June 14—Grants Pass at Klamath Falls; Dorris at Medford. (Both doubleheaders).

Rankings in the Oregon-California baseball loop are expected to present a very much different picture following this weekend's contests which will match the Klamath Falls Pelicans against the winless Grants Pass Merchants here while the Dorris Lumberjacks will make their first trip to the valley to engage the Medford Craters.

The Merchants, lacking both batting punch and effective pitching, have suffered three shutouts in losing all six of their league tilts to date. Manager Ernie Bishop's Pelicans may, however, encounter considerable difficulty in the first game of the season last week against the Craters, losing one game by a 5-4 margin.

Sunday's contests at Recreation field, dedicated to the farewell appearance, temporarily at least, of Co-manager Paul Bernadou, probably will draw a large audience from pre-game reports. The doubleheader, scheduled to get underway at 1:30 p. m., will see Bernadou at one of the outfield posts. He is to leave for active duty in the United States navy Sunday night.

Batting averages of the Pelican baseballers covering the six league games reveal that First Baseman Paul Crapo, cleanup hitter in the Klamath lineup, is out in front among the regulars with a .387 mark as a result of eight safe blows in 22 tries. Close behind are Ernie Bishop with a .333 average garnered by seven hits in 21 official trips to the plate and Hi Hatfield with seven bingles in 22 attempts for a .318 figure.

Two pitchers, Frank Van Driesche and Leo Soran, actually top the list of locals in the offensive department with averages of .500 and .429, respectively, but neither can be classed in the lead because of so few times at bat.

Pelican batting for six league games follow:

	AB	R	H	AVG.
Van Driesche	4	0	4	.400
Soran	7	2	4	.571
Crapo	27	7	8	.296
Bishop	21	7	7	.333

College Links Tourney Draws Huge Entry

EVANSTON, Ill., June 12 (AP)—The trains still are running, the automobile tires still are holding out, so the golfers are coming from all over the country for the national collegiate meet, June 22-27, at Chain o' Lakes course at South Bend, Ind.

That was the picture gleaned from the entry list today by Ted Payseur, Northwestern university's golf coach and secretary of the NCAA golf committee, who saw in a bulging file justification of the collegians' insistence on going ahead with their 1942 tournament despite wartime conditions.

Stanford, defending team champion, will head western schools along with the University of Washington and Southern California. Louisiana State, whose Earl Stewart is defending individual titleholder, will send a team from the south as will Texas and Duke. The Duke squad is captained by Grover Poole, southern intercollegiate champion.

McDonald, Corral Billed On Next Grapple Card

Unpretty Peter Belcastro, Tuesday's wild winner over Boston Joe Corbett, will share top billing on next week's armory grapple card with big Chief Thunderbird, Promoter Mack Lillard said today.

To fans hoping for another chance to hiss Wisconsin Cliff Olsen, the bad boy who made a smash hit in this week's opening bout, Lillard said he regretted the Swede was not available. He said, however, that he hoped to have him back in the near future.

Sockeye Jack McDonald, Tuesday winner over Thunderbird, will tackle Alberto Corral, popular Mexican rasser in the semi-windup on the coming card. Corral grappled here several weeks ago.

Prince Iaki Mihalakis, the Arabian organist billed here the last time as Nihalakis, will return to meet an unnamed opponent in the opener, Lillard said.

Blind Splint Stables Alsab For Month

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—Those roses that Alsab missed in the Kentucky derby would be highly appreciated today by Mrs. Albert Sabath's wonder colt, who will be confined to quarters for at least a month with the first serious ailment of his colorful and profitable career.

A blind splint, that bony growth on the side of the splint bone discernible only by x-ray, was discovered yesterday on one of Alsab's forelegs, making Shut Out's principal rival strictly a shut in.

Trainer Sarge Swenke said Alsab carried the injury into the Belmont stakes last Saturday when he wound up a well-beaten second to Shut Out, Mrs. Payne Whitney's chocolate charger who also topped him in the derby.

Navy May Grab Jim Lawson

New Stanford Coach May Be Replaced by Schwartz

PALO ALTO, Calif., June 12 (AP)—Jim Lawson, who succeeded Clark Shaughnessy as head football coach at Stanford university three months ago, is expected to be called into the navy.

He called members of the Trojan football squad together yesterday and announced he had applied for a commission in the navy under Lieut. Comdr. Tom Hamilton's pre-flight training program.

St. Mary's college, one of four schools taken over by the navy for the program to condition prospective flying cadets, opened its doors to the first training class yesterday and Lawson indicated he would like one of the jobs at the Moraga school.

The former All-American and from Stanford said that the training class for which he had applied begins work next Monday at the Annapolis naval academy and that he expected traveling orders before the weekend.

Marchie Schwartz and Harry Shipkey remain on the Stanford coaching staff, and Schwartz was considered a likely successor for the head coaching job.

Iron Shot in Wind Cruickshank's Best

By BOBBY CRUIKSHANK

The Wee Scot

Best shot I ever made was my second on the last hole of the 1923 National Open at Inwood, L. I. The shot was made with a No. 2 iron.

There was a fresh breeze blowing from left to right and immediately in front of the green was an 18-foot water hazard. I needed a three to tie and had a 185-yard shot left.

The ball sailed to the left of the pin where the wind drifted it seven feet from the cup.

I holed the putt, lost to Bobby Jones in the playoff.

The shot was made with the ball more toward my right foot, slightly open stance. I kept my head down, weight forward and was perfectly balanced.

I was slow at the top of the backswing to assure perfect timing and full use of the hands.

Bobby Cruickshank... strong with an iron.

Extension Course Enrollment Up 10 Percent, Report Shows

EUGENE, Ore., June 12 (Special)—The general extension division of the state system of higher education has enrolled 11,000 students in classes offered by the division during the past two years, it is revealed in the biennial report of Dean V. V. Caldwell which has just been received by Frederick M. Hunter, chancellor of the system.

Although the registration at the Portland center has decreased since the outbreak of the war, this figure represents an increase of 10 per cent in enrollment. Registration in the correspondence and statewide classes has increased, making the total enrollment greater than in any previous year.

Extension classes are now given in 19 centers in the state, which includes one at Klamath Falls, an increase of five over the previous biennium. In the 400 classes offered in the Port-
