Kalpine Plywood versus Matt Finnigan.

First Baseman Nash of the Big Lakes Box nine personally slapped the Knights of Columbus down into a tie for second place Monday night with a fifth-inning four base drive which wound up as the only run scored as city softballers opened their second round of play at Recreation park.

Nash's smash plastered the second defeat in four games on the KC's and earned the second victory in a quartet of efforts for his squad. Stein, slender Big Lakes' hurler, rationed six scattered hits through the first five innings, and blanked the Knights completely in the final pair.

Hilsabeck of the KC's slugged an earlier triple which might have been stretched into a homer. He died on third, however.

Tonight's tiff brings the undefeated Kalpine crew against Matt Finnigan's winless high school boys in a game which should be nothing if not decisive for the Plywooders.

Fish Reports Requested by Game Comish

Anglers are urged again to report the results of each of their fishing trips to the state game commission on the special orange colored catch record cards furnished for this purpose and which can be secured from all fishing resorts, license dealers and state police officers, a request said today.

The game department is particularly anxious to have as complete information as possible on this year's fishing season and the cooperation of all sportsmen is needed. The cards are self-addressed and stamped and require no signature so that it is only necessary for the angler to indicate in the spaces provided the number of fish caught, species, location and other pertinent information.

The data so acquired will help determine where present fish planting policies of the commission are successful and where changes should be made for the future.

Californians Dominate State Net Tournament

PORTLAND, Ore., July 18 (AP)—Californians dominated the field today as men's singles players completed the second round in the annual Oregon state tennis tournament.

Jim Brink, the lanky Seattle southpaw who is seeded second, Harry Buttner, San Francisco, and Ken McCarthy, Fresno, already have gained the quarter finals, and by tonight five other players will join them.

Only ranking player defeated yesterday was Walt Palaske, Portland, seeded fourth, who fell before Jim Livingstone, unseeded San Franciscan, 6-4, 6-1.

St. Loo Sells Lonnie Warneke To Chicago Cubs

ST. LOUIS, July 8 (AP)—In a surprising move, the St. Louis Cardinals announced today they were assigning Lon Warneke, veteran right-handed pitcher, to the Chicago Cubs on waivers.

The transaction, for the nominal price of $7500, gives the Cubs a strong-armed hurler with an impressive major league record of 183 victories against 108 defeats.

He won 17 games and lost only nine last year and has won six and lost four so far this season.

Angott Trounces Bob Monty

Lightweight Champ Earns Third Straight Over Negro
By TED MEIER
PHILADELPHIA, July 8 (AP)—Lightweight Champion Sammy Angott had to his credit today a third straight win over Philadelphia's Bob Montgomery, but his latest victory has started a controversy that may lead to a fourth meeting.

Angott bullied and mauled his way to a split decision over Montgomery at Shibe park last night in a 12-round non-title scrap. The decision was booed by many in the crowd of 16,050 that contributed to a gross gate of $33,553.50, but there seemed to be as many who declared the decision was just.

Angott, a 6 to 5 favorite, carried the fight to Montgomery throughout the first five rounds and piled up a big lead. In the sixth, Montgomery managed to keep Angott at long range and drove home a series of lefts and rights. Throughout the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth, Montgomery waged an uphill battle, but then he weakened. Angott swarmed all over him in the last round.

The grueling, but not spectacular fight, was decided by the vote of Referee Spud Murphy after the judges split.

BLACKOUT

OSAWATOMIE, Kas., July 8 (AP)—Oswatomie's baseball outlook was dark. The team hadn't won a game all season.

Then Tom Handzusky, 18, an unknown Arkansan, blew into town.

"It couldn't be worse," sighed the management, putting him on the mound against Paola.

He won 9 to 2, fanning 15 and allowing no earned runs. Then he blew out of town. Oswatomie's baseball outlook is dark.

Prince, Bob Kruse Draw; Brazil Wins

Sockeye Jackson McDonald ran into "difficulties with which he had himself wrestled," plus a wooden post last night in the warmish Klamath armory. They were too much.

