

VFW Auxiliary Plans Convention

Veterans of Foreign Wars Women Busy Making Arrangements for Encampment

Pelican VFW's auxiliary of Klamath Falls will act as hostess for the annual encampment of the Oregon department of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary to be held in Klamath Falls June the twenty-fourth to twenty-seventh. A large attendance is anticipated as there will be two special cars out of Portland for delegates and guests.

Mrs. Emma Carter, state program chairman, and her committee composed of Mrs. Naomi Kurtz, Mrs. Edna Carahan, Mrs. Caroline Williams, and Mrs. Ella Mullins have been busy for several weeks making plans and final arrangements for the entertainment of the out-of-town guests. Mrs. Dagney Subject heads a committee in charge of the luncheon to be held at the Pelican grill. Mrs. Naomi Kurtz is in charge of two breakfasts to be held at the Elk hotel. Mrs. Gladys Lofdash heads the registration committee, and Mrs. Martha Barron will act as chairman of the hospitality committee.

Miss Pat Livingston, who heads the local ambulance corps, has volunteered to furnish courtesy cars driven by members of her group.

The VFW's auxiliary has had a very busy year as the present national emergency has added many new avenues through which their help has been needed and given. This year the rehabilitation committee alone reported the donation of $650 worth of clothes, food, household articles, medical and dental aid, given to needy veteran families of Klamath county. This group sponsors a Girl Scout troop for which they bought a United States flag, a troop banner, and all the merit badges earned by the girls. Several of the members are active as leaders of other Scout troops as well as the one they sponsor.

Pelican auxiliary of VFW members have put in over 1000 hours of Red Cross and defense work in the fields of home nursing, first aid, Red Cross sewing, soliciting for Red Cross, registering women in the drive for mobilization of women, and the ambulance corps. Veteran's hospitals have been sent a regular monthly donation of money as well as old silk hose, cigar boxes and cigarettes throughout the year.

An active legislative committee watches all bills before congress concerning veterans as well as promoting needed helpful legislation.

Committees in charge of the state encampment next week appreciate the fine public cooperation that they have received in making plans for what they hope will be a very successful and profitable gathering.

Birthday Luncheon Given At Tulelake

Clever Skit Enjoyed by Guild of Community, Presbyterian Church June the Twelfth

TULELAKE—"Memories" in song and pantomime, depicting the life of a mythical man from babyhood to old age, was delightfully characterized for guests at the third annual birthday luncheon of the Guild of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church on June twelfth. Places were marked for ninety members and friends at beautifully decorated tables in the annex of the church.

Promptly at one-thirty o'clock the guests were seated at tables decorated for each month of the year with center motifs ranging from the nippy scenes through the winter months to the lazy sunshine scenes of beach life in the summer. A profusion of hawthorne, iris and columbine made masses of color about the room, and gayly decorated birthday cakes also made a festive note on each table.
