

City Briefs

Fire Alarms—The city fire department was busy over the weekend after several days of comparative quiet. Sunday at 7:45 p. m. the trucks thundered down Main street to the Klamath Billiards, 630 Main street, where fire in grease around the range had caused some excitement. There was no damage. At 12:35 a. m. Friday, a cigarette thrown on the awning above Murphy's barber shop, caused some damage to the shade. A careless cigarette smoker also brought the fire department to the Cozy hotel at 5:13 a. m. Friday. A mattress was partially destroyed. Firemen received a call from the 2500 block, Pershing way, but did not respond as the call was out of the city limits.

To School—Ceell Fox, son of Mrs. Nora Fox of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company office, spent the weekend here with his mother from Fort Stevens, Ore. Young Fox, who served as a corporal with the coast guard artillery, was advised recently of his promotion to the rank of sergeant. Immediately after that he received information that he had been accepted for officers' training school at Fort Monmouth, N. J., and will leave Tuesday morning for the east coast. Fox is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and has appeared on numerous musical programs here as a vocalist.

To Goldendale—Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor and young son, Robert, plan to leave by motor Wednesday for Goldendale, Wash., where they will spend a part of the summer with Mrs. Van Vactor's mother, Mrs. H. O. Allyn. Captain Van Vactor was to have left by plane from San Francisco for Seattle on Sunday, and hoped to be stationed in the northern city for one month with the US army air corps. Mrs. Van Vactor will join her husband there for a brief stay. The Van Vactor home on Pine street has been rented for the summer to the Z. S. Robinsons.

Alcorn Visits—Sergeant M. D. Alcorn of Will Rogers field, Okla., is in Klamath county on furlough, visiting his mother, Mrs. Helen Hoffman of Bly, and other relatives. Saturday he was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Alvin Phillips, on Eberlein street, and Sunday at the home of his uncle, Malcolm Epley, on North Seventh street. He will return this week to Will Rogers field.

Improving—Furman Crain, 32-year-old Beatty buckaroo, was reported resting easily at Klamath Valley hospital where he is being treated for a compound fracture of the leg received when he was thrown from a horse during the bucking contests Saturday at Klamath Buckaroo Days. Others injured at the show received first aid hospitalization.

Visitor—Jackie Lemire, 12 years old, is spending the summer vacation here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lemire, son of Capt. and Mrs. Ronald J. Lemire, made the trip from Duluth, Minn., on the train by himself.

Improving—Naomi Clement, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clement of Summers lane, is now able to be up after spending the past 11 months in bed. Naomi has suffered from a heart ailment. She is a student of Klamath Union high school.

In Islands—Howard Graham of this city Saturday cabled Mrs. Graham of his safe arrival in Honolulu, where he will be located at the Old Kam school. Graham will serve as operating engineer for the Pacific Bridge Building company of San Francisco.

To Cottage Grove—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pieser and children, Dickie and Judy, spent the double holiday visiting at the home of Pieser's sister, Mrs. John Kabelbeck at Cottage Grove. Dickie remained there for a longer visit.

Honorable Mention—Through an oversight, Saturday's story of the winning parade entries failed to list the Robinson Delivery service float as having received honorable mention. Their bantam truck had been transformed into a stream-lined airplane.

Furlough Ends—Harry Lemire, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lemire, returned Monday to duty at Fort Stevens, Ore., after spending a 10-day furlough here.

Plans Trip—Dr. and Mrs. Peter H. Rozendal and two sons, plan to leave on a motor trip next Friday morning which will take them to Sacramento, where they will visit friends and relatives. They will be joined by Mrs. Rozendal's aunt, Mrs. Harry Schroeder of this city, who has visited a nephew, Charles Patge. Mrs. Schroeder will return north with the Rozendals next week.

Fraley Here—Orrin Fraley, former manager of Consolidated Freightways here, was in Klamath Falls Monday to attend a trial in circuit court of a damage case involving the trucking company. Fraley is now living in Portland and has a traveling position with Consolidated.

Picnic—Jobs Daughters are having a picnic in Moore park Wednesday morning, July 8, at 11 o'clock. Those who have not signed up to go are asked to call Barbara Moore at 7049, or Sharon Willits, 5281. Those planning to attend are asked to bring 10 cents for ice cream and pop.

To Grants Pass—Mrs. Wilmot Crandall of La Pointe's is spending a two-weeks' vacation as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Riley, formerly of this city, and now residing on the old Rogue River road. The Rileys recently completed a beautiful home on the river.

To Longview—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Breitenstein, (Ellen Stadiu), left this weekend for Longview, Wash., where Breitenstein has accepted a position as pharmacist. He was formerly with Waggoner Drug company and Mrs. Breitenstein was a member of the county health unit.

