Pelicans Doubly Drubbed by Craters, 6-5, 4-3, Shoved Into Ore-Cal Second Place

Ex-"Fastest Human" Now a Marine

Charlie Paddock, left, one of the "world's fastest human" of the cinderpath, is now a marine. He's shown in San Francisco as Colonel D. M. Randall swore him in as captain.

NEW YORK, July 13 (Wide World)—Weather report: Are those storm clouds brewing among the peaceful Pittsburgers? "Tis said several Buc players have their own idea why Al Lopez wasn't picked on the National league's all-star outfit. . . . And some of 'em are rooting for Al to land a manager's job—whether it's in smoky town or some other place.

Ray Carlen writes to tell the boys not to pooh-pooh Henry Armstrong's comeback yet. . . . Because it looks like the hammer still has a lot of fight left in him. . . . And Willie Glezburg takes pen in hand to inform the folks that it wasn't his welterweight champ, Red Cochran, but Challenger Ray Robinson, who insisted their Sept. 10 fight be a non-title fust.

IS-A AND DAT-A

Rudy York gets a five-grand bonus if he knocks in 100 runs this year. . . . He's on the 50-mark now. . . . But what the boys would like to know is who made a fancy fielder of him? . . . The way he's improved, there's even hope for Zeke Bonura. . . . Texas Ben Whitaker reports that Requested is all over his feverish knee, but he's been taken out of training again because of ankle trouble. . . . And there's no telling when the bare-hitting little col'll come back to the races. . . . But that doesn't mean Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons hasn't got Apache back to where he'll give Shut Out and Alsab a hassle for what's left of the three-year old championship. . . . That not an air-raid siren you hear coming out of Madison, Wis., these evenings. . . . Harry Stuhldreher just got a look at that ten-game schedule they've fixed up for his Badgers this fall.

QUIZ PROGRAM

Are the big leagues getting ready to welcome Pepper Martin back—as a mace? . . . And what major race track, as much as told the turf committee of America that it wasn't making any plans to chip into war relief, even though most of the big apple plants have kicked in with 100 G's apiece.

Twin Whipping Gives Craters Leadership

Klamath's first place Pelicans of Saturday are Klamath's second-place Pelicans of today.

Briefly, Benham was no Bonham and the lads dropped two one-run decisions to the Medford Craters over the weekend on the opposition's field. Saturday it was 6-5 and Sunday 4-3.

The defeats gave the Craters a one-game lead as the Oregon-California loop swung into its second half play. Both of them were incurred in the payoff half of the payoff inning—the last portion of the ninth.

On Saturday the Pelicans were down, 5-4, going into the final frame. They tied up in

Down, 3-1, at the end of the seventh, the Pelicans staged a one-run rally in the eighth and another in the ninth to level the match.

But the Craters pushed over the winning score while the game was still in regulation periods.

Kenny Benham rushed in on Saturday in an effort to save Virg Haynes' ball game but missed by just a run. He went the distance, hurling excellent ball, on Sunday.

Private Joe Dickinson and Manager Dutch Lieber were the winning twirlers for the Medfords.

Meanwhile at Dorris, the Lumberjacks were splitting a weekend brace with the last-place Grants Pass Merchants. The valley nine copped the first on Saturday, 11-9, but Dorris evened it up with a 7-3 Sunday victory.

The Vancouver Capilano edged up a bit on the league-leading Tacoma Tigers in Western International Baseball league standings yesterday with a double-battered win over Spokane while the Tigers were splitting their doubleheader with Salem.

The Caps won the first tilt, 5-2, behind the five-hit pitching of Pete Jonas while they capitalized on 16 safeties allowed by Hub Kittle.

In the second game both squads went wild and treated Spokane fans to as free-hitting a game as they had seen in many a month. The Caps hit safely 23 times and piled up 18 runs while Spokane connected with 14 for 11 runs, six in the final inning in a belated rally.

At Tacoma the Salem Senators scratched out an 8-7 victory in the opener, barely heading off a Tiger rally in the ninth that netted three runs. The Tacomans hit safely 14 times, Salem 13.

Lefty Al Lien tied up the Solons in the nightcap with a four-hitter while his mates pounded two Salem hurlers for 13 bingles and a 9-1 victory.

