

Navy Recruit Weds Klamath Falls Girl

Ronella Shipman and Nicholas Barry Jr., Married in Rites on June the Thirteenth

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipman of 3802 Biabee street, this week announced the marriage of their attractive daughter, Ronella Frances, to Nicholas L. Barry Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Barry of Lakeview.

The ceremony was read in the parsonage of the First Baptist church of Reno, Nevada, by the Rev. Brewster Adams, at eight o'clock the evening of Saturday, June thirteenth.

The bride wore a fluffy white blouse with a tailored skirt of beige. A single white orchid was pinned to her shoulder and accessories matched her suit.

Mrs. Shipman was her daughter's attendant and best man was the bride's brother, Frank Shipman Jr. Following a honeymoon spent at Lake Tahoe, the young couple returned to Klamath Falls. The groom has returned to duty with the United States navy air corps where he is training for the post of bombardier. Mrs. Barry is making her home with her parents for the duration.

The bride was one of the most attractive of the 1942 graduates of Klamath Union high school where she won the Daughters of the American Revolution homemaking award.

Mr. Barry is the son of well known Warner Valley ranchers, was graduated from Lakeview high school where he captained the football team, was president of the student body and later attended Oregon State college where he was a member of the freshman football team and pledged Alpha Delta Rho fraternity. He was among the young "Avengers" to go out of Klamath Falls on June twenty-sixth with United States navy recruits.
