

RED CROSS PUTS OUT SOS FOR GOOD KNITTERS

Urgency was the keynote of a call issued today by the Klamath county chapter of the American Red Cross to all experienced knitters of the area to help with an army request for wristlets, helmets, sweaters and mufflers which must be shipped August 15.

"That means," explained Mrs. W. W. McNealy who is knitting chairman of the county chapter, "that the Red Cross will have just 50 days to fashion 400 pounds of olive drab yarn into garments for our soldiers in colder climates, who even now are needing warmer clothing."

The wool, complete with directions, will be distributed to needle-wielders who must furnish their own needles upon request, from Red Cross headquarters at the armory.

NUTRITION COURSE WILL BE OFFERED

The Klamath county chapter of the American Red Cross has received numerous requests for nutrition classes and at a meeting Thursday of nutrition teachers and chairmen, it was decided to hold both afternoon and evening groups for interested persons.

Mrs. John McFee, assisted by Mrs. James W. Kerns Jr., will teach the afternoon class, with Mary Belle Beswick and Mrs. Bert C. Thomas in charge of the evening class. All women wishing to enroll are asked to call the Red Cross office and specify which class they wish to attend.

These calls must be in by July 10, as classes will start July 13. This is a 20-hour or 10-week course. Additional classes will be organized in September.

 The 38-ton ferry boat she was christening slipped away unchristened.

Try These Recipes for a Reputation as "Good Cook"

On the market now is one of the largest crops of mature onions ever produced. Now that they are plentiful, try them in soups, serve them with meat, mix them with other vegetables in all sorts of dishes.

Try appetizing onion soup made with meat broth. Chop 6 medium onions fine. Brown them lightly in 2 tablespoons fat. Add 1 pint boiling water and simmer the onions for about 20 minutes, or until they are tender. Add 1 quart meat broth. Thicken the soup with a mixture of 4 tablespoons flour mixed with 4 tablespoons cold water. Add salt and pepper, cook for a few minutes. Pour soup into bowls, put a slice of toasted bread on top, sprinkle with cheese, if you like. This makes 6 good servings.

SOUP IS GOOD MIXED WITH POTATOES
 For a quick onion and potato soup, use this method. Dice 3 tablespoons of onions, and 2 cups of potatoes. Add 1 quart of milk. Cook slowly until the potatoes and onions are tender. The starch from the potatoes will thicken the milk somewhat. Thicken more, if you like a soup with a little more body. Season to taste.

Some families like a salad of very thin onion slices, with or without cucumber slices, served with a little vinegar over them. If you want to take out some of the strong onion flavor beforehand, soak them for awhile in salt water. Add these "vinegar" onions to other salads for a little different taste.

Paprika Chicken (Serves 4 to 6)
 One fowl, flour, salt and pepper, 1 cup shortening or chicken fat, 1 clove garlic, 1 1/2 tablespoons paprika, 2 cups stock or water, 1 cup sweet or sour cream, 2 tablespoons flour.
 Singe, wash, and join fowl. Dredge lightly with flour, salt and pepper. Saute until golden brown in fat or shortening. Remove excess fat. Add stock (made from peeled chicken feet, the neck, giblets and wing tips), garlic and paprika. Simmer gently 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Make paste with cream and flour and add to chicken and stock. (Add water to make 2 cups). Heat just to boiling and serve garnished with fried bread cubes.

Cream of Carrot Soup
 1 1/2 cups sliced carrots, 1 slice onion, few sprigs parsley, 3 cups water, 1 tall can evaporated milk, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour, salt, pepper, mace.

Cook carrots with onion, parsley and water until they are tender. If left-over carrots are used, cook them for only a few minutes. Rub carrots through a sieve, add milk, heat almost to the boiling point, and thicken with flour which has been blended with butter. Season with salt, pepper, and a few grains of mace.