The day's best pitching performance in the American league was turned in by Jake Wade, who held the Philadelphia Athletics to three hits and contributed three blows himself as the Chicago White Sox took the second game, 11-1. Double victories were the rule in coast league baseball games Sunday. Sacramento, Los Angeles and Portland each won both ends of twin bills. Hollywood and San Francisco divided honors.

Portland spilled Seattle twice by the same score, 3 to 2. It took the Beavers 11 innings to do it in the first game. In the nightcap, Portland scored its three runs in the first inning.

Dick Barrett, of Seattle, allowed only seven hits until the eleventh inning of the opener at Portland. Then Marvin Owen singled, advanced to second on Larry Barton's single. In the second game Portland scored three runs off Carl Fischer in the first three innings and held the lead throughout.

Sacramento retained its grip on the league leadership with 7 to 2 and 6 to 2 victories over San Diego. San Diego won only one game in the seven-game series.

At Oakland, Los Angeles defeated the Oaks 3 to 2 and 3 to 1 and also captured the series, six games to one. In both games Oakland took an early lead. In the first they held their advantage until the ninth when Los Angeles pounded Pitcher Ralph Buxton for all three of their runs.

San Francisco shut out Hollywood 1 to 0 in a first-game pitching duel between Sam Gibson and Charley Root. The Stars connected for a pair of home runs in the ninth inning of the second game for an 8 to 6 victory.

Sacramento's double victory came on five-run rallies in both games. In the opener, Averett Thompson started the rally in the sixth with a single. Singles by Jack Sturdy and Steve Messner, a double by Debs Garmes and a three-bagger by Ray Mueller accounted for the scores. The Solons' scoring spree in the second game came in the fifth inning.

Pat Abbott Captures West Amateur Golf

Corporal Trounces Bruce McCormick, 7 and 6 in Finals at Manito Sunday

By RUSS NEWLAND
SPOKANE, July 13 (AP)—Buell Patrick Abbott of the United States army is the new western amateur golf champion. In fact, he is just about a champion of champions.

The slim enlisted man from Los Angeles and Lowry field, Denver, captured the title and the big cup that goes with it in a runaway race yesterday in which he swapped Bruce McCormick, Los Angeles, 7 and 6 in the 39-hole finals.

Big time tournament golf is nothing new to Abbott—he held the national public links crown in 1936—but in winning the western he was the lone survivor of one of the best fields assembled in a long time.

Included in it and victims somewhere along the line were the national amateur and defending champion, Corp. Marvin "Bud" Ward; the present national public links top man, Bill Welch of Houston; former Walker cup star Harry Givan; McCormick, who succeeded Abbott as national public links titlist in 1937, and numerous city and sectional camps.

The lustre hadn't even worn off Abbott's victory before he was risking prestige in a match with his most formidable rival, Corporal Ward. The two prepared to match shots in an 18-hole exhibition here late today, the proceeds to go to the army emergency relief fund.

It will be a renewal of a long rivalry last fought out last year at Omaha where Ward defeated Abbott 4 and 3 to win the national amateur title. The stage had seemed to have been set for them to meet in the finals of the western, just concluded. They were the pre-tournament favorites.

Ward, however, failed to hold up his end of it. He was eliminated in the quarter-finals by Public Links Boss Welch, 2 up.

Abbott, meanwhile, played the best golf in the tournament to win all six matches by substantial margins. He was 10 under par for 118 holes, which is fair golf for one who had been practically a weekend player since last November.

Silverton remains in running for State Semi Title

SILVERTON, July 13 (AP)—Silverton's defending Oregon semi-pro baseball champions remained in the running for the 1942 crown last night with a 7-3 win over McElroy's of Portland.

The losers bowed from the tourney with their second defeat. They were at the mercy of Roy Helsler who limited them to five hits while his mates garnered 19 and until the final inning of the seven-stanza nightcap they were scoreless.

ORANGE, N. J. — Francisco Segura of Ecuador, took only 45 minutes Sunday to beat Ladislav Hecht, former Czechoslovakian Davis Cupper, 6-0, 6-0, 6-0, for the New Jersey state men's tennis title.

OCEAN CITY, N. J.—Billy Talbert of Cincinnati captured Atlantic coast net crown by defeating Harris Everett of Jacksonville, Fla., 6-1, 6-2, 6-1, Sunday.

The argument against diving into a strange stream is built on a rock foundation.
