Outstanding Achievement — William L. Bishop has been assigned to aviation radio training at San Diego, Calif., being the only man of his company who successfully passed the examination for this course, according to word received by the local recruiting station. Upon completion of an intensive four months' training course, he will be assigned to one of the navy bomber squadrons. Bishop, who was a teller in the First National bank here before enlisting on May 19, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Angus Bishop, 611 North Eleventh street.

Return from Trip — Mr. and Mrs. Dale McCormack have returned from a two weeks' vacation trip to Los Angeles, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. DuFresne. The McCormacks accompanied the DuFresnes south when the latter returned to their home after visiting here with relatives and friends during June. Mrs. McCormack and Mrs. DuFresne are sisters.

Shift Made — Marcus W. Watson, postal savings clerk at the Klamath Falls postoffice, is leaving Saturday to take a similar position at Santa Maria, Calif. By singular coincidence, he will be replaced here by Emery Watson of Santa Cruz. The two men are not related to each other. Watson, who is the father of Weston Watson, survivor of the torpedoed Lexington, will be accompanied south by his wife and three children.

Special Police — A. C. Listoe, formerly southern Oregon manager for the Anderson Airplane school in Los Angeles with headquarters here, is now employed as special police in the federal buildings at Washington, D. C. Mrs. Listoe has remained here because of the difficulty of finding housing accommodations there.

From South — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bathiany of Martinez, Calif., are here this weekend to attend the wedding of Patricia Gallagher and Lieut. Robert Shaw. Mrs. Bathiany stopped here en route south after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verle Halsey of Couer d'Alene, Ida. They are guests of Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany of the Marion apartments.

From Langell Valley — Mrs. Naomi Pepple of Langell valley was in Klamath Falls Thursday transacting business. She reported considerable merriment in the valley caused by a news item stating that Mr. Pepple had made 10 goose feather pillows, funds from the sale of which were donated to the Red Cross. It should have read "Mrs. Pepple."

From Medford — Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Martin and Mrs. Anna Martin are the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. George Rankin of Vine street. Martin, former lineman for the California Oregon Power company here, has been employed on the Medford cantonment for some time. The Martins will be leaving shortly for San Diego.

From Tulolake — O. A. Schultz was in Klamath Falls on business Thursday from his farm at Tule lake.

Greater Number — There have been 536 boys and girls registered in summer recreational activities here, instead of 236, as previously reported. The corrected figure was given by the office of Dave Bridge, city recreation officer.

Child Recovering — Linda Ann Ellis, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis of 1725 Lexington street, has just had eight stitches removed from a two-inch gash on her face which she received while playing at the home of her uncle, Tom Powers, 5060 Harlan drive, on Friday, July 3.

Goes South — Mrs. W. Kitto has returned to her home in Los Angeles following a three months' trip which included visits in the farth south and east. Mr. and Mrs. Kitto are former residents of this city, where they operated a shoe store for a number of years.

From Stockton — Mrs. Russell Bodley and young son, Walton, will arrive Saturday morning from Stockton, Calif., to spend two weeks visiting Mrs. Bodley's mother and sister, Mrs. George J. Walton and Katherine.

Guests of Soldiers — The Commandos, local troop entertainment group, will have the order of things reversed Sunday. They have been invited by Capt. Patterson, commanding officer, to be the guests of the soldiers stationed at Newell, Calif.

Seriously Ill — Mrs. Alvin W. Hamel, who has been with the city library for the past six years, has been in Klamath Valley hospital since Wednesday suffering from a serious attack of influenza. She is not permitted to have visitors.

Receives Word — Mrs. Vincent Lawler has received word that her husband is now stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., 125 miles west of St. Louis. He left here May 30, after having enlisted as a VOC with the army engineers.

To Portland — Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Miller and two sons, Tom and David, will leave this weekend by motor for Portland to spend the greater part of next week. They will make the trip north over the coast route.

Vacation at Lake — Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Porter and two children, Karen and LeRoy, are spending this week at the Andrew Collier cabin at Lake o' the Woods.

To Burns — Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg, accompanied by his young son, David, is spending several days in Burns holding court.

Leave Klamath Falls — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayworth left Klamath Falls on July 7 for Portland, where Hayworth will be engaged in government work.

Returns — Mrs. W. R. Nelson has returned to her home, 2240 Applegate avenue, from Portland where she visited for two weeks with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Alton Stiles and daughter, Mrs. Don Burkland and son Richard, are now in Portland at the home of Mrs. Burkland's sister, Mrs. Stiles.

Classes to Meet — All women who have signed up for the Red Cross nutrition classes, both afternoon and evening, are asked to be present at an organization meeting scheduled for Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the production room of the armory.

Teacher on Trip — Mrs. Irene Foster, teacher at Mills school, returned from a week's visit with relatives in Portland, and on Tuesday left for Ashland to spend some time with her mother and sister.

Visit From Minot — Mrs. J. W. Porter and daughter Harriet, former Klamath Falls residents, are visiting here for several weeks from their home at Minot, N. D., and are guests at the home of Mrs. Porter's sister, Mrs. H. R. Huddart of 249 Fulton street.

In Hospital — Mrs. A. W. Hamel, 2035 Darrow avenue, is a patient at Klamath Valley hospital. Mrs. Hamel has been ill at her home for several days and was moved to the hospital Wednesday.
