CHANGES MADE IN CHURCH OFFICERS

A number of changes were made in church officers and procedure at the first district conference of the church of Latter Day Saints held Sunday, July 5, since the Klamath district was changed to the northern California mission.

Paul E. Skeen was retained as district president, with Earl Wilson, counselor, and William Keese, clerk. E. E. Burrows was chosen branch president to replace Orval Provost who has moved to Washington. Carl Baker is his counselor and Del Robertson, branch clerk.

Elder Petersen, district missionary president, assigned Elders Sharp and Noel to work in the Klamath Falls area and they can be reached by phoning 3088.

Some changes in church procedure were announced last Sunday and others will be announced from time to time as necessary.