The combination of the Arnoldian phrase—in the person of Jim Casey—and the post—in the corner splitting Section B from Section C—felled him most completely and thereby evened his score with rugged Irishman at one apiece.

The business was the top end of Promoter Mack Lillard's regular weekly grapple struggle at the same old stand and capped a card ranking as even slightly more frenetic than the customary armory delirium.

Crusher Jim captured the first fall, an achievement which had escaped him altogether in the pair's last Tuesday meeting, by reversing a series of McDonald's elbow smashes with one of his own and toppling on the flattened Scotchman with a body press. It all happened after approximately 10 minutes of roisterous tumbling.

The tempo increased, apparently to a strictly kosher point, in the ensuing skirmish marked by, among other sidights, McDonald sinking his teeth into Casey's Irish stomach and both lads carrying on the battle in Section C.

It went on apace until Sockeye stumbled toward a corner, clipped his mouth on a turnbuckle and slithered onward until his topknok collided with the post. Groaning piously, he lay there as Casey jumped on him twice to make sure.

Referee Earl Younkley and a couple of other guys carried him away.

Last night's middle event saw Broccoli Bob Kruse, the barefoot farm boy from Oswego, Ore., battle to a draw with Prince Mikhailis, an Arabian. Kruse captured the first fall in the third round with a wristlock and press.

The pair fought on for three more before the prince, after punishing the farmer's left arm with everything in the bad book through the fifth, pinned Kruse in the final frame for a draw.

In a boisterous opener, Pedro Brazil, champion of all South America, toppled the loudlyhooted Cliff Olsen, two falls to three.

Loop-Leading Locals Fight To Retain Circuit Lead

Klamath's Pelican baseballers, riding comfortably atop the Oregon-California Interstate league with a one-game margin, were not quite so comfortable today.

For this weekend they may see their lead vanish and re-appear Monday morning in the hands of Medford.

The two squads play a brace of games Saturday and Sunday in the valley after all Whitebird hands have had a two weeks lay-off over the Fourth of July. Apt to be rusty, they called a practice session last night and carded another for Thursday.

Bigbill followers were cheered this week, however, with the announcement that Marshall Eye-stone, heavy-hitting outfielder of last year, has returned to the lineup for the first time this season.

His return is expected to add welcome punch to the locals' attack.

Caps Tripped Along Trail Of Tacoma

By The Associated Press
The Vancouver Capilanos were handed another setback in their efforts to overtake the Western International Baseball league leading Tacoma Tigers last night when the last place Spokane Indians turned on the steam in the seventh inning to whip the Caps, 7-2.

The Indians scored a run for every hit while big Hank Bushman handcuffed the Caps with three safeties. With the scored tied one-all, Spokane paved the way for a withering rally in the seventh frame when a single, a walk and a wild pitch by Pete Jonas put men on second and third. Bushman singled both men home and the parade started that brought in six tallies.

The Tacoma squad, meanwhile, lengthened its league lead to three games with a narrow 4-3 victory over the Salem Senators on the Salem grounds.

Two veteran Pacific coast league pitchers are tabbed as "old reliables" by their respective fans today.

Byron Speece, Portland hurler, wasn't going to take his scheduled turn against Seattle last night because he has been troubled with a sore arm, but he turned out a five hitter that was good enough to beat the Rainiers, 4 to 1.

While Speece was working his best performance of the year, his teammates were pounding Dick Barrett, who leads the league in games won, for nine hits.

At Hollywood, the San Francisco Seals, who pushed the Beavers into a far corner of the cellar last week, called on Sam Gibson, 42-year-old twirler, and he shut out the Stars, 2 to 0, with a four-hit stint.

Gibson received only fair support from Seal batsmen who managed to tap out six hits in eight innings of chukking by Freddie Gay, but failed to touch the offerings of Charley Root, who believed in the last frame.

