Pert Pups Fun To Stitch On Linens

7353 by Alice Brooks

He's looking at you! And you will find it's lots of fun to look at him and his pal after they're embroidered on your linens. Pattern 7353 contains a transfer pattern of 20 motifs ranging from 1 x 3 inches to 5 1/2 x 8 1/2 inches; materials needed; illustrations of stitches. To obtain this pattern send 11 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture; but keep it and the number for reference. Be sure to wrap coin securely, as a loose coin often slips out of the envelope. Requests for patterns should read, "Send pattern No. .... to .... followed by your name and address."

Chatburn, well known residents of Merrill, with a new addition to their family. It was a boy, weighing 7 pounds 7 ounces.

Visitors — Visitors at the Lee Kennedy home, 605 Martin street, last week were Mr. and Mrs. Al Perrault, daughter and son-in-law of the Kennedys, accompanied by George and John Caruso and the Kennedy grandsons, Leland Kennedy, all of Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wonch, daughter and son-in-law from Tionesta, Calif., were also visitors, as well as Jesse Skinner of Medford.

Trying to Locate — Doris Stone 346 Twenty-fifth avenue, Longview, Wash., has contacted local police in an attempt to locate her father, Ellery Stone, whom she knows lived here in 1938. Miss Stone has never seen her father. Anyone having information that would help to locate him is asked to call police headquarters or write directly to his daughter.
