

Vows Exchanged in Church Ceremony

Ruth Helen Hough Becomes Bride of Thomas Baxter Before Friends and Relatives Sunday

Ruth Helen Hough, daughter of Mrs. Robert B. Hough and the late Mr. Hough, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Baxter in a four o'clock ceremony read Sunday afternoon, June the seventh, in the First Methodist church. The Rev. Victor Phillips performed the service in the presence of friends and relatives of the young couple.

Just before the ceremony Miss Patricia Brown sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Fred Cofer who also played the traditional wedding march of Lohengrin, and Mendelssohn's recessional. The candles were lighted by the three ushers, Mr. Burke Yason, Mr. William King and Mrs. Leonard Harvey.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink snapdragons, carnations and white calla lilies with baskets of spring flowers flanked on either side by ferns.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Joe Kennedy. She was lovely in a gown of white lace and net with a snug fitting lace bodice, full skirt and long, pointed sleeves. Her long white net veil was caught at the head by a tiara of lilies of the valley. The bride's flowers were pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley from which fell white satin ribbons.

The maid of honor was Miss Janet Baxter of Baker. She wore a frock of pink net fashioned with brief puffed sleeves and a full, floor length skirt. Miss Janice Barnstable and Miss Dorothy Baxter, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Miss Barnstable wore buttercup yellow net and Miss Baxter wore delphinium blue. Their frocks were fashioned after that of the maid of honor. The three attendants wore wreaths of flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of pink roses and sweet peas.

Mr. Robert Edwards was the best man.

Following the ceremony the young couple greeted their friends at a reception given in the church. The bride and groom cut a three tier cake which centered the refreshment table. The cake was served by Mrs. C. A. Foole and Mrs. Lela Laurenson. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Ben C. Clarke, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps. Miss Beverly Barr and Miss Dorothy Laurenson assisted about the rooms. Miss Laurenson played several marimba selections during the reception.

Receiving with the bride and groom were their mothers. Mrs. Hough wore a rose lace afternoon frock with white accessories and Mrs. Baxter chose Venetian blue crepe for her son's wedding. Both wore corsages of roses and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the reception the young couple left for Seattle where they will reside. For traveling the bride wore a dusty pink linen suit with white slippers and accessories.

Mr. Baxter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baxter of California avenue, is with the Boeing Aircraft in Seattle as draftsman. Both young people are well known in Klamath Falls.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. A. D. Garber of Milton, the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Thomas J. Cuddy, Dunsmuir, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Huffman and family of Grants Pass.

MRS. SPANGLER HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. A. E. Kehoe and Mrs. Jerry Ricker entertained this past week at the Kehoe home in Modoc Point for Mrs. William Spangler who will leave soon with Mr. Spangler to make their home in Klamath Falls. They have purchased the Don Hamlin home on Del Moro street.

Rooms of the Kehoe home were attractive with many spring flowers. Luncheon was served at small tables centered with bowls of lilies and tulips. In cards honors went to Mrs. Mac Carson and Mrs. Merton Knauss. The guests presented Mrs. Spangler with a gift for her new home.

Guests included Mrs. Spangler, Mrs. Bert Bickers, Mrs. Fred Grant, Mrs. Paul Sather, Mrs. Samuel Rife, Mrs. Mac Carson, Mrs. William Helm, Mrs. Jake Kaubbe, Mrs. William Hartman, Mrs. Everitt Hill, Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm, Mrs. Cal Nelson, Mrs. Axel Jacobson, Mrs. Merton Knauss and the hostesses.

Commandos Organized

Klamath Girls to Serve At Civic Functions For Duration

Entertainment of troops, responding to civic activities and a dozen other orders will probably be received for the duration by a group of young Klamath Falls girls who organized this past week under the name of Commandos. They have asked Mr. Chet Smith to be their supervisor.

First official function at which the Commandos will appear as a group is the dance planned for next week at Tulelake for the soldiers stationed at Newell, California.

Named captain of the Commandos is Margene Thomas and Evelyn Nelson serves as business manager and secretary. Uniforms will include navy blue skirts, white sports blouses, navy blue anklets and white shoes with white over-seas caps. On the blouses will be printed the name, "Commando."

Those who will take part in the organization are Bondell Aubrey, Phyllis Aubrey, Beverly Barr, Gail Clapp, Frances Foster, Helen Hanks, Bernie Heidemann, LaVonne Hodge, Jessie Johnson, Isabelle Jones, Elenora Karspeck, Edna Kavanaugh, Ann Kulm, Joyce Leech, Mary Jane Metler, Evelyn Nelson, Marcell Newman, Betty Pankey, Betty Ann Prudhomme, Peggy Rakestraw, Barbara Sellars, Mabel Soderstrom, Betty Sparks, Dorothy Teed, Lois Bethune, Luella Tucker, Margene Thomas and Mary Trulove.

INFORMAL PARTIES AT RUGH HOME

Mrs. Charles V. Rugh has presided over a series of parties, two of which were given this past week at her home on Washington street. On Tuesday she asked a small group in for tea for the pleasure of Mrs. Charles G. Hovey who left this week for the University of Oregon at Eugene to study for the next five weeks.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Rugh asked a group in for one o'clock luncheon followed by bridge.