Oakland continued to have trouble as they dropped a 6 to 7 decision to Los Angeles at Emeryville after they had the Angels blanked, 6 to 0, going into the seventh.

Angel Stickmen drove Ralph Buxton from the hill in that inning by starting a five-run rally. Vince Dibiasi took over to yield the tying run and then gave up the winning tally in the eighth.

Sacramento, playing at San Diego for the first time this season, stopped the Padres at 7 to 5 as Left Fielder Averett Thompson cracked out a pair of triples to score four runs for the Solons.

Rigney Takes Over As Feller Showered

Junior Loopers Complete Sweep of Series, Nationals, and Army-Navy

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
CLEVELAND, July 8 (AP)—The American league all-stars have proved by all tests that they are, currently, the mightiest in baseball.

Before a patriotic throng of 62,094 spectators in Cleveland's mammoth municipal stadium last night, the triumphant American leaguers also proved their pitching was too sharp for eyes dulled by months of devotion to another task and their bats too potent for pitching arms grown rusty in the armed services of their country.

The American leaguers routed proud bullet Bob Feller of the navy, Cleveland's own fireballer, with a three run outburst at the start, and then went on to trounce Lieut. Gordon (Mickey) Cochrane's soldiers and sailors, 5 to 0.

For six innings the American leaguers clung to a 3 to 0 lead collected at Feller's expense in the first two, and then sewed up the game in the seventh with a two-run attack on Mickey Harris, former Boston Red Sox lefty.

"Iron Mike" Cochrane, once manager of the Detroit Tigers, and one of the greatest catchers in baseball history, took the defeat calmly.

"We lost in the first inning," Cochrane explained. "We had the bases loaded and a single would have changed the whole story. We just muffed a big opportunity. That's all. You don't get a chance to beat a team like those American leaguers every day in the week. Poor Feller didn't have a thing. I've never seen him get belted like that. It proves that he wasn't there—that his duties in the navy have robbed him of his timing, his control."

Best looking pitcher of the night was John Dungan Rigney, late of the Chicago White Sox, now a "gob" at the Great Lakes naval training station. The 27-year-old Rigney, went to Feller's rescue with no one out in the second, and pitched five runless innings, allowing the mighty American leaguers only three hits, one a miserable infield grounder that Rigney was unable to field. Rigney left the game in the sixth to make way for a pinch hitter, Johnny Lucadello, formerly of the St. Louis Browns.

The service all-stars threatened chiefly in the first inning when Jim Bagby Jr., of the Cleveland Indians was on the mound. Bagby, whose father made pitching history with

Givan's 69 Takes Lead In Western

Corp. Bud Ward Fires 73 In Spokane Qualifying Round; Callison Hits 70

By RUSS NEWLAND
SPOKANE, Wash., July 8 (AP)

The slickest field of golfers that could be mustered under present conditions started firing today in the last half of 36 hole qualifying tests of the western amateur championship and if first round performances were repeated high scores promised to be the rule, rather than the exception.

Harry Givan of Seattle, 1937 American Walker cup player, set the pace for the first round yesterday but his sub-par effort was only one of five turned in on the Manito course.

He knocked out the finest golfer of the first day, with a controlled hook that brought tremendous distances off the tee on the flat but difficult layout. Givan carded a 35-34. Par requirements are a pair of 36s.

Trailing the husky Seattle entry were Verne Callison of Sacramento, Calif., at 70; and three 71 shooters, Harry Hiller of Seattle, a navy seaman; Bruce McCormick of Los Angeles, and Wilford Wehrle of Racine, Wis., holder of the Mexican amateur title.

Defending champion and National Amateur Tittist Corp. Marvin "Bud" Ward, U. S. A., was somewhat off the pace at 73 while two other notables, National public links champ Bill Welch of Houston, Tex., and Corp. Pat Abbott of Los Angeles, floundered far back as the second half opened. Each had a 78 and were lucky to get it. Abbott, former National public links top man, was defeated by Corp. Ward last year in the finals of the National amateur at Omaha.
