BATON ROUGE, La., July 3 (AP)—Louisiana's legislature sent to President Roosevelt today an appeal to relax consumer sugar rationing in the United States to make space in crowded warehouses for an expected bumper cane crop.

A resolution adopted by both house and senate and addressed to the president, Price Administrator Leon Henderson and other war officials said some provision must be made quickly for storing one of the largest crops in the 100-year history of the Louisiana sugar industry.

"All or practically all warehouse facilities are filled to capacity," the legislature declared.

Fragments of Jap Shell on Display Here

Fragments of a Japanese shell, which may have originated in a model T Ford, are on display in the window of the chamber of commerce.

These pieces of metal were picked up after a Japanese submarine shelled an area near Seaside, Ore. They were found in the ninth crater, adjoining the encampment of Battery A, 240th coast artillery (Klamath's own).

They were sent to W. D. Whitcomb by his son, W. D. Whitcomb Jr., a member of the battery. Young Whitcomb remarked that the metal was presumed to be steel, some copper and bronze, and probably consisted of parts of a Model T Ford, wrecked long ago and sent to Japan as scrap metal.

GUIDE PLANNED ON DEFERMENT FROM DRAFT

By FRANCIS LEMAY

WASHINGTON, July 3 (AP)—War manpower sources said today that rosters of essential civilian activities and "critical war occupations" would be published about July 15 to establish a definite guide for military deferment.

The United States employment service is preparing the lists in collaboration with the war production board, the war, navy and agriculture departments, and with other government agencies, as a part of the general program to keep men with critical skills at their work benches.

By direction of manpower Chairman Paul V. McNutt, copies of the lists will be sent to all local draft boards, and "to the extent required for the maintenance of essential activities, individuals who are engaged in essential occupations in essential activities" will be deferred from military service.

This does not mean, however, that every man of draft age working in one of the occupations listed will be automatically deferred, since the selective service act definitely prohibits "group" deferments.

Proof Necessary
Each man in such essential classification, or his employer, must establish to the local board that his skill or service is necessary to the war effort, according to the definitions of the manpower commission.

McNutt gave these definitions: "Essential war activities include the production, repair, transportation or maintenance of equipment, supplies, facilities or materials required in the prosecution of the war by the United States and by the other United Nations.

"An essential occupation means any occupation, craft, trade, skill or profession, required in an essential activity, in which an untrained individual is unable to attain reasonable proficiency within less than six months of training or experience.