Picnic Called Off—The annual pioneer picnic, scheduled for the first weekend after the Fourth of July, will not be held this year, it was announced Monday. Pioneers are planning an inside meeting and program in February.

To Beatty—Dr. Peter H. Rozendal, Klamath county health officer, accompanied by Myrtle Caldwell, senior nurse, and Phyllis Duffy, office clerical assistant, spent Monday in the Beatty district giving typhoid shots.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Estis of Monterey, Calif., are spending a part of the summer at the W. A. Serruys ranch on the Merrill road. Mrs. Estis and Mrs. Serruys are sisters.

At Lake—Scores of families motored from Klamath Falls to Lake o' the Woods over the two-day holidays and campgrounds at the resort were full to capacity, it was reported.

Expected Home—W. A. Serruys and his daughter, Mary Alice, are expected to return Wednesday from a trip which has taken them to Portland and Seattle.

To Colusa—The Rev. Richard R. Houssell of Colusa, Calif., who spent the weekend here as the guest of the Rev. Victor E. Newman, returned to his home Monday morning.

City Sustains Gala Mood Over Two-Day Weekend

A safe and sane Fourth of July was the report of city police who said early Monday they hadn't heard a "single firecracker."

No accidents were reported in the city limits and arrests were normal for a two-day holiday.

Damage Suit Opens in Circuit Court Monday Morning

Trial started in circuit court Monday in the damage suit brought by Mildred Ross against Frank Hayes, Consolidated Freightways and Albert C. Ault.

The case grew out of an accident near Algoma on December 27, 1940. Miss Ross was riding in a car driven by Defendant Hayes, which was involved in an accident with a Consolidated truck. Ault was driver of the truck.

She is suing for $40,000 general damages and $4993 special damages.

Selection of a jury was still underway Monday afternoon.

Sheila Perkins Misses Her Father

Sheila Perkins of Los Angeles was a disappointed little girl last week when she drove a thousand miles from here to Cheyenne, Wyo., only to miss her father, Lt. Clyde Perkins, by eight hours.

Sheila is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burleigh of the Merrill road. Mrs. Burleigh and her niece left Sunday by motor for Cheyenne, driving all night in the hope of seeing Lt. Perkins, prior to his departure for foreign service. Lieutenant Perkins, Mrs. Burleigh's brother, has been stationed with the United States army at Fort Francis Warren.

Mrs. Tillman Fishes, Husband Pays Penalty

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 6 (AP)—Mrs. Gladys Tillman of Klamath Falls was busily engaged in fishing in the North Umpqua river Sunday when State Policeman Fred L. Perry approached and asked to see her angler's license.

"Start talking," she told her husband, who was fishing nearby, the officer related.

The husband, E. H. Tillman, informed Perry, the latter said, that he had told Mrs. Tillman and Eva Mae Dixon, also a member of the party, to go ahead and fish, even though they lacked licenses and he would pay their fines if they were caught.

He carried out his promise by appearing in court this morning before complaints were fully prepared, and paid $50 covering the $25 fines imposed on each of the women.

CONSERVATION OF FARM CARS EYED

Development of conservation measures that will keep farm car and truck rolling for the duration will be the object of a county transportation committee now being organized by the Klamath county USDA war board, C. A. Henderson, county agent and secretary of the war board has announced.

Leaders of all county farm organizations and producer groups will be asked to serve on the committee, which will work with the war board in devising and putting into effect cooperative methods of cutting down mileage on all farm vehicles.

Those who will serve on the committee include: Pomona grange leader, Lewis Botens; president of the county stock-growers association, William Klutledge; representative of producers' cooperative associations, John Reber; county USDA war board, Fred Rueck; and the chairman of the county agricultural planning committee, E. A. Geary.

The first meeting of the new committee will be held July 10, at 9:30 a. m. Besides setting up a "share your car and truck" program for the county, the group will discuss the effect of the program for conserving commercial trucking facilities set up by the office of defense transportation. While farm trucks are not included in the order, the office has asked that farmers cooperate voluntarily to conserve their trucks and promote efficiency in farm transportation.

First Pay Day Held at Center

First payday will be held at 6:30 p. m. Monday at the war relocation authority's Tule lake project for evacuees of Japanese descent.

Pay envelopes will be distributed to 205 enlistees in the authority work corps. Disbursements will be in cash. The enlistees are working at farming, cooking, clerical and other jobs at the project.

Davenport Given Silver Star Award

PORTLAND, July 6 (AP)—A silver star was awarded Lieut. Dean Davenport, one of the Tokyo bombers, in a fourth of July review at the Portland army air base.

The award was made to the Portland pilot "for gallantry in action subsequent to the raid on Japan, April 18, 1942." Davenport previously had been awarded the distinguished flying cross and a Chinese government decoration.
