FOUND HIS MAN

Like Hunting Needle In Haystack

Some years ago a businessman went to Chicago to hunt for the needle in the haystack. So it seemed to him as he set out. He sought to locate a certain man. This man must be a leading figure in the business world and also of the inner circle of Christ's followers. Such a one, when found, was to look into the merits of a Bible plan that would be for the glory of God. If it seemed good to him, he was to take it to a certain key-official in New York City and urge its adoption nationally.

Daily before the searcher set out, he prayed as Christ directed: "Ask, and it shall be given unto you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." Matt. 7:7. So did the visitor seek out the local leaders and sketch what he had. At length and miraculously he was led to the right man. One who headed a nation-wide business; a leader in Christian affairs and who at the very time was in prayer over a letter on his desk. This letter was from the very official in New York City and it asked for a plan. That the visitor had.

So it was that when a strange voice over his phone, asked if the man of affairs would be interested in such and such an idea, the circle was completed. The visitor had found his man; the man had his outline and the New Yorker could have his answer. The Chicago man not only thought well of the plan but he also put thousands back of it to try it out and hold it up until the national bodies might take it over. This they did and for years now, it has yielded rich blessings at home and abroad.

Even as the visitor to Chicago that summer, had his part in God's eternal purposes, so—as one brought with the blood of Christ—you have your part also. To this end, you have a pad of blank checks given you and each signed with Christ's name. You are to fill in the need for that hour. Fill it in and Christ will see that it is honored, only so it is for the glory of God. For—"Whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son." John 14:13.

May it be your life business to plead before the throne for what will give glory to God. You are the connecting link. God wills it; the Holy Spirit lays it on your heart; you plead it; Christ does it and God is glorified. Press ahead, looking to Christ who SAVES-KEEPS-SATISFIES all the way all the day.