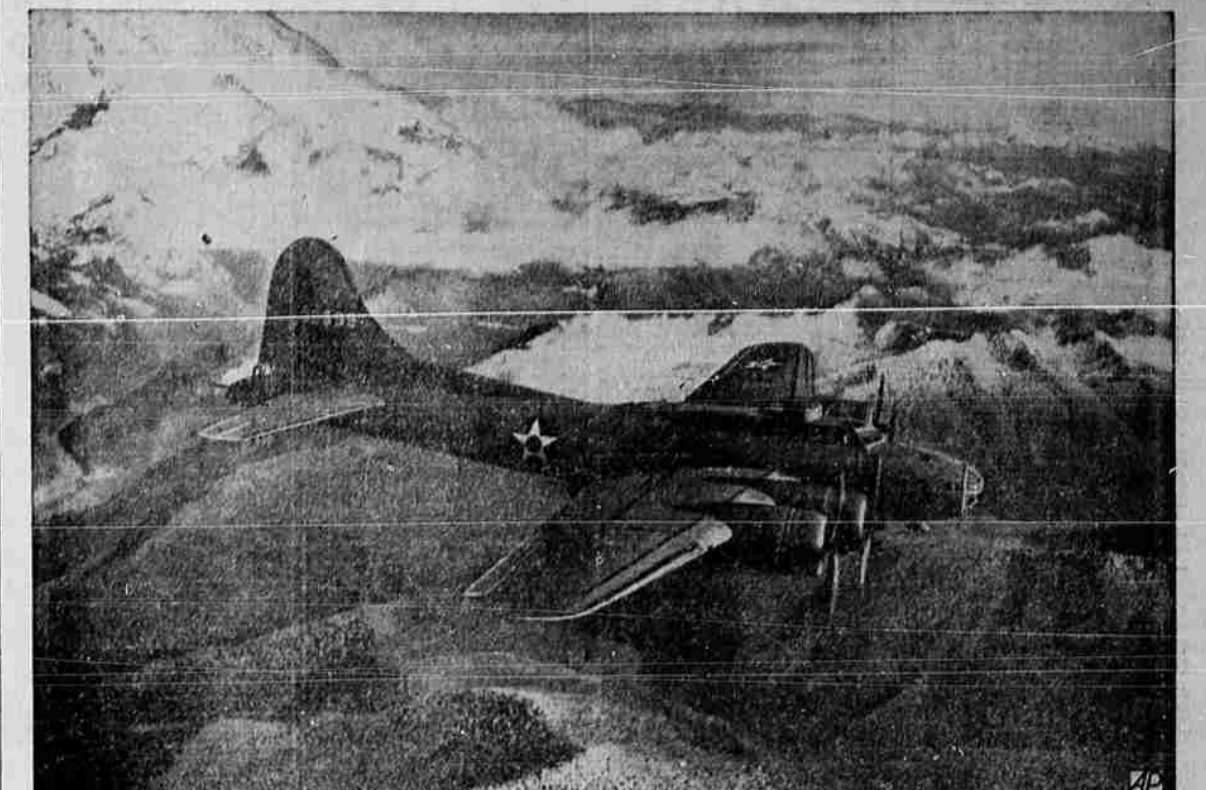

"A critical war occupation means an essential occupation, found by the United States employment service to be one with respect to which the number of individuals, available and qualified to perform services therein, is insufficient for existing or anticipated requirements for essential activities."

PORTLAND, Ore., July 3 (AP)—Portland's temperature continued to soar Wednesday as the mercury boomed to 105, and in its wake came five fatal heat prostrations.

FLYING FORTRESS, NEW MODEL—High above a rugged stretch of landscape speeds this Boeing B-17E, described by the war department as "bigger and more deadly" than previous "flying fortress" models. Several U. S. plants now make the planes.

Contestants Get General Rules for Buckaroo Days

A list of general rules has been provided by the Klamath Buckaroo Days committee and given to all contestants who will enter arena events for the two-day show Saturday and Sunday, July 4 and 5. Following are the rules.

Local event entries must be passed on by the judges for their amateur standing and must be a resident of Klamath, Lake, Modoc, or Siskiyou counties.

All rules are governed according to the Rodeo Association of America and will be closely followed so far as local conditions will permit.

All contestants entering this show will be required to ride in all parades, attend all meetings called by the committee in charge and to lend a hand in putting on a good, snappy show.

Contestants and participants assume all risks to person or stock while on the grounds, the management extending an invitation to the world, no one barred, everyone welcome, but only upon conditions stated.

The committee proposes to run for all participants in each day's events and each participant must be found there when called for his event. Numbered contestants only will be allowed. Numbers must appear on back of contestant.

When, in the opinion of the Arena Director, a sufficient number of contestants are present for an event no delay will be permitted because of the absence of other contestants.

Substitutes will not be permitted in any event or contest. The committee will select approved judges and their decision will be final.

Contestants or others will be ejected from the grounds and barred from all events for any one of the following offenses: Being under the influence of intoxicants, rowdiness, quarreling with the judges or officials, or for any other reason deemed sufficient by those in authority.

All contestants must wear cowboy or cowgirl costumes in any and all events.

Management reserves the right to make any change or additional rules as circumstances may demand in any event.

The management will, under no circumstances, tolerate cruel or inhuman treatment of stock by contestants or participants.

All entries in the local events under 21 years of age must have a written consent from their parents.

Turning our eyes to the future post-war world, we know that the walls of isolationism and narrow separation are gone.—Gov. Harold Stasser of Minnesota.
