PLENTY OF FUN PROMISED FOR JULY 4 PARADE

Over 50 floats, plenty of music, elephants, lions, airplanes, military units—they'll all be there July 4 in one of the biggest parades ever to march up Main street.

With only three days to go on Klamath's victory celebration, junior chamber of commerce members are shaping up final plans for the parade and announce that, with practically every organization represented, more entries are coming in every day.

"Anything that Klamath Falls sets out to do it does remarkably well," stated Dr. George H. Merryman Jr., chairman of the victory parade and vice president of the junior chamber of commerce. "The whole hearted support that all citizens and organizations have displayed in this all-out effort to show the community spirit in this Fourth of July victory parade is gratifying."

Victory parade will start promptly at 10 a. m. Saturday, July 4.

Charles Mack, junior chamber of commerce member and in charge of grange and 4-H club victory parade activities, stated Tuesday that granges and 4-H clubs have announced their intention of entering Klamath's Victory parade.

Hildebrand grange will enter two floats. The Pelican city garden club will also enter a float. Mack asked all organizations to get in touch with him at the courthouse or to contact Clifford Jenkins, 4-H club agent, located at the Postoffice building.

Mack stated: "This is to be an all-out victory parade, one that to be complete should include every organization that has played a part in the development of the Klamath basin. There is no more important and vital machine in this war effort than the American farmer. The call for freedom has been answered by the American farmer in his efforts to increase production, and Klamath's Victory parade will not be complete without the presentation of our organizations showing their all-out effort in this war of survival."

THE TOWN PUMP
BY Stan
YOUR STANDARD SERVICE MAN

Yessir---We want everything Except Rubbernecks!

Ten more days to get your rubber in; but don't wait another day; I know you've looked already, but search again for old tires, old tubes, hot water bottles, garden hose, rubber mats and floor coverings from your cars, bathing caps, rubber soled shoes and dozens of other things made of rubber. Bring them in to us, or to any other service station. Every penny of profit we make will go to the Red Cross, USO and the Army and Navy relief societies. Uncle Sam needs your rubber, and needs it badly. Make one last check of attics, basements, garages; do it before it's too late.

Don't Be a Headliner in Monday's Paper!

This weekend, unless I miss my guess, some of us Americans will celebrate our Independence by falling out of boats and arguing the right-of-way with trees.

But one way you can keep out of the headlines Monday morning is to roll in this week and have one of us Standard Service Men give your car a free safety check. Here's what we'd like to do for you:

1. Check your headlights, tail-lights and stoplights to see they're working right.
2. Clean all your windows and rear view mirror.
3. Fill your tires to the right war-time pressure, (with special attention to your spare), and give them a quick inspection for defects.
4. Clean out your ash tray, to make plenty of room for the matches that might go out the window and start forest fires.

Auxiliary officers to be installed will include Mrs. E. S. Robinson, president; Mrs. Myrtle C. Adams, vice president; Mrs. Boyd Sprague, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. M. E. Nicodemus and Mrs. Everett Vanderpool, directors.

STORES CLOSE JULY 4

TULELAKE — Local people are warned to remember that next Saturday, July 4, will be a holiday and that doors of every grocery, the bank and postoffice will be closed both Saturday and Sunday. Grocery store will remain open Friday night until 10 o'clock, July 3, for the convenience of customers, it was announced.

The whole world always has been a stage—but some people still don't know how to act.

SECRET BALLOT CAST FOR QUEEN OF CELEBRATION

At Monday night's meeting of the Junior chamber of commerce, members cast their final decision on the candidate who will become queen of Klamath's Victory celebration. Under the bright lights of the photographers' lamps, each candidate was photographed. After all candidates left, a secret ballot was taken. Ballots are to be turned over to two local business men Friday night, July 3. Mayor John Houston will crown the winning queen at the opening Victory dance at the armory.

Paul Lee of Merrill, face slightly flushed and with a fatherly grin on his countenance, tossed a box of cigars on the chamber's table and announced that the boys could call him "Pop" from now on. The proud father of a baby girl, Paul was the king of the evening.

Dr. Hugh Currin, president of the Junior chamber of commerce, announced his leaving for the armed forces, and Estie Affleck was elected new president. Dr. George H. Merryman Jr. announced his leaving also, and Robert O'Sullivan was nominated and elected to replace him as vice president. It was decided at the meeting to include in the weekly Jaycee letter words from some of its members who are in the armed forces, and each member in the armed forces will receive the weekly Junior chamber of commerce news letter.