Mrs. Harry Bathany entertained for members of her bridge club on Tuesday evening of this week at her home in the Marion. High score in went to Mrs. Ted Shoop who will entertain the group in a fortnight.

BETROTHAL TOLD

The engagement of Julia Tomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tomlinson of Rogers street, to Mr. James R. Shick of Forest Grove, Oregon, was made known this week.

APPEARING IN RECITAL

Mrs. A. J. Vove presented her students of voice in a recital Friday evening in the First Presbyterian church. Standing, left to right, Mrs. Rollin Cantrall, Miss Dorothy Currier, and Mrs. Muriel Garich. Seated, Miss Marianne Lion, Miss Jo Hallett, Miss Patricia Brown and Miss Joyce Dollarhide. —Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

Lutheran Church Is Scene of Wedding

Catherine Mayhew Becomes Bride of Hjalmar Johnson in Evening Ceremony

The altar of the Klamath Lutheran church was banked with white tulips, white iris and lighted by tall white candles for the wedding of Miss Catherine Genevieve Mayhew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Mayhew, when she became the bride of Mr. Hjalmar Johnson in a seven o'clock ceremony read by the Rev. L. K. Johnson on Thursday evening, June the fourth.

The church was also decorated with laurel blossoms, iris and lilacs and more than forty guests attended the ceremony.

Just before the service Mrs. L. K. Johnson sang, "I Love You Truly," and she also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white satin fashioned with a close fitting bodice, sweetheart neckline, the sleeves slightly puffed at the shoulder and at points at the wrist. The full skirt ended in a train. Her white illusion net veil was held by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a sheaf of white calla lilies.

Miss Joyce Leech, the bride's attendant, wore a floor length frock of white net with a band of blue flowers on the bodice and the hem of the skirt. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of spring flowers.

Little Barbara Solie was an attractive flower girl. She wore a full length frock of white dotted swiss with a blue sash and blue ribbon in her hair. She carried a basket of petals.

Mr. William Lowther was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Mayhew home, 1112 Fulton street. The bride and groom cut their white wedding cake which was later served by Mrs. Jay Mayhew and Mrs. William Mayhew Jr. Assisting at the coffee urn was Mrs. Phillip Hoffer of Roseville, California, aunt of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson spent a week at Diamond lake and have returned to Klamath Falls to make their home.

LUNCHEON AT KANDRA HOME ON SUNDAY

A group of the younger set enjoyed a buffet luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ivan Kandra, (Norma Garland), in Merrill last Sunday.

Three bicycled to the Kandra home, Miss Swea Swanson, Miss Jeanette Fitzpatrick, and Miss Barbara Bell. Miss Stella Bowne and Miss Kay Dunbar motored to Merrill for the afternoon.

GARDEN GROUP INVITED TO ENJOY IRIS

Mrs. Warren C. Hunt has invited members of the garden group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club to enjoy her iris now blooming in perfection at her home, 647 Pacific Terrace.

Garden clubbers are asked for Thursday afternoon, June the eighteenth, from three to five o'clock. Punch will be served at that time.

Miss Dunbar Drives South

Klamath Girl to Wed At Jacksonville Chapel Soon

For the pleasure of Miss Kay Dunbar, who left Thursday by motor for Jacksonville, Florida where she will become the bride of William John Borchert, CSP, United States navy, Mrs. Charles L. Moore of Carroll street entertained with a family luncheon on Wednesday at one o'clock.

The table was centered with a map of Florida, ocean sand and palms. Covers were placed for Miss Dunbar, Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger, Mrs. Charles S. Moore, Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. Alvin E. Macartney, Mrs. Ernest Moser, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Miss Helen Moore and the hostess.

Miss Dunbar and Mr. Borchert, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Borchert of North Bend, Oregon, will be married this month at the navy chapel in Jacksonville. Until her wedding day the bride-elect will be the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. John Womach of Jacksonville, close friends of Mr. Borchert.

PLAYERS CONTINUE REAMES GOLF

Players at Reames Golf and Country club continued their matches for the Weathery tournament cup, and following Friday morning's play the following women were matched. In the first flight, Mrs. W. J. Grove and Mrs. Martin Swanson with Mrs. T. Frederick Farley and Mrs. W. O. Smith, will play. In the second flight, Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm and Mrs. Marvin Nerse are teamed.

At luncheon a number of visitors were guests including Miss Bonnie Hauger, Miss Marcella McCullom, Miss Rose Macartney, Miss Winifred Lamm, Miss Edith and Ella Fisher of Santa Barbara, Mrs. N. J. Mullin of Albion, Nebraska.

North and south winners in bridge last week were Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., and Mrs. Oscar Shive. East and west, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm and Mrs. Charles I. Roberts.

Four tables of bridge were in play this week.

VISITORS AT BLACK HOME HERE

Dr. and Mrs. Nell Francis Black have had as their weekend guests Mrs. Black's brother, Captain Charles E. Hansen Jr., and his guests, Lieutenant Clarence C. West of Los Angeles and Lieutenant Kenneth Walker of New York City. The three arrived late Thursday night on a two-day leave from duties at Hamilton Field, California.

