Commissioned—Corp. Lester H. Fay, having successfully completed his three months' course at the air corps officer candidate school at Miami Beach, Fla., has received his commission as second lieutenant in the air corps of the United States army, according to word received here. His duties will be to direct vital administrative and supply operations of the rapidly expanding army air corps ground forces, thus relieving trained pilots for full time flying duty. The young man's father is Lester H. Fay, 621 North Ninth street, Klamath Falls.

President—Geneva Hitson of Klamath Falls, enrolled at the Girls' Resident Defense center at Eugene, has been elected president of the center, according to word received here from George Batterson, acting area director of the national youth administration for Oregon. The defense center has a youth government in which all the girls enrolled have a voice in making cooperative decisions about the discipline, social conduct, house duties and recreational activities. Miss Hitson is now employed at the Eugene vocational school in defense work as a tool room clerk.

Church School—Children attending St. Paul's Episcopal church school are advised that the hour has been changed to 11 o'clock Sunday mornings for the duration of the summer months. This will enable parents attending morning service at 11 o'clock to bring their children at the same hour. Church school will be held in the newly completed basement.

Leaving Soon—Mrs. Ren Hollister plans to leave soon for her home in Springfield, after spending several weeks in Klamath Falls with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Miller of Wantland avenue. Mrs. Hollister has many friends here, where she formerly resided and attended school.

Promoted—William D. Rush of Klamath Falls, former Klamath Union high school football star, has been promoted to private first class with the United States marines stationed at Pearl Harbor, according to word received from the Portland marine recruiting office.

Graduates—The naval training station graduated 565 "bluejackets" from specialty schools at San Diego on June 23. Among the honor students was Michael Jack Zupan Jr., 28, Klamath Falls.

In Alabama—Word has been received by Mrs. George Hixson from her brother, Pvt. Arnold L. Vogel, that he is now located at Camp Rucker in Alabama in the medical division. Vogel left Klamath Falls on June 8 for service with the armed forces.

To Portland—Mrs. Howard Jackson of Henley, and Mrs. E. V. Ayres and daughter, Vida, of Bonanza, motored to Portland Monday on business returning here Wednesday night.

From Medford—Mrs. L. F. Willis of 505 Klamath avenue, is enjoying a visit from her brother, L. M. Alford, city recorder of Medford.

Visit Here—Mrs. L. L. Deal, wife of Professor Deal of Armstrong college, accompanied by her daughter, Maryllyn, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Connor of the Spring Lake district. They accompanied Mary O'Connor to her home. Miss O'Connor was graduated recently from Armstrong's and is enjoying a vacation at home. Mrs. Deal has been the inspiration for several luncheons and was the honor guest at a dinner given last Sunday at the O'Connor home at which Mr. and Mrs. Lee McMullen and daughter, Frances Lee, were also invited guests.

Return North—Relatives of the late Axel Johnson returned to their home Friday after being called here to attend the funeral of the well known Klamath resident. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson, sons, returned to Portland and Hillsboro by motor. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson and daughter Bernice, left for Spokane. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Axel Johnson are sisters. Mrs. Ralph Homer, another sister, returned to her home in Seattle.

From Pittsburgh—Mr. and Mrs. Dean Houston and young son Milton, are visiting here from Pittsburgh, Calif., where Houston is manager of the Western Auto Supply company. They moved recently from Hollister. The Houstons are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Webb Kennett and Mr. and Mrs. Milton O'Neill. Mrs. Houston will remain here for a week and enjoy a stay at Lake o' the Woods, her husband planning to return this week to Pittsburgh.

Weekend Guest—Wayne Keesee of Medford is a weekend guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Rose Keesee, 324 South Ninth street. Keesee, who taught school here several years, has taught in the junior high school in Medford for 14 years. He has decided not to teach this year but his plans are indefinite.

Promoted—The United States army announced Thursday from Fort Lewis, Wash., the promotions of 10 men from the Pacific northwest, including Sergeant James H. Pierce of Klamath Falls to the post of staff sergeant.

From Portland—State Senator Dorothy McCullough Lee of Portland is among the visitors in Klamath Falls attending the 22nd encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary. Mrs. Lee drove from Portland by way of Medford and will return north this week.

NO HELP, PLEASE
DENVER, (AP)—Completely baffled is Col. Thomas N. Gimpeling.

He's received letters from six Illinois women who wanted to enlist in "the hard-riding, hard-fighting women's cavalry corps of the Denver recruiting station of the U. S. army."

He's never heard of that unit. Punctures seem so afraid of garages that they won't go within miles of them.
