

ROTARY CLUB HEARS BUSINESS PROGRAM

TULELAKE—"Regulated Business" and its consequent effect on merchandising, was the subject of an interesting discussion at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday, when Mr. Charlesworthy of the Retail Credit association, Klamath Falls, discussed the present credit regulations imposed on retailers by the government.

Retailers, he explained, found it difficult following the last war to wade through the morass of financial burdens imposed when the crash came and patrons were unable to meet obligations. The present restrictions are designed to prevent a repetition of the situation, he said. While such restrictions at first present problems, the result will justify the plan, it is believed.

Charlesworthy was introduced by P. C. Bergeman, program chairman.

Installation of officers and Rotary Ann night is planned for next Wednesday, festivities getting off to a good start with a 7:30 p. m. dinner in the annex of the Presbyterian Community church. George Fisher is chairman, with Charles K. Wiese and L. S. Dunlap as assistants. The committee promises a fine program. The Klamath Falls club is invited.

Guests for the day were Charles Garcelon, Rudy Jeschke, Major Underwood, Norman Boyer of Klamath Falls, Vince Court of Alturas, and Mr. DeMeer, US engineer at the Japanese reception center.

PERHAPS all this secrecy about what has transpired and IS TRANSPERING in the foggy waters of the North Pacific is necessary in order to keep vital information away from the enemy.

We outsiders are definitely NOT competent judges as to that, for in these days of swift communication the enemy can draw useful conclusions from scraps of information that to those of us on the outside seem utterly innocent.

But there IS a lot of nervousness about what is happening out at the tip of the Aleutians, and the public is not inclined to accept the view that it doesn't amount to much and can be handled whenever the weather clears up.

THIS whole subject of informing the public without at the same time informing the enemy is a difficult one, but it is also highly important.

Morale at home will RISE in proportion as the public believes what it is told (whether good or bad) and will FALL as the public fails to believe.

Father's Day Picnic Honors I. W. Goddard

KENO—A Father's day picnic in honor of I. W. Goddard was held last Sunday afternoon at the Goddard home. He was presented with a Bible as a gift from the Keno Gospel Center Sunday school.

The picnic was potluck, and was attended by Mrs. J. R. Griffith, Rev. Melvin R. Griffith, pastor of the Keno Gospel Center, and Miss Elsie Ann Griffith of Klamath Falls. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ivie and family of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. James Ballock and infant son, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scherer and children, Mrs. Earl Petty and sons, Miss Marjorie Huskinson, and the guest of honor, all of Keno. Lunch was served at 1:30 o'clock.

SPRAGUE SCHOOL GETS OVERHAULING

SPRAGUE RIVER—Pupils who return to the Sprague River grade and high school this fall will find a very different building from the one they left in the spring. The building will be repainted both inside and out. New blackboards have been installed in several rooms, and the desks will be sanded and revarnished. Janitor Andy Nelson is busy cleaning all of the old wax and seal off the floors preparatory to sanding, resealing, re-waxing and refinishing them.

A new fence has been built at the front of the school yard and a bicycle rack has been constructed. The winter supply of wood is now being hauled by Tommy Wilson of Beatty, and is expected to be all delivered by July 1. Superintendent Fred

Peterson announces that in all probability some coal will be delivered for the colder winter nights.

Due to the sanding of the gym floor and a new refinishing job, there will be no dances in the gym during the summer months.

FDR Suggested As Supreme Leader

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Designation of President Roosevelt as "supreme leader" of the United Nations' war effort was urged in the senate today to replace what Senator Ellender (D-La.) termed "the apparent apathy of British military leadership."

"We in America," he asserted, "are alarmed over the apparent apathy of the British military leadership and its inability thus far to defeat the axis. I believe most Americans and a large amount of the British people are nauseated and disgusted with the continuous

Lions Club Votes Aid to Blind, Boys in Service

SEASIDE, June 25 (AP)—Resolutions at the State Lions club convention last night earmarked surplus lodge funds for aid to the blind and to men now in the armed forces.