Captain Hansen, who is also visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles E. Hansen of Eugene, who is spending the summer at the Black home, and Lieutenant West and Lieutenant Walker are with the foreign wing headquarters of the air force ferry command.

Guests at the Lamm home are Mrs. Lamm's nieces, Miss Edith Fisher and Miss Ella Fisher of Santa Barbara. They will spend the early part of the summer here. Both girls are students at Stanford.

RETURNS HOME FROM STANFORD

Miss Winifred Lamm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm, has returned to her home at Modoc Point to spend the summer months. She is a student at Stanford university at Palo Alto.

Guests at the Lamm home are Mrs. Lamm's nieces, Miss Edith Fisher and Miss Ella Fisher of Santa Barbara. They will spend the early part of the summer here. Both girls are students at Stanford.

THREE TO ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, vice president of the Siskiyou district, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, president of the Klamath Falls Garden club, and Mrs. A. G. Proctor, state chairman of slides, will leave Monday, June the fifteenth, for Salem to attend the two-day state convention of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs.

The three will be at the pre-convention board meeting Monday night in Salem. The convention is slated for Tuesday and Wednesday. They will be guests at the Marion hotel.

Mrs. H. M. Shapleigh and two daughters, Della and Nancy, have joined Mr. Shapleigh in Klamath Falls and are now making their home at 855 Eldorado street. Mr. Shapleigh is the new superintendent of the Great Northern. Della is twelve years old and Nancy just eight. They will attend Roosevelt school.

Miss Stella Bowne has returned home from Mills college where she has attended school this past year. Mrs. Stella Bowne drove south and accompanied her daughter home.

Weddings Take Place in South

Ensign Carl Van Emon and Walter Van Emon Wed Eastern Girls in Virginia City

The marriages of Ensign Carl A. Van Emon and Mr. Walter C. Van Emon, sons of Mrs. W. C. Van Emon of this city, were announced recently by the mother of the two young men both of whom took as their brides attractive eastern girls. Both ceremonies were read in Alexandria, Virginia.

Miss Antoinette C. Bonthron became the bride of Ensign Carl A. Van Emon, in a ceremony read early this spring in Alexandria. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bonthron of Hampstead, Long Island and she attended William and Mary college, Virginia, and also New York university. Her father is international manager of Westinghouse company.

Ensign Van Emon was graduated from the United States naval academy at Annapolis, on December 10, 1941, and later received his diploma from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the naval research laboratory, Anacostia station, Washington, D. C. He took a special course in radio engineering and is now on the USS Idaho.

Mrs. Van Emon joined her husband on the west coast and when he reported for duty returned to Washington where she will spend some time and at Hampstead with her parents.

Miss Anne Callahan, daughter of Mrs. William H. Callahan and the late Dr. Callahan, became the bride of Mr. Walter C. Van Emon in a ceremony performed at the historic Emmanuel Episcopal church in Alexandria on May the twenty ninth.

The bride wore a smoky blue costume suit with a white satin blouse and white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids. Just before the ceremony Mr. Clarke Paulsen sang, "O Perfect Love." The Rev. Edgar E. Tate, rector of Emmanuel church, read the Episcopal ceremony.

The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Miss Esther Claine of Ridgeway, New Jersey. She wore a dusty rose afternoon frock of fern print with white accessories. The best man was Mr. George Stephenson, formerly of Klamath Falls and son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Stephenson of this city and now with the British embassy in Washington, D. C. He resides in Alexandria.

Mrs. Van Emon visited in Klamath Falls two years ago when she made many friends. At the wedding reception held following the ceremony, she asked Miss Jacqueline Stallings of this city and now in the navy department in Washington, to assist about the rooms.

Mr. Van Emon has enlisted in the United States army air corps. He attended Klamath Union high school, the University of Oregon and George Washington University in Washington, D. C. For the past several years he has been working for the United States government in Washington.

LOS ANGELES GIRL BRIDE OF GRANVEL COLVIN

A wedding of interest to the younger group here is that of Miss Vivian Sweet of Los Angeles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sweet of that city, and Mr. Granvel Colvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colvin Sr., of Riverside street.

The marriage took place in Yuma, Arizona, this past week. The bride and groom spent a brief honeymoon at the Biltmore in Los Angeles and Mrs. Colvin left for duty with the United States navy nursing corps at Milwaukee, and Mr. Colvin returned to duty with the navy air corps. He will complete his instructor's training on June 25 with rank of electrician's mate. Both were at San Diego.

ROZENDAL BOYS

Robert Rozendal, who observed his birthday anniversary last week, is proud of his younger brother, Paul. They are sons of Dr. and Mrs. Peter H. Rozendal, Crescent avenue.

—Kennell-Ellis.

FILMS
Developed and Printed
25c
Any 8 or 8 exposure roll.
Reprints 3c each.
In at 10:30 — Out at 8:00
BUD'S PHOTO SERVICE
Postoffice Box 821
1031 Main St.